

National Rotana Convention Opens in Salem Friday

Salem entertains a national convention next week, the 18th annual gathering for Rotana, national service organization, to be here through Friday, Saturday and Sunday. More than 100 delegates are expected from the 12 clubs in the organization.

Miss Vada L. Hill of the Salem club is the national president. Convention headquarters are to be at the Marion hotel.

The convention starts out with a luncheon meeting for the national board at 1:30 p.m. Friday. Registration of delegates gets under way at 6 p.m. Friday, followed by a western fun night at 8 o'clock in the hotel Marine room with members of the McMinnville club as hostesses.

Events Listed

Saturday's events begin with a group breakfast in the Marion Mirror room at 7:45 o'clock, followed by formal opening of the convention at 8:30 o'clock. Between 1 and 2 p.m. there will be a tour of state buildings, the convention to reconvene at 2:30 o'clock in the Hotel Marine home.

The convention formal banquet comes at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Mirror room of the Marion.

Neva M. Elliott, Portland attorney and member of the Portland Quota club, is to be the banquet speaker. Among guests will be representatives from other Salem service clubs.

The national board meeting is slated for 8 o'clock Sunday morning at the Marion, and buses will leave at 8:30 a.m. to take the members and delegates to a beach picnic at Surftides.

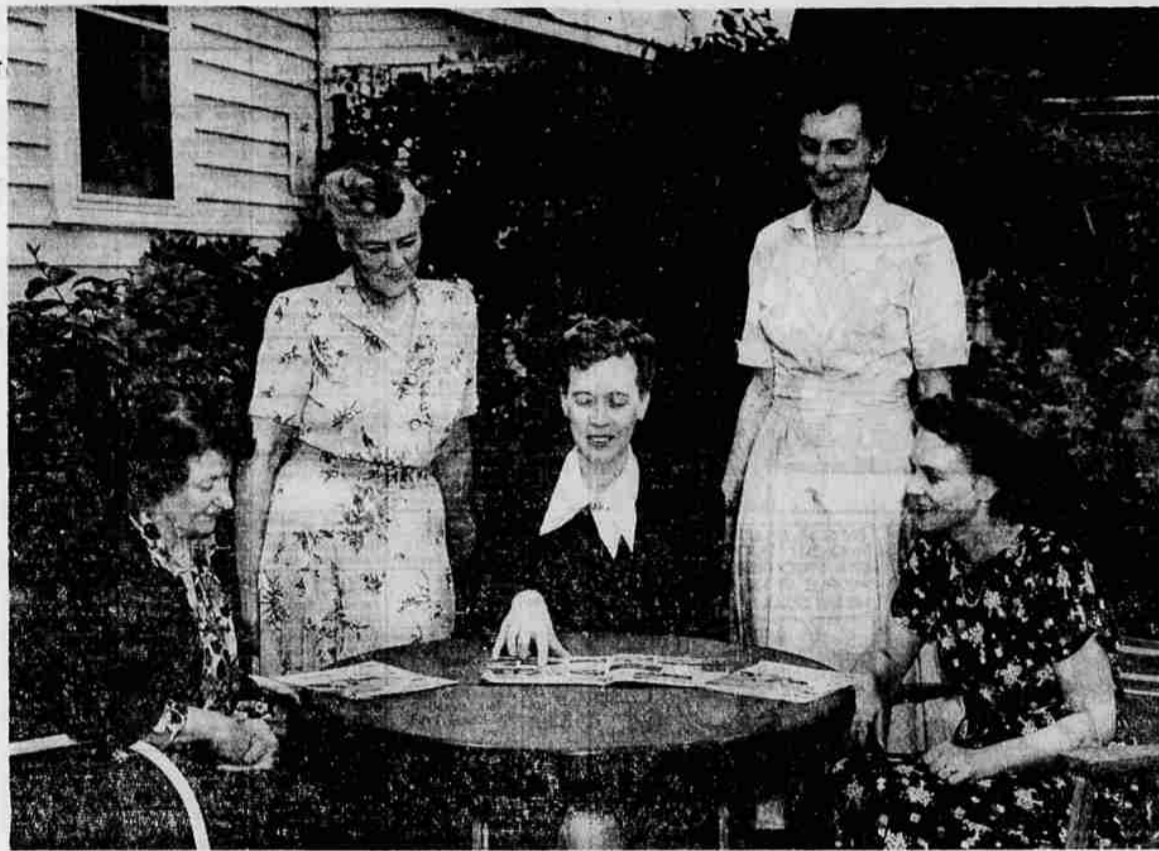

Mrs. O. L. Donnelly is general convention chairman. Miss Lorena Jack is president of the Salem club. Other committee chairmen working on plans for the convention include the following Salem Rotanas:

