

Sunshine Girls Will Visit Lake

Independence — Friendship Council No. 3 of Pythian Sunshine Girls met with the council called to order by Yvonne Cranton, royal princess.

Clair Corwin, Juanita Watts, Carol Pippin, Phyllis Nelson and Joyce Katter were admitted into the order by initiation with a beautiful candlelight ceremony. Mary Wade was reinstated. The choir, dressed in new choir robes, sang during the initiation, and the candidates were dressed in floor length pastel dresses.

Mae Ellen Harmon and Betty Foster gave a report on the week spent at "Girl's State" in Salem two weeks ago. Miss Harmon, sponsored by the American Legion, and Miss Foster, sponsored by the Pythian Sister, were delegates to the annual meeting of outstanding high school senior girls at the state capitol to learn the functions of the government.

Ruby Gleason, royal advisor, Lael Beckner, royal princess, and 14 other girls from Diane Council No. 4 of McMinnville were guests. Knights of Dallas visiting the order were T. J. Primus, John Brown, Kermit Courter, John Johnson, and Mr. Jones.

Betty Wade Lenhair was presented with a wedding gift by the council. The council is making plans to charter a bus for a three-day trip to Crater Lake. Thirty-seven girls and counsellors plan to make the trip the first week in August.

After closing, Barbara House of Diane council gave two piano solos and Betty Wade sang two numbers.

Mrs. Roth Winner Of Bridge Series

Mrs. Edward E. Roth was announced as the winner of a six-week series of duplicate tournaments just concluded by the Salem Elks Bridge Club. Paired with C. W. Frasier of Albany, Mrs. Roth also was high in the last of the series, Chairman W. E. Kimsey said.

Other weekly winners included Mrs. Ward Graham and Mrs. Charles F. Foulger, Mrs. C. B. Benton and Mrs. Arthur W. Binegar, Mrs. Mabel (Jones) Gannon and Mrs. C. F. McCoskrie of Corvallis. Other series winners to get extra rating points were Mr. Frasier, William F. Leary, Mrs. Walter M. Cline and Mrs. Paul F. Burris.

Bridges to Go To Honolulu

San Francisco, July 7 (AP)—Federal Judge Michael J. Roche today refused Harry Bridges' bid to attend a world federation of trade unions convention in France.

But Bridges won a partial victory when government attorneys said they had no objection to his making a trip, within the next three weeks, to Hawaii in connection with the current longshore strike there.

Ten days ago Bridges, under indictment for perjury and conspiracy, was refused permission to leave the country, but Roche granted a new hearing for today.

The union offered to post $100,000 bail to guarantee Bridges' return here for trial. Government attorneys said this was meaningless and that "unforeseen circumstances" might keep him in France even if the bond posted were a million dollars.

Union to Dedicate Hall Portland, July 7 (AP)—AFL teamsters will dedicate a new $220,000 union hall here Friday.
