Man Admits He Sold Daughter

Bessemer, Ala., July 29 (AP)—An unemployed miner was held for investigation here after he admitted selling his 3-year-old daughter for $500 and spending the money on a used car.

Police said that Leman Alvin Edwards, 26, signed a confession admitting that he sold his daughter, Viree, for adoption.

Edwards also admitted in his statement that another daughter, 16-months-old Sandra Lee, was up "For Sale."

W. H. Sessions, operator of the Stadium Grill here, said he had started adoption proceedings for Viree but added that the $500 he gave Edwards was a gift rather than a purchase payment.

Sessions and his wife said they wanted to give the little girl a good home and had paid Edwards the $500 in hopes that he would leave town and stay

Grasshopper Fund Raised to $3.5 Million

Washington, July 29 (AP)—The senate boosted grasshopper fighting funds to $3,500,000 today and sent the measure back to the house.

The department of agriculture now is fighting a grasshopper infestation in the west and middle west with a $1,000,000 fund that will be used up this month.