Chairmen Busy

Mrs. Grant Farris, accommodations; Mrs. S. L. Auman, finance; Miss Hill, printing; Mrs. Alfred Laue, convention hall; Mrs. Herbert Miller, hostesses;

Mrs. Auman, registration; Mrs. Chester Pickens, correspondence; Mrs. Miller, flowers; Mrs. Laue, publicity; Miss Juana Holmes, reservations; McMinnville club and Mrs. LeRoy Mittendorf of Salem club, Friday night fun program; Miss Jack, Saturday banquet; Mrs. Auman, Saturday breakfast; Mrs. Henry Mattson, Sunday picnic.

National officers and board members expecting to attend include: Miss Hill of Salem as president; Miss Helen MacQuarrie of Bozeman, Mont., as first vice president; Mrs. Jerry Dunn of Spokane, second vice president; Mrs. Grant Farris of Salem as secretary; Mrs. Agnes Sheridan of Butte, Mont., treasurer; Miss Mary Adaline Cook, Billings, Mont.; Miss Katherine Murphy, Butte, Mont.; Mrs. Flossie Chisholm, Great Falls, Mont.; Miss Rilla Best, Helena, Mont.; Miss Hattiebell Ogilbee, Portland, Mrs. Nell Hoyal, Anaconda, Mont., all board members; Miss Charlotte Freeberg of Spokane, editor of Rotana, national magazine.

TALKING OVER plans for the Rotana convention is this group above, left to right: Miss Juana Holmes, Mrs. Floyd Matthews, standing at left, Mrs. Alfred Laue, Mrs. LeRoy Mittendorf, standing at right, and Mrs. Chester Pickens. (Jesten-Miller studio picture.)

Goodman-Freres

White, yellow and orchid blooms decorated St. Joseph's Catholic church this afternoon for the wedding of Miss Phyllis Marie Freres of Stayton and Marvin Wayne Goodman of Coquille, the Rev. Gerald Linahan reading the service at 3 o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore George Freres of Stayton and Mr. Goodman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goodman of Coquille.

Soloist for the wedding was Miss Edith Fairham and Wayne Meusey was at the organ. Miss Patricia Burrell and Mrs. Robert Evers lighted the tapers.

The bride was attractive in a white nylon marquisette gown fashioned with a lace Peter Pan collar and insets of the lace in the bodice and at the hipline. The dress had a row of buttons down the front and a full skirt falling in a train. The illusion veil edged in lace was arranged from a tiara of carried lace. For her flowers the bride carried a round bouquet of white rosebuds, bouvardia and sweet peas. Mr. Freres gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Floyd Booz, Jr., was honor attendant. Her gown was of pale yellow marquisette designed with Peter Pan collar, pleated bodice, cap sleeves and full skirt. She wore a tiara of the same material pleated, and gloves matching the sash of her dress. Her flowers were orchid asters and sweet pea in a round bouquet.

Miss Sara Ann Ohling and Mrs. John McNiven were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical to that of the honor attendant, only in pale green, and they also carried the bouquets of orchid asters and sweet peas.

Carol Ann Freres in a pale yellow, floor length frock, was the flower girl. Henry Ercolini was best man for Mr. Goodman and ushering were William Reder, Harold Freres, Floyd Booz, Jr.

The bride's mother wore a pale gray silk crepe gown with matching hat and gray and white accessories and a corsage of orchids. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend because of illness.

Reception at Sorority

The reception following was at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house on the Willamette university campus. Cutting the cake were Miss Theresa Schulte and Mrs. John W. Etzel. Mrs. Roxie Forrette and Mrs. Wendell P. Evers poured. Assisting at the reception were Misses Carolyn Carson, Addy Lane, Barbara Miller, Avis Roberts, Jenyce Baker and Lois Mulcahy. Miss Maxine Meyers had charge of the gifts. Master Larry Freres had charge of the guest book and passing the cream cake were Maryann, Joyce and Betty Freres.

