Stock Market Keeps Sluggish New York, July 11 (49)-The stock market greeted the president's mid-year economic message with polite indifference today Prices moved sluggishly before and after the president spoke. Few changes exceeded minor fractions and a wide varletv of leading issues remained t Friday's closing levels, Gains and losses were thoroughly scrambled.

Business tended to the slow side. Turnover was at the rate of only 650,000 shares or so for the full session. Most brokers were inclined to view the president's message with favor. The opinion was general, however, that the mescage did not offer any new fac-
