Three Class B, junior baseball league games that were washed out July 19, will be made up Friday evening, according to announcement by Vern Gilmore, director of recreation. Bishop Electric blanked Elfstroms 12-0 in a Class C tilt Wednesday night while Salem Steel beat Midget Market, 6-2 to remain undefeated. The winners tallied 7 runs in the second as Bob Miller hit for the circuit with the bases loaded. It was the fifth straight setback for Elfstroms. AMERICAN PENNANT?

Bandaged Bombers With Tape Race

New York, July 27 (AP)—Whether the New York Yankees will win the American League championship is questionable but the bandaged bombers already have clinched the arnica and old tape title for 1949. Casey Stengel, the man with the loving cup ears, has made a brilliant bid for manager of the year honors by keeping his club at the top of the heap despite one of the most impressive hospital lists in the medical history of baseball. Several hundred man days have been lost just since the season opened. With a total of 49 injuries, only three members of the squad have not been sidelined. These "iron men" are Vic Raschi, Hank Bauer and Billy Johnson. The long distance champ is, of course, Joe DiMaggio, who lost 65 days. The springing king is Yogi Berra, with 10 separate hurts. And the ailments run from the customary cuts, gashes and concussions to sinus and athletes' foot. Ignoring the multitude of miseries which afflicted the Yankees in spring training, just run them over lightly since the campaign started. April 19 (opening day)—DiMaggio out with heel injury; Berra a cold; Charley Keller, pulled side muscles; Bob Porterfield, arm in cast with torn ligaments; Spec Shea, sore neck; Johnny Lindell, ankle injury, and Butch Marshall, hospitalized with fever. "I hope I get a team on the field," Stengel moaned. April 20—George Stirnweiss, sprained left hand; Charlie Silveira, struck on mouth by foul tip; Scooter Rizzuto, out with

Portland Mermaid Suspended by AAU For Manila Jaunt

Portland, July 28 (AP)—Suzanne Zimmerman, swimming member of the famed "Cody Kids" of Multnomah Athletic club, is under AAU suspension for going on an unauthorized tour to Manila. The Portland woman's father, C. W. Zimmerman, said that just before she left with a group of Oakland, Calif., swimmers, she heard there might be some question of AAU sanction and asked the Multnomah club to look into the matter. He added that she "undoubtedly will hate to lose her standing with the AAU."

Golfing Form Ronald Hughes of Lawndale, Calif., national junior medalist who shot a one-under par 70 in a warm-up round for opening of the National Junior Golf tournament, plects the curly locks of Eleanor Nolls for a "tee" for his wood shot at the Congressional Country club, Washington, D. C. Making a nice pretense of blocking the "William Tell" stunt is Jan Geddes. It was just a gag. The weather was hot and the bathing suit girls too appealing to ignore. (AP Wirephoto)

Amateur Collects Oregon Open Golf Title on 72-291

The Dalles, Ore., July 28 (AP)—Ron Clark, a hometown hero who plays the game for fun, held both the Oregon state amateur and open golf titles today. Clark added the state's open crown to his collection yesterday when he finished the 72-hole tournament with 291, only three over par and one stroke ahead of Emery Zimmerman, Portland pro. In third place was Bob Kendrick, Oswego pro, with 294.

The 49th national women's amateur golf championship will be staged this year at the Marion Golf club, Ardmore, Pa., September 12 through 17.

Only Home Run Is Washed From Books

New York, July 28 (AP)—Pity the plight of San Sam Zoldak. The Cleveland pitcher had never hit a home run in the major leagues. Yesterday he took just an average out in the third inning of the Yankee game, and, lo and behold, the ball soared out of the park. So what happens? A cloud-burst cancelled out the game after the fourth inning, washing the homer out of the record books.

Golf, Bowling Contests Set For Legion Meet

Sports enthusiasts at the 1949 convention of the American Legion to be held in Salem August 3-6 will find plenty of action in competition for the state Legion golfer and bowler champions.

Arrangements have been made with the Salem Golf course to conduct a two-day tourney for the golfers, and various cups including the department of state championship trophy will be awarded the winners. Several cash prizes are also in store for the divot-diggers.

Bowling fans will find a spirited contest for cash prizes and trophies. Those planning to attend the forthcoming convention are urged to register for either of these events right away by sending a card or letter to Convention Headquarters at PO Box 13, Salem, Ore.

Monday, August 1, the main headquarters for the convention will be set up in a huge tent on the lawn of the Marion county courthouse.

PORTLAND, SWEET HOME TEAMS WIN MEET GAMES

Portland, Ore., July 28 (AP)—The Portland Red Sox eliminated Tualatin from the Oregon semi-pro baseball tournament here last night with a 3 to 0 shutout performance. In other games, Sweet Home's Pirates knocked Wherry's Cafe of Portland out of the running, 10 to 0, and St. John's toppled Tigard, 10 to 1.