The bride wore an aqua and white silk dress with bolero and white accessories, and a corsage of baby orchids for traveling. Following a trip to the city, the couple will return to Salem for the summer. This winter they will reside in Canby where Mr. Goodman is coaching. The bride attended Stayton schools and was graduated this year from Willamette where she is a Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Goodman also is a Willamette graduate and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

AMONG mid-summer brides will be Miss Mary Masee, who is announcing plans for the wedding. Her marriage to James Struck of Parkdale will be solemnized the afternoon of Sunday, July 31, at 4 o'clock in the First Congregational church, the Rev. Vernon Zornes of the Clear Lake Evangelical church officiating.

Candle lighters will be Mrs. Eric Carlson and Mrs. John Ward, the latter of Portland. Soloists for the wedding will be Mrs. T. C. Mason and Hal M. Puddy.

Mrs. Homer Davis of Gervais is to be matron of honor for her sister. There will be four bridesmaids, all Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride-elect at Oregon State college. They include Miss Virlee Kuhn of Dundee, Miss Joann Agan of Portland, Miss Gwen Hammersley of Tillamook, Miss Marolyn Rigby, Little Miss Dianne Smith, niece of the bride-elect, is to be flower girl.

David Dormeyer of Sacramento, Calif., is to be best man. Ushering will be Donald Samuel of Hood River, Donald Meyer of Portland, Truman Masee, brother of the bride-elect, and Dan Struck, brother of Mr. Struck.

The reception following also will be in the church. Miss Masee is the daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Masee of Salem, Mr. Struck the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Struck of Parkdale.

Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is to meet in regular session at 8 p.m. Monday in the Salem Woman's club. There will be an initiation, an informal program and a social. Past presidents will conduct the initiation.

Members of Calvary Baptist church congregation are sponsoring a reception the evening of Sunday, July 24, to honor Dr. and Mrs. Charles Durden. Dr. Durden recently resigned as pastor of the church and is retiring, he and Mrs. Durden to leave in early August for the coast to make their home.

There will be a service at 7:30 o'clock in the church, followed by the reception. The event not only honors Dr. Durden for his services with the local church but for his 43 years' work as a minister.

Invitations have been sent to Baptist leaders throughout the state, as well as to national Baptist officers with whom Dr. Durden has worked and to those of other pastorates served by Dr. Durden.

A large group of members from the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will be motoring to Dallas Monday evening for a no-host picnic being arranged by the Dallas club in the Dallas City park. The supper is to be at 6:30 o'clock. In case of rain the supper will be in the City hall. Each one attending is to take her own supper and table service.

Salem Central WCTU is holding its annual mid-summer picnic on the lawn at the Eugene Prescott home, 1064 Oak street, Tuesday, July 19 at 12:30 p.m. Each member is to take her basket of lunch and table service, coffee is to be furnished. Mrs. W. A. Barkus, county president, will give the devotional thought and announcement of the county convention, while Mrs. Ruth Tooz, state WCTU president, will be on hand to tell of WCTU work, including the coming national convention and Oregon state convention.

Mrs. L. V. Reed and Mrs. W. T. Poole will entertain circles 1 and 4 of the First Presbyterian church next Wednesday for a no-host picnic luncheon at 1 o'clock at their home, 2455 South Commercial. Mrs. Charles Wilson is leader of circle 1 and Mrs. Robert Hutcheon is leader of circle 4. Each one attending is to take her own table service.

FOUR OTHERS busy with details to entertain the Rotana convention are these four above, left to right: Mrs. Fannie Douglas, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Waldo Baker and Mrs. George Bagnall. (Jesten-Miller studio photo.)

Miss Wade Bride Friday Evening

An all-white setting was arranged for the wedding of Miss Corinne Wade and Richard H. Kuhn last evening in the First Congregational church. White gladioluses and larkspur, and lighted candles at the altar made up the decorations. Dr. Seth R. Huntington, pastor of the church, read the vows at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Wade of Salem and Mr. Kuhn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Kuhn of Portland.

