Names Group to Probe City Pay

Salem Musicians Appearing in East—Four members of the Melodette Girls, accordion group from the Wiltsey Music House, who with their instructor, Mrs. J. A. Wiltsey, Wednesday night left for New York City where they are to compete in the American Accordion association festivities July 21. The girls will study in New York during their stay there and are also to take part in the Chicago and Melodette festival in Chicago on their return trip. Reading from left to right the Melodette Girls making the trip are Lois Gillings, Susanna Howell, Dona Zehner and Louella LaFontaine.

Miss Your Paper? — If the Capital Journal carrier fails to leave your copy please phone 22406 BEFORE 6 P.M. and a copy will be delivered to you.

Realty Firm Change—Certificate of assumed business name for Rawlins Realty, 2060 N. Capitol street, has been filed with the county clerk by Fred L. Rawlins as sole owner, a certificate of retirement being filed by O. D. Rawlins from Rawlins Realty and Insurance company.

Patterson Improves — Willis (Red) Patterson, formerly of Salem, injured in an accident near Red Bluff, Cal., several weeks ago, is improving in a San Francisco hospital, sends word to his sister, Mrs. Orland Watts of Salem. He has almost recovered from the paralysis and is conscious at intervals. More x-rays revealed fractures of both upper jawbones and a cheek bone. He was injured in an accident with a silo-filling machine. It is the fourth time in his life that he has been dangerously ill.

Service Station Files—Certificate of assumed business name for Murray's Texaco Service station has been filed with the county clerk by C. T. and S. C. Murray.

Oil Causes Trouble—A report to the county court said that the hot weather of Wednesday had caused considerable "bleeding" of oil on Lancaster drive between Silverton road and the Pacific highway and was smearing cars and so bad it made it practically impossible for carrier boys on bicycles to handle their papers. A coating of fine rock has been ordered strewn on the road to remedy the situation.

Strip Tease Pictures — Photographs delineating the progress of a strip tease exhibition were among the articles seized by Sheriff Denver Young Wednesday night at Stayton when he gathered in three punch boards at a tavern there. The sets of pictures were alleged to be prizes offered for winning numbers on the boards, the board having numbers selling from 1 to 99 cents. Other prizes included jackknives and a toy representing two boxers in action. Everett Ward, proprietor of the Rendezvous tavern where the boards were picked up, was cited by the sheriff to appear in Stayton justice court Thursday.

Leave Salem General—Mrs. J. Arthur Lee, 1229 Sixth, and infant daughter and Mrs. Leo Beach, 1860 Fredericks, and infant son, have been discharged from the Salem General hospital.

To Climb Wildcat—A trip to Wildcat mountain will be made Sunday by the Chemeketas, local outdoor and hiking club. The peak is located in the South Santiam area and will involve a 90-mile drive and a hike of five miles, one way. The party will leave from 240 North Commercial street and guests are welcome to join the expedition. Transportation will be provided all those desiring to go. The hike will be a qualifying one for new members. Participants are requested to provide their own trail lunch, canteen and insect repellent. Norman K. Winslow will lead the party.
