

Summer Weddings Still Feature In Social News

OF SPECIAL interest for next week-end will be the wedding of Miss Margaret Jane Cooley and John Phillip Maulding on Saturday evening, August 6, the ceremony to be solemnized at 8:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church with the reception following at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley.

On Thursday, Miss Cooley is giving a luncheon for her attendants at her home, the affair being arranged for 1 o'clock on the terrace. Mrs. Cooley is assisting her daughter. Places will be marked for Miss Mariann Croisan, Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mrs. Lester D. Green (Marylou McKay), Miss Marjorie Meyer of Long Beach, Calif., Miss Jeanne Foster of San Francisco, Miss Charlotte Alexander, Miss Jeanne Maulding of Portland, Miss Jean Claire Swift, Miss Marjorie Tate, Miss Lois Frink of Dayton, Miss June Young, Miss Antoinette Kuzmanich of Portland, Mrs. Cooley and Miss Cooley.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Cooley will entertain at a buffet supper in honor of their daughter and Mr. Maulding, the affair to follow the wedding rehearsal which is set for 6:30 o'clock Friday evening. The supper is to be in the Marine room at the Marion hotel for a group of 36. Mr. Maulding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maulding of Tillamook, will be here for the rehearsal and supper.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

A POPULAR bride-elect for whom much entertaining is being done is Miss Pauline Morse, who is to be wed August 7 to Frank Charles Rock, Jr., of Pasadena, Calif.

On Tuesday evening, Miss Patricia Zahare will be hostess at a picnic supper at her home for Miss Morse. The group will fete the honoree at a kitchen shower. Miss Zahare is being assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. M. Zahare.

On Wednesday
Miss Roberta Tussing (who is arriving Monday from Honolulu where she has been the past six weeks) assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. S. Tussing, is giving a party Wednesday evening for Miss Morse, a miscellaneous shower being planned. A late supper will be served following an informal evening.

Attending the party will be Miss Morse, her mother, Mrs. Paul W. Morse, her two sisters, Mrs. Paul Lippold, Mrs. Rafael Venegas, Mrs. F. C. Rock, Mrs. A. M. Zahare, Miss Patricia Zahare, Mrs. Sidney A. King and daughter, Miss Barbara King, both of Portland, Mrs. Jack Henningsen, Miss Jean Gilmer, Miss Margaret Fisher, Miss Sally Smith, Miss Prudence Craig, Miss Diane Proctor, Miss Ruth Fugate, Miss Charlotte Alexander, Mrs. Tussing and Miss Tussing.

Plan Thursday Party
Misses Sally Smith and Diane Proctor are to entertain on Thursday evening at the home of the former at a dessert and informal evening party complementing Miss Morse, the guests to include a group of Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters of the honoree. Invited by the two are Miss Morse and her mother, Mrs. Paul W. Morse, and her two sisters, Mrs. Paul Lippold and Mrs. Rafael Venegas, the latter visiting here for the summer from Irapuato, Mexico; Mrs. Blanche Proctor, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Miss Bernice Haynes of Berkeley, Calif., Miss Prudence Craig, Miss Avis Roberts, Miss Barbara Miller, Miss Suzanne Huggins, Miss Roberta Tussing, Miss Jack Stark and Miss Barbara Goldman, both of Portland.

The regular weekly day of the Salem Women's Golf association will be Wednesday, play starting at 9 o'clock.

Josten-Miller studio picture

PICTURED HERE in a formal photograph in her wedding gown is Mrs. Lester Duane Green, the former Marylou McKay, whose wedding last Saturday evening, July 23, was the summer's outstanding social event in the capital. The bride is the younger daughter of Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay. Mr. Green is the son of Lester M. Green of Eugene. This picture above was posed in the gardens at the McKay home where a large reception was given following the ceremony in the First Presbyterian church. Candid pictures taken at the wedding were published earlier in the week.