For the music, Mrs. Robert Dawes (Jean Sechrist) of Eugene sang and Jean Hobson Rich was at the organ. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Stanley Kinne of Corvallis and Miss Louise Lister of Portland. Both wore white faille frocks that had blue satin sashes with bows in the back, and both wore white blooms in their hair.

An imported lace over white satin was the wedding gown worn by the bride. It was designed with round collar embroidered with white pearl beading. The cap sleeves and the long lace mitts worn by the bride also had the white pearl beading for trim. The dress buttoned down the front and the full skirt, gathered at the waist, fell in a train. The fingertip veil of illusion was arranged from a bonnet-shaped headdress with lilies of the valley at either side. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses, bouvardia and stephanotis. Mr. Wade gave his daughter in marriage.

Pink and blue were the colors for the gowns of the bride's attendants. Mrs. Harold Gardner (Jeanne Demytt) as matron of honor wore pink net. The dress was made with a three-tiered skirt and a stole around the shoulders. Mrs. Gardner wore a pink net headband with pink sweet peas and bouvardia and she carried a round bouquet of the sweet peas and bouvardia encircled with pink net.

Miss Patricia Viesko, Mrs. Reed Vollstedt (Maryana Bollinger) of Albany and Mrs. John Spease of Corvallis were the bridesmaids. All wore net gowns identical to that of the matron of honor. Miss Viesko and Mrs. Spease were in blue, Mrs. Vollstedt in pink. Each one's headband and the netting around her bouquet matched her dress in color.

Acting as best man was James Meece, Jr., of Portland. Ushering were Hayden Fisk, Edward Locke and John O'Brien, all of Portland, and Fred Zwahlen of Beaverton.

Mrs. Wade wore a gown of aqua sheer crepe for the wedding. With it she wore a nylon net hat in the same color, gold accessories and corsage of orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue gown with blue net hat, pink accessories and corsage of orchids.

The reception was given at the Chi Omega sorority house. At the door was Miss Joan Wade of Portland, cousin of the bride. Miss Kathleen Hug passed the guest book. Inviting guests into the dining room were Mrs. William C. Dyer,

Sr. and Mrs. Harry U. Miller.

Pouring were Mrs. Charles W. Heim of Redmond, great aunt of the bride; Mrs. Wallace S. Wharton, Mrs. Lester S. Wade of Portland, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Rex Kimmell.

Serving the cake were Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Maurice Lynch of Redmond, Mrs. George W. Neuner and Mrs. Lyle Ashcroft, the latter of Portland. Assisting with the serving in the dining room were Mrs. John H. Johnson, Miss Barbara Crawford, Miss June Young, Miss Janice Myers, Miss Jeanne Myers, Mrs. James Meece, Jr. of Portland, Miss Virginia Palmer, Miss Shirley Brown, both of Portland, Miss Mabel Pontius of Albany, Miss Ruth Melbye of Silverton.

The bride's table was set with a white organdy cloth over blue satin, garlands of smilax festooning the cloth. The wedding cake was the centerpiece, smilax and bouvardia around its base. At either side of the cake were small arrangements of bouvardia and the silver candelabras.

For her going away costume the bride wore a navy blue suit with navy hat trimmed in pink lilies, pink blouse and gloves and navy accessories. Pinned to the suit was a corsage of orchids.

The couple will be at home in Oregon City after July 25.

Several Salem friends have received invitations for a party to be given Tuesday evening for Miss Barbara King, former Salem resident, who is to be married August 12 to Donald Crouch in Portland. Misses Jean Armstrong and Elizabeth Weinzirl are to be hostesses for the party at the home of the former in Portland.

Women's Division Organizes for Hospital Development Program

NEXT TUESDAY launches a big job for a large group of Salem women who will handle the residential solicitation for the Salem Hospital Development program. The co-chairmen and their five commanders are picture here at a recent work meeting.

Left to right, seated, are Mrs. Ralph Schlesinger, Mrs. Arthur Roethlin, both commanders; Mrs. Chandler Brown, co-chairman, Mrs. Ralph E. Moody, co-chairman; Mrs. Donald Burke, a commander. Standing, Mrs. Robert F. Wulf, at left, and Mrs. Ward Davis, both commanders. (Jesten-Miller studio picture.)