Teen-Treks Start Monday

The long-planned "Teen-Treks" sponsored by the Salem YMCA as part of its camping program begin next week. The first one for a four-day jaunt to start Monday.

Thirty high school and junior high girls will go on this first trip into the Metolius and central Oregon country. They are making the trip by bus. Miss Jean Carrico is the camp director. Mrs. George Hewitt is supervising the outdoor cooking and Miss Ruth Watts is to go with the group as a life guard.

Short hikes to various interesting spots en route, swimming and boating at lake stops, and outdoor cooking as well as camping out at night are some of the highlights on the trek.

The girls will take the South Santiam route and will camp their first night at Clear Lake. On Tuesday, through the lunch period, they will be the guests at the Tamarack camp for girls through the cooperation of Miss Donna Gill, director there. Tuesday night will be spent in the Bend area with visits to the lava caves and the Bend rock gardens slated and a jaunt to Elk lake Wednesday. The group is due to return to Salem Thursday evening. The route home either will bring them over the McKenzie or Willamette highways, plans being subject to change as the trek progresses.

EXPECTED to arrive this week-end from Glendale, Calif., are Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Schenk and family, former residents of Salem. They will be guests at the Wendell Webb home.
