Miss Eggens Engaged, to Wed in Fall

Latest of Salem girls to join the ranks of brides-elect is Miss Mavis Eggens.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Eggens, are announcing her engagement to John Petty, son of Mrs. Maude Petty of Gladstone.

The wedding is planned for the late fall.

Miss Eggens has been attending Oregon State college where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Petty was graduated from University of Oregon in June and is a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Miss Kirkwood Is Honored at Party

Amity—The Sisterhood of the Christian church honored Miss Jeannette Kirkwood, bride-elect of Lamar Aldridge, with a surprise miscellaneous show in the social hall of the church July 7. The committee in charge, Mrs. Hugh Shields, Mrs. William F. Morse and Mrs. S. Sorensen, went to the Kirkwood home with an old-fashioned black umbrella and a raincoat and informed the honoree that a shower was in prospect and asked her to don the raincoat over her kitchen apron, and carry the umbrella to the church, where she found a room full of her friends to greet her. Games were enjoyed, and Miss Kirkwood was instructed to search the rooms in the church for her packages.

After that the gifts were opened. The hostesses served refreshments to 50 guests.

Members of the troop of Girl Rangers of the church for whom Miss Kirkwood has been the leader, were among the guests. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Jim Haley, San Francisco, Mrs. Pat Johnston, Woodburn, Mrs. Ersel Kirkwood, Mrs. Leonard Hickerson, Hopewell, Mrs. Walter Brog, Salem, Mrs. Dorothy Cunday, Seattle, Mrs. Robert Johnson also of Seattle, Mrs. Lynn Pierce, Oakland, Calif.
