Weddings in Governors' Families Almost Tradition for Capital

Stellar event on next week's calendar and one spotlighting the capital in Oregon social news for the week-end will be the wedding of Miss Marylou McKay, the younger daughter of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, and Lester D. Green, son of Lester M. Green of Eugene.

The ceremony is arranged for 8 o'clock next Saturday evening, July 23, in the First Presbyterian church with a large reception following at the Jarris avenue residence of the McKays.

Past Weddings Recalled—

A wedding in the family of the governor is becoming almost a tradition in Oregon, the Green-McKay ceremony to be the fourth in recent years for the state's first families.

The last wedding for a member of the family of a governor here was that of Dr. William Earl Snell, son of Mrs. Earl Snell and the late Governor Earl Snell, and the former Marylee Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., of Salem. The ceremony was solemnized March 25, 1944 as one of that season's outstanding social event in the capital. The younger Snells now live in Portland.

A June bride was the former Martha Sprague, daughter of former Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, who was married to Dr. Melvin T. Hurley, June 14, 1941 during the administration of the bride's father as chief executive. The Hurleys are visiting now in the capital as guests at the Sprague home, the family moving from Boston, Mass., to Richmond, Calif., to make their home. An early summer service Salem remembers the wedding as a very beautiful one.

The marriage of Samuel Martin to Ellen G. Bowman of Portland was solemnized February 1, 1937, during the administration of his father, the late General Charles H. Martin as governor. The wedding was in Portland. The date will be long remembered in the capital because it coincided with the time one of Oregon's most severe snow storms descended on the western part of the state, making travel difficult for the bridal party and guests.

Plan Rehearsal Friday—

The Green-McKay wedding next Saturday will be attended by many out-of-town guests, friends coming from all parts of the state.

On Friday evening of next week, Governor and Mrs. McKay are to entertain at a buffet dinner at their home to honor their daughter and Mr. Green. The dinner will follow the wedding rehearsal, which is set for 5 o'clock. The dinner will be for members of the wedding party.

Among out-of-town relatives to assist at the wedding reception will be Mrs. J. W. Frater, Portland, mother of Governor McKay; Mrs. John Chetnam, aunt of the bride, Portland, and Misses Jane and Mary Chetnam; Mrs. Roy Radke, Portland, a cousin; Mrs. Clara Buchanan, Enumclaw, Wash., and Mrs. Fenton Ford, Eugene, aunts of Mr. Green.

Lewis-Myers

A garden wedding will be that of Miss Janice Myers and Lloyd Vernon Lewis of Eugene who are to be married Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Terrace Farm, country home of the bride-elect's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers.

The ceremony will take place on the lower terrace in a setting of varied garden flowers. A trellis of white gladioluses and ivy will form the background with two smaller trellises off to either side. The Rev. Chester W. Hamblin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is to perform the service.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. Ralph Myers, the latter an aunt of the bride, from Ontario, Calif. are to play incidental music. Mrs. Lietz will sing, accompanied by Mrs. James Teed, who also is to play the wedding marches.

To be given in marriage by her father, Miss Myers will wear a ballerina length white dress made with a long eyelet bodice and a full skirt of organdy. The dress has short sleeves and the slightly dropped shoulder effect. The bride will wear a large picture hat of white horsehair with ruffle edging, and her flowers will be a bouquet of white carnations and small white rosebuds with an orchid in the center.

The bride's attendants will be in pastel frocks, all ballerina length. Miss Jeanne Myers, twin sister of the bride is to wear a lavender marquisette dress fashioned similarly to that of the bride and with short sleeves and a filled-in yoke. She will wear a marquisette hat matching her dress and she will carry a bouquet of white blooms.

Mrs. Gerald Robison and Mrs. Harold Gardner are to be bridesmaids. Their dresses are fashioned similarly to that of the maid of honor, Mrs. Robison to be in pink, Mrs. Gardner in green. They will wear hats matching their dresses and each will carry a horsehair hat, the ribbon looped over an arm and each hat filled with flowers.

Little Miss Sharon McNall will be flower girl. She will wear a yellow frock and will carry a basket of flowers.

Wilbur Haskins of Merrill, Ore., is to be best man.

Among out-of-town guests for the wedding will be Mr. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lewis of Merrill, Ore., his grandmother, Mrs. Effie M. Tolle, and his aunt, Miss Gertrude Tolle, the latter two of Klamath Falls.

The reception following also will be on the terrace. The bride's table will be set with a white net cloth over blue, the corners looped up with carnations. The wedding cake will be in the center.

Mrs. George Croisan and Mrs. Abner Wilson, of Seattle, will cut the cake. Miss Minnie Just and Miss Gertrude Tolle are to pour. Mrs. Ralph Myers of Ontario, Calif., and Mrs. Homer Davis of Orange, Calif., both aunts of the bride, will assist at the table. Serving will be Miss Mariann Croisan, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Kenneth Prince, Miss Barbara Pates, Miss Margaret Moritz, Mrs. William Dann, Mrs. Harris Lietz and Mrs. Robert Siddoway, the latter of Portland, will preside at the punch table. Miss Grace Shields is to have charge of the guest book. Miss Anita Hager and Miss Marilyn Hjort are to have charge of the gifts table.

For traveling the bride is to wear a light weight navy blue suit with gray and white hat, navy and white accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After August 15 the couple will be at home at 1780 Ferry street, Eugene.

SALEM Art association members have arranged an interesting event for Sunday, July 31, a "fuchsia tea" to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn on North Summer.

The affair will be between 4 and 8 o'clock. The Shinn gardens are known for their beautiful fuchsias.

Mrs. Lester Barr is general chairman for the tea and Miss Elizabeth Lord is president of the association.
