Jackson-Shafer Wedding at Aurora

Aurora—Miss Bessie Sylvia Shafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shafer, was wed recently to Willis Duane Jackson, of Orchard, Wash., at a candlelight double ring ceremony in the Canby Church of the Nazarene, Friday, June 24. Rev. Joseph Shafer of Walsburg, Wash., brother of the bride read the vows. Rev. Eugene McDowell, pastor of the Canby church assisted.

The bride wore a white satin gown with long train. Her fingertip veil edged with lace was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. Her father gave her in marriage. Attending the bride were Mrs. Don Krafe, matron of honor, wearing a blue taffeta gown and bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Shafer of Nampa, Idaho, and Miss June Shafer of Hubbard, in pink faille and pink marquisette, respectively. All three attendants are sisters of the bride. They carried nosegays of sweet peas.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Jo Keller of Kelso, Wash., and Don Kraft both sang. Mrs. David Keller, aunt of the bride played the wedding music. Candelighters were Miss Helen Westwood of Salem and Miss Mary Jane Hall of Gervais. Ushers were the bride's brothers, Paul Shafer of Hubbard and Prentiss Shafer of Nampa. Serving at the reception in the church parlors were Mrs. Wayne Oldsaker of Eugene, who cut the cake. Serving were Miss Bonnie Zimmerman, Mrs. Guy Sargent and Miss Doris McArthur. In charge of the gift table were Miss Beverly Curtis and Mrs. Don Rabe. Miss Carol Wolf of Woodburn had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will be at home to their friends in Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Gubbels Recent Bride

Silverton — On Saturday morning, July 2, at 9:00 at St. Paul's Catholic church in Silverton, Miss Cecilia C. Gubbels daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gubbels of Silverton was wed to Charles A. Schiedler son of Mrs. Mary Schiedler of Scotts Mills. Rev. John J. Walsh officiated at the nuptial mass and performed the ceremony. The altar was decorated with white lilies and greens.

Misses Eustelle Bauman and Pauline Saalfeld of Mt. Angel sang accompanied by Felix Shultz, also of Mt. Angel. Francis Gubbels, brother of the bride, and Michael Gander served as altar boys.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline design with beaded flowers, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, a fitted bodice and full gathered floor length skirt which terminated into a long court train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. The only jewelry was a three strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bridal bouquet of white sweetpeas and red roses.

Miss Alice Gubbels was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a yellow formal of net over taffeta. Her coronet was of the same material trimmed with seed pearls. Mrs. Joseph Borschowa, of Mt. Angel, was her sister's bridesmaid wearing a peach taffeta gown. She wore matching headpiece.

Raymond Schiedler of Mt. Angel was his cousin's best man and Joseph Borschowa was groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with black accessories while the bridegroom's mother wore a black sheer frock with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white and pink carnations.

A dinner was served to the bridal party and immediate families and friends at Toney's Cafe at Silverton. The bride's table was centered with a decorated wedding cake flanked by lighted candles. Miss Alice Gubbels assisted by Mrs. Joe Borschowa cut the wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Schiedler left
