

Gooding Clan Holds Reunion

Woodburn—The 17th annual Gooding family reunion was held at the farm home of Paul and Helen Gooding near Aurora. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dentel, Mr. and Mrs. William George Gooding and Mrs. Paul Gooding, all of Aurora. Seventy-five were present.

Since the last meeting three new members have been added to the family group: Thomas James Davidson, son of Jimmy and Edna Davidson, James Edgar Langdon, son of James Langdon and Betty Dentel, and Kathleen Ann Davidson, daughter of Donald and Doris Davidson. Removed by death was Mrs. Charles Gooding who died Oct. 2, 1948.

Election of officers was held with L. P. Gooding re-elected for president, Mrs. Annie Davidson, first vice president; Charles Gooding, second vice president; Mrs. Ray Glatt, re-elected secretary. John Dimmer was elected bailiff and peace officer with Richard Gooding and Jimmy Davidson appointed as assistants.

An invitation was extended to the group by Cass Gooding in behalf of the Charles Gooding children to meet at the country home of Charles Gooding near St. Paul next year, the second Sunday in July.

A prize was awarded to Mrs. Ray Glatt for telling the best story and special prizes went to Jim Langdon and Mrs. Richard Gooding.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Dimmer and Nancy of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Glatt, A. G. Glatt, Mary Alice, Jenice and Jay of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davidson, Bert Gooding, Mary Lou, Caroline, Sally and Margaret of Portland; Mrs. Lenhart Tetz, Lennox and Sandy of Wichita Falls, Texas; Mrs. Louis Freese, Rose-Marie and Paul of Sylvania; Charles Gooding, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gooding, Irma and Loretta, Mrs. William Lewis Gooding, Mrs. Joseph Gooding, Mr. and Mrs. James Fred Davidson and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gooding, Patricia and Colleen, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gooding, Wayne and Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davidson, Laura, Ray and Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Davidson and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Don Davidson, Mary Ellen and Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fershweller, Pal, Gene and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. James Langdon and James, III, all of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dentel, Mrs. Clara Ziegler of Canby, Mr. and Mrs. William Gooding, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gooding, Charles, Lawrence and Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wampole, Jenice and Jean.

Walter Johnson and Denton (Cy) Young are the only major league pitchers in history ever to win more than 400 games.

New Jaycee Charter Open

Woodburn—The second meeting of the newly organized Junior Chamber of Commerce of Woodburn was held at the library club room with William E. Dunn, Jr., presiding.

Visitors present were Bruce McMahan of Beaverton, state vice president of District No. 1; Ted Lovelace of Albany, state vice president of District two; Don McDonald of Beaverton; Keith Maguire, Don Mortensen and Larry Allen of Albany.

The resignation of Harold Schiel as secretary was accepted and Charles Cornwell was elected to fill the office until the regular election of officers in January.

Stewart Popp was named program chairman for the next regular meeting which will be held August 2 at the library.

Regular meetings will be held the first and third Tuesday evenings in each month at the library.

The charter is still open and charter members will be accepted until the presentation of the charter. Thirteen members have enrolled and many more are expected.

Walter Scarborough, Jr., Ray Miller and Harold Hotchkiss were appointed to arrange the program for charter night.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Jesse Fowler and Gerald Webster.

Flying Saucer Again Sighted

Klamath Falls, Ore., July 21 (AP)—They've been seen again. This time seven women in the Montgomery Ward credit office here reported Wednesday afternoon a flying saucer visited Klamath Falls skies for three minutes.

Twenty-three-year-old Grace Walters, chief supervisor of the office, said "when it (the saucer) turned over on its side, it looked like the edge of a plate with a spot in the middle." The object made three passes around the city "as if it were trying to take pictures."

Ediger Disposes Station at Dallas

Dallas—Henry Ediger, who for the past five years has operated the Shell Service Station at the corner of Washington and Main streets, announced this week that he has sold his interest in the station to Clarence Grubbs, who assumed the management Wednesday. Grubbs is a former driver for the Shell plant here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ediger plan to take a vacation to Canada before starting construction of a new service station on the southeast corner of Church and Washington streets. The new station will be of concrete block construction. Floor plan will be 27x48 and two bays are planned for gasoline pumps. Ediger hopes to be in business again by October 1.

Across the street, on the northeast corner of the same intersection, another station will be started soon by Merritt Truax of Salem.

Complete Bazaar Plans

Lyons—Mrs. Mike Schwindt was hostess for the meeting of the Altar Society held at her home. Plans were made for the
