Mithka.

Miss Jeanelle Gottenberg appeared in two readings following the installation ceremonies. The kitchen and serving committee under direction of Mrs. Wesley Grogan during the social hour for more than 150 guests included: Mrs. Olus Ander, Mrs. Thomas Blundell and Mrs. N. Webb. The annual picnic will be observed in a supper and program at the Silverton city park, to be definitely planned at the second meeting July 25, Monday. A full delegation and their alternates to the August State convention to meet in Salem, have been previously announced.

Miss Sweeney Wed In Sunday Rites
Dayton — In a candlelight ceremony at the First Christian church, McMinnville, on Sunday afternoon, July 10, at four o'clock, Miss Phyllis Marie Sweeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Brooks Sweeney, was married to Francis M. Trusty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Trusty, Portland.

Rev. Grant C. Cole, McMinnville, read the double ring ceremony, in the church which was decorated with candelabras, baskets of pink and white gladioluses, blue hydrangeas and baby breath. Mrs. Grant Cole, played the wedding music, and Malcolm Wilson, Brooksville, Maine, sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown in organza over satin with a veil of net held in place by an orange blossom crown. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Carlton G. Fangar, Portland, sister of the bride was the matron of honor. She was gown in aqua marquisette, and carried a nosegay of salmon pink sweetpeas. The bridesmaids were high school and college friends. Mrs. Hollis C. Mast, Myrtle Point, dressed in pink marquisette, and carrying a nosegay of light-pink sweetpeas, Miss Dorothy Engelbart, Salem, who wore yellow marquisette and carried a nosegay of lavender sweetpeas, Mrs. Edwin Jones, Canby, who wore blue marquisette, and carried a nosegay of pink sweetpeas, Miss Christian Trapalis and Miss Yvonne Hiatt, both of Roseburg, lighted the tapers. Little Miss Betty McFarlane was the flower girl.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Lyle Trusty. The ushers were the bridegroom's fraternity brothers, Kenneth Hasler, William Guyer, and Robert DeShazer.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe afternoon dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua linen afternoon dress, each wearing a gardenia and pink carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the church parlors; Miss Rose Marie Lorenzen played music during the reception hour. Mrs. Della U'ren, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, assisted by Carol Coburn, and Barbara Rossner. Mrs. Carl Anderson served the ices and Mrs. Malcolm Wilson poured. Mrs. Arthur Dresselhaus and Mrs. Earle Coburn had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Verle Saucy had charge of the guest book. Miss Darlene McFarlane caught the bridal bouquet.

For traveling the bride wore a blue tailored suit with navy and white accessories.

Following a trip to Canada the couple will make their home at Cottage Grove, where they will both teach in the high school there.

Leave on Trip
Mrs. John Powell of Turner and Mrs. Frank Brownell left today by plane for Minneapolis, going by way of Seattle. In Minnesota both will visit relatives and Mrs. Brownell is to attend a reunion of her relatives in Minneapolis. Mrs. Powell will go on to Detroit to get a new car and the women will drive west, planning to be home some time in August.

HOME FROM A MONTH'S VISIT
In Oklahoma is Mrs. Vincent W. Baronovich. She visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cowling, in Chickasha, Okla., and while there visited with many former college friends from Oklahoma College for Women at Chickasha. During one week the college friends entertained at a series of parties for Mrs. Baronovich. In return, Mrs. Baronovich also entertained at a bridge party for her friends and gave as prizes Oregon myrtlewood gifts.

On Friday of this week, Mrs. Baronovich will leave for Seattle to attend the second summer session at University of Washington, planning to be gone six weeks.

Engagement Is Announced
Mr. and Mrs. Reubin R. Hilfiker announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Arlyne Hilfiker, to Leland F. Fish of Emporia, Kansas, at a recent picnic in the gardens of their suburban home.

The table was covered with a white linen table cloth and the centerpiece was a giant firecracker with red streamers to which were attached small firecrackers. The fuses were tiny scrolls bearing the names of Arlyne and Leland. Red and white sweet peas completed the arrangement.

Those attending were Misses Lorna and Jodie Johannaber, Willeta Hersh, Shirlee Reimann, Beverly Gustafson, Donna Whitely, Donna Cump, Lola Koerner, Yvonne Casselman, Rosalie Dutoit, Carol Hilfiker, Mrs. Carl Gustafson, Mrs. O. V. Bodie, Michael Hilfiker and Mr. and Mrs. Hilfiker.

The wedding is planned for early September.

Children Baptized
Baptismal services for Richard William and Christy Louise, children of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., were held this afternoon at the home of their paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Sr. on West Lefelle. Dr. Chester

W. Hamblin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the service at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Al W. Loucks were the maternal grandparents and Mrs. John R. Folk, godparents. Following the service a small reception was held. Also present for the baptismal were the maternal grandparents and Mrs. Al W. Loucks were of the children, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Folk.

Friday Luncheon Salad
Ingredients: 1 household size package lemon-flavored gelatin, 1 1/2 cups hot water, 1 cup cubed avocado, 1/2 cup diced cucumber, 1/2 cup finely shredded carrot, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1/4 cup flaked canned seafood, 8 thick slices peeled tomato, lettuce, salt, 1/2 cup mayonnaise.
Method: Dissolve gelatin in hot water and chill until thick but not firm. To prepare calavo cut into halves and remove seed and skin; cut fruit into cubes. Add to cucumber, carrot, lemon juice and seafood and mix lightly into chilled gelatin. Turn into pan and chill until firm. Place one slice of tomato on each of eight lettuce-garnished salad plates and sprinkle with salt. Cut gelatin into squares and place one on each tomato. Garnish with mayonnaise. Makes 8 servings.