Wedding Plans

Plans for her wedding are being announced by Miss Miriam Shellenberger. She will be married to Theodore R. Flook of Portland on Saturday afternoon, August 20, at a ceremony set for 4 o'clock in the First Congregational church, Rev. Louis E. White officiating.

Mrs. James Phillips is to be matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Shirley Flook, sister of Mr. Flook, and Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice. Richard Randall of Portland is to be best man for Mr. Flook. He is a cousin. The ushers will be Dan Torrey of Lebanon, George Gornick, Roger Hopkins, Jr., and Fred Schmaling, all of Portland. Verne Esch is to be soloist for the wedding.

The reception following will be at the church also.

Miss Shellenberger is the daughter of Mrs. A. G. Matherly of Salem. Mr. Flook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Flook of Portland.

Mrs. P. A. Fugate and daughter, Ruth Pauline, have returned from a sojourn at Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle.

SEVERAL informal parties are planned for the new week.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. L. C. McLeod and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod, will entertain at an informal tea at the home of the former complimenting Mrs. George Mark McLeod, visitor from Berkeley. About 30 old-time friends of the honoree are invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Bert Hulst and Mrs. James T. Brand are to pour. Assisting at the tea will be Miss Irene McLeod and Miss Janet Lindley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mark McLeod are to arrive Tuesday to spend the week here with his mother.

Thursday Event
Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mrs. Edward Williams are to be hostesses on Thursday for a dessert and bridge party at the home of the former. Guests for three tables have been invited.

Mrs. M. M. Magee entertained a group of friends at a buffet supper at her country home at Macleay last evening. In the group were Mrs. Rena Bush, Mrs. Joseph Krauth, Mrs. Maude Space, Mrs. Myrtle Moffitt, Miss Ruth Rawlings, Miss Ruth Moore and the hostess.

MISS Phyllis Schnell, bride-elect of Robert Strebig, will be honored at a brunch for which Miss Jeanne Foster and her mother, Mrs. Eugene I. Foster, will entertain next Saturday at 11 o'clock at their home, a kitchen shower following.

Miss Foster is arriving Wednesday evening from San Francisco, coming north for the wedding of Miss Margaret Jane Cooley and John Phillip Maulding which will take place Saturday evening.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will return this week-end from a few days' stay at their beach home at Neskowin. On Tuesday and Wednesday they will be in Ashland to take in the opening of the Shakespearean Festival, Tuesday evening. Preceding the opening play that evening the McKays will be honored at a dinner to be given by Ashland city officials.

Upon their return, Governor and Mrs. McKay will take in many of the program events planned in connection with the state American Legion convention in Salem next week.

State Representative and Mrs. Earl Hill of Cushman have been visiting here a few days with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Irvin E. Hill.

Miss Beula Arnold, who is to be married August 21 to James Williams, will be the honor guest for a bridal shower and party for which Miss Irene McLeod and Miss Crystal Huntington will entertain at the McLeod home on Monday evening. Dessert will be served, followed by an informal evening.

Feting Miss Arnold will be Miss Janet Lindley, Miss Josephine Caughell, Miss Joan Hoereth, Miss Frances Baum, Miss Marian Carson, Miss Marilyn Burris, Miss Virginia Lewis, Miss Donna Lambert, Miss Eva McMullen, Miss Cathy Cooper, Miss Jeanette Baker, Miss Gale Juve, Miss Janey Pickens, Miss Nancy Snyder, Miss Ruth McCall, Miss Ruth Holtzman, Miss Marilyn Nichols, Miss Mary Arnold, Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, Mrs. Harold Dickey, Mrs. Robert Wagers, Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod, and the mothers of the two hostesses, Mrs. L. C. McLeod and Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington and the hostesses.

A wedding for tomorrow will be that of Miss Mary Massee and James Struck of Parkdale, the ceremony to be solemnized at 4 o'clock in the First Congregational church, the Rev. Vernon Zornes of the Clear Lake Evangelical church officiating.

