Parties for Brides-Elect Numerous

Entertaining for brides-elect continues to make up much of the social activity.

Three to Entertain
Mrs. E. J. Scallars, Mrs. W. I. Needham and Mrs. U. Scott Page are inviting guests for a luncheon to be given next Tuesday, July 12, to honor Miss Margaret Jane Cooley, bride-elect of John Phillip Maulding of Tillamook. The luncheon will be at Silver Creek Falls lodge.

Dinner Saturday
Honoring Miss Marylou McKay and her fiance, Lester D. Green of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard will entertain Saturday evening at a buffet dinner at the Alexander home.

Teen-Treks
All girls registered for the Teen-treks planned by the Salem YWCA are to meet at 7 p.m. Thursday at the YWCA. Plans for the treks, supplies to take and routes will be discussed.

The treks begin July 18, a series being planned in lieu of camping programs.

Legion Groups Arrange Picnic
Kingwood post, No. 81, American Legion, and the auxiliary unit will sponsor a picnic next Sunday, July 10, at Paradise Island. The event is for all members and families.

The no-host dinner will be at 1 p.m. with coffee furnished by the auxiliary. Each family is to take its own table service.

The auxiliary has planned a short business meeting to elect a secretary-treasurer.

GRAND RONDE—Mr. and Mrs. J. Trice of Independence announce the marriage of their daughter, Jeanne Rowley, of Salem to Alan Bice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bice. The young couple were married June 25 at the Christian church parsonage. They will make their home in Salem, where both are employed.

Durham-Fields Wedding In June
Lebanon—At an afternoon ceremony on June 26 at the Methodist church, Miss Ruth E. Fields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fields, and Richard L. Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Durham, were wed before an altar banked with pink and white gladioluses and lighted candles. Rev. Carl Mason read the double ring service.

The bride, in a white satin gown, was given in marriage by her father. Her flowers were vanda orchids and stephanotis. Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Robert J. Thoma in aqua taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Joane Warner in an orchid frock, and Miss Delores Durham, sister of the bridegroom, who wore yellow.

Miss Nancy Gleason played the wedding marches accompanied the soloist, Miss Nancy Trigg.

Douglas Myers of Portland was best man and ushers were Richard Vogt, Dyrk Landon and Donald Miller.

At the reception, Mrs. Glenn Simmons poured, and Mrs. H. I. Kason, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Assisting were Miss Ethel Nelson and Miss Colleen Rappe.

For traveling Mrs. Durham wore a gown of watermelon silk with white top coat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of vanda orchids. After their return from the Oregon coast and California, Mr. and Mrs. Durham will be at home in the Gabeley apartments.

Rebekah Event
Woodburn—The regular meeting of Home Rebekah lodge, No. 58, was held Tuesday evening at the IOOF hall with Mrs. Sidney Cummings presiding. Routine business was transacted and Mrs. Cummings appointed Mrs. Myrtle Hall, Mrs. Fred Frenz and Ray Shaner as a committee to revise the by-laws.

Mrs. Ray Shaner was received into membership by transfer from the Gervais Rebekahs. Under good of the order, Mrs. Shaner gave a talk on her early membership in the order. There were also talks by a number of other members.

Mrs. Thomas Engle, Mrs. W. S. McClain and Miss Hazel Engle were appointed as the refreshments committee for the next meeting, July 19.

After the meeting the members enjoyed a Dutch treat at the Woodburn Coffee shop.

THE PRINGLE Pleasant Point Social club met last week at the home of Mrs. Martha Yates and honored the hostess on the occasion of her 88th birthday anniversary. A cake and gifts were presented the honoree.

At a short business meeting the group made plans for the picnic to be staged next Sunday in Dallas park for all members, families and friends. The club is to furnish the coffee and ice cream.

Visitors Entertained

Visitors in Salem are Mrs. Lee A. Rose of Los Angeles and Miss Graciela Marca of Lima, Peru. They are guests at the George Keortge home on South Cottage.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Keortge is to entertain at a desert luncheon and bridge honoring the visitors, guests for three tables being bidden.

Miss Stephens Home From Trip; Attends AAUW, Library Meets

Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, has returned from a trip during which she attended several meetings.

First she went to Seattle to attend the national convention of the American Association of University Women, being one of the delegates from the Salem branch and the state historian for the AAUW.

From there she flew to Chicago to attend the meeting of the personnel administration board of the American Library association on which she is serving a five-year term. As vice president of the National Association of State Librarians, Miss Stephens attended a joint meeting of that group with the American Law Librarians in Detroit and was re-elected to her national office.

Later, several of those at the Detroit meeting went to Lansing, Mich., to spend last Friday there visiting the state library. Miss Stephens flew home from there.

On August 21-25, Miss Stephens will attend the far western region meeting of the American Library association at Vancouver, B. C. She is chairman of library extension for the far west region. In the region are California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Montana, Idaho, and British Columbia and Alberta, in Canada.
