He will also direct vocal music in the high school.

Mrs. Lucile M. Sallsbury will be high school librarian to succeed Mrs. Ruby F. Ramey who has signed a contract to teach science at Oregon College of Education. Mrs. Sallsbury received her degree in education and a library certificate from the Emporia State Teachers' college.

Slot Machine Trial Slated at Silverton

Silverton—August 12 has been set by Judge Alf O. Nelson of the Silverton justice court as the trial date of the slot machine cases recently instituted by the district attorney against the board of directors of the Eagles lodge of Salem. The board members are Emory Sanders, Wayne Seipe, L. A. Hamilton, A. C. Burk and A. C. Friesen. All the defendants who are prominent business men promptly entered a plea of "not guilty." The defendants are released on their own recognizance.

Upon a warrant issued out of the Silverton justice court of Judge Alf O. Nelson late Monday night, a 16-year-old Salem youth was arrested by M. R. Wood, deputy sheriff, on a charge of "assault and battery." The complaint was filed by Patricia McNamara. The charge specified that the youth gave his aged and ailing mother a merciless beating. Judge Nelson recommended that the boy be given a mental test.

Police Uniforms Impress Bibbler

Salem police uniforms seem to be making an impression.

At least that is one conclusion which could be taken from a report dealing with the arrest of Irven D. Plank Tuesday night for being too tipsy.

The report specified that Plank's speech was "thick... incoherent... hard to understand." It also explained that the subject "seemed mainly concerned about what bus company we were running."

Plank found the answer to that when he was led to jail, and later fined $15.

Alaska Short of Cash; Needs Million

Juneau, Alaska, July 21 (AP)—The territory of Alaska, temporarily broke, wants to borrow a million dollars.

The territorial board of administration authorized Treasurer Henry Roden yesterday to try to get it from Seattle bankers. He was to leave today.

Roden said Alaska has $1,300,000 in the bank, but it is earmarked for certain uses.

Money to pay back the desired loan is "in sight between the middle and end of January," Roden explained.