The reception following will be at the church also.

Among out-of-town friends and relatives expected to attend are Miss Mary Bash of Corvallis, Mrs. E. A. Sparks and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sparks of Hood River, Robert Dunn of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. George Mulkey of Ariel, Wash.; Mr. Struck's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Ben Jacobs and Miss Marilyn Jacobs of Hood River; Jim Johnson of Hillsboro; Miss Massee's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith of Mapleton; Mr. Struck's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brunquist of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tellow of Eugene.

Miss Massee is the daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Massee of Salem, Mr. Struck the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Struck of Parkdale, who will be here for the wedding.

Auxiliary Awaits State Conclave Opening in Salem Next Week

Climaxing many weeks of planning on the part of Salem committee women will be the annual department convention of the American Legion convention in Salem next week.

Preliminary events include the meeting of the department executive committee in the state senate chambers at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and the ritualistic contest that evening a 8 o'clock in Willamette university gymnasium, Mrs. Don Apperson in charge.

Convention sessions proper get under way Thursday to continue through Saturday hundreds of women from units in all parts of the state to be here for the event. Mrs. I. N. Bacon, as general chairman and Mrs. Helen McLeod and Mrs. Harlan Judd as co-chairmen have headed the convention commission from the Salem units arranging for the auxiliary convention.

National Head Here
Mrs. Mitchell Thorn of The Dalles is the state president to preside at meetings and a special honor guest for the convention will be Mrs. Hubert A. Goode, Portland, national auxiliary president.

The Thursday program starts off with the district presidents' breakfast at 7:30 a.m. at the Senator hotel. Mrs. Earl Andersen of Salem as chairman. A joint memorial service and the joint opening of sessions with the American Legion will follow in the Elsinore theater. At noon, a buffet luncheon is to be served in the American Legion club. Thursday afternoon starts the varied business sessions at the senate chambers, including presentation of the national president, Mrs. Goode, and introduction of other officials and distinguished guests, followed by various reports.

Thursday evening brings the convention banquet for the Legion and auxiliary at the armory at 6 o'clock, followed by the drum corps contest at Sweetland field and the grand ball at 10 o'clock in the armory.

Among the honored guests at the banquet will be Frank Belgrano of Portland, past national commander; Mrs. Hubert A. Goode, Portland, national auxiliary president; Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, B. E. Owens, Salem, state commander of the Legion; Mrs. Mitchell Thorn of The Dalles, state auxiliary president, and many other national and state officials of the Legion and auxiliary.

For Friday
Friday's calendar features the 1 a.m. breakfast for secretaries and treasurers in the Chamber of Commerce. Business sessions for the auxiliary take up at 9 o'clock in the senate chambers, nomination of officers to be held just before the noon recess.

Mrs. Goode as national president will give her message Friday afternoon when the convention reconvenes, and following will be reports from various convention committees. The afternoon also brings the district caucus meetings.

Highlighting the Friday afternoon program will be the garden tea to be given between 4 and 6 o'clock by the department auxiliary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith to honor Gold Star Mothers. The auxiliary that evening participates in the grand convention parade and takes in the vaudeville show at the State Fair grounds.

For Saturday morning comes the election of officers, followed by various reports, the installation of new department officers to take place in the afternoon.

Chairmen Listed
In addition to Mrs. Bacon, Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Judd as the convention commission, other chairmen working on plans for the convention include:

Mrs. Don Madison as secretary for the commission; Mrs. Lloyd Demarest as corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ethel Lewis as treasurer.

Mrs. Jennie Bartlett, chairman for badges; Mrs. Helen McLeod and Mrs. Harlan Judd as co-chairmen for the banquet; Mrs. Frank Marshall as convention hall chairman; Mrs. Earl Andersen, chairman for the district presidents' breakfast; Mrs. Leon Brown, chairman for the distinguished guests; Mrs. Harold Streeter, chairman for decorations; Mrs. Clara Poland, chairman for exhibits; Mrs. Glenn Porter, finance chairman; Mrs. John E. Wood, flags and standards chairman; Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, chairman for the "49er Hour"; Mrs. Merle Travis, chairman for the Gold Star Mothers' tea; Mrs. Paul Ficke, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, housing chairman; Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, memorial service chairman; Mrs. J. D. White, chairman for pages; Mrs. Ray J. Bassett, program chairman; Mrs. Michael Panek, publicity chairman; Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, registration chairman; Mrs. Don Apperson, ritualistic contest chairman; Mrs. Bert A. Walker, chairman for the breakfast for secretaries and treasurers; Mrs. Kenneth Shonaker, chairman for trophies and awards.

The chairmen have been assisted by a large group of members from both Capital Unit No. 9 and Unit No. 136 in arranging convention activities.

Plan Open House

Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fedje are to be hosts at an informal open house next Tuesday evening at their residence to honor their son, Ray N. Fedje, and his fiancée, Miss Elizabeth Louise (Betty) Thompson, who is to be here for a few days next week from Buhl, Idaho.

The open house will be between 8 and 10:30 o'clock. An informal invitation is being extended through the press to all campus, town and church friends of the young couple to call during those hours.

Pouring during the first period will be the two sisters of Miss Thompson, Mrs. Brooks Moore of Salem and Mrs. Elb Martin, Buhl, Idaho, who is accompanying Miss Thompson to Salem, Mrs. G. Herbert Smith and Mrs. Harry W. Scott will pour during the second hour.

A group of high school girls in the First Methodist church will assist with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Gan Thompson, parents of Miss Thompson, will be among out-of-town guests here for the reception, coming to Salem with their daughter.

The Fedje-Thompson wedding will be an event of August 31 as an evening ceremony in the Methodist church at Buhl, Idaho. Following the wedding the young couple will leave for Boston, Mass. Mr. Fedje to be in the Boston university school of theology and Miss Thompson in the Boston university school of music. Both attended Willamette university this past year and their engagement was announced on the campus during the school year. Mr. Fedje has been director of youth work in the First Methodist church here.

Planned for the afternoon of Saturday, August 13, as a garden ceremony is the wedding of Miss Betty Lou Jones and Charles Hunter, the service to be at 2 o'clock at the residence of Miss Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne R. Jones. The Rev. Samuel H. Jones will officiate. The reception following also will be in the garden.

Mrs. Neil Hamilton is to be matron of honor and young Miss Janice Jones will be junior bridesmaid for her sister, Robert H. Jones, a brother of the bride, is to be best man.

Among out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson of Portland, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Hodgen of Santa Barbara, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Martin of Sonoma, Calif., uncle and aunt of Mr. Hunter.

Josten-Miller studio picture

BRIDE AT a service July 16 was Mrs. Marvin Goodman, the former Phyllis Freres. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Freres of Stayton, Mr. Goodman the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goodman of Coquille. The couple are in Salem for the summer and will live in Oregon City next fall.

Josten-Miller studio picture

A BRIDE on July 18 was Mrs. Gilbert C. Ward, who was Marjorie Ann Hobbie before her marriage. The wedding was in the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ward is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Blanchard and Mr. Ward the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ward. The couple will live here.

Loran-Markham picture, Portland.

THE MARRIAGE of Mrs. James A. Garson was solemnized last Sunday evening in Portland. The bride is the former Kathryn B. Raley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Raley of Walla Walla and Dr. Garson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Garson of Salem. The couple will live in Portland.

Josten-Miller studio picture

WED JULY 23 at a beautiful wedding ceremony in St. Boniface church at Sublimity was Mrs. Orville B. Lulay, the former Drusilla Minden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Minden. Mr. Lulay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Lulay of Sublimity.