Tea Hours Between 4, 8 o'Clock

A major event of the week-end will be the "fuchsia tea" for which committees of the Salem Art association are entertaining tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, 715 North Summer. The affair is open to all association members and friends.

Featured will be the display of fuchsias now in bloom in the Shinn gardens. "Almost unbelievable" is the word from those who have viewed the many blooms in the different garden settings. The Shinn has some 200 plants and more than 75 varieties of the fuchsias now in bloom.

The garden tea will be between 4 and 8 o'clock and a silver offering is being taken to be used by the association in promoting its program for the community. Miss Elizabeth Lord is president of the association.

Mrs. Lester Barr is general chairman for the tea. Working on various committees for the event are: Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. Robert Letts Jones, Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mrs. John Heltzel, Mrs. David Duniway, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mrs. Glenn McCormick, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Keith Powell, Miss Edith Schryver, Mrs. Frank E. Shafer, Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst, Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. William R. Shinn, Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, Mrs. Vernon Drye, Mrs. Hubert Williamson, Mrs. Roger Schnell, Mrs. Peery T. Buren, Mrs. Robert Brownell, Mrs. Roy Edgerton, Mrs. Donald Fisher, Mrs. Phil Brownell, Jr., Miss Sally Barr, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL and interesting in garden scenes is in store for those attending the "fuchsia tea" of the Salem Art association Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, hundreds of fuchsias now being in bloom in the varied garden settings for the tea. Mrs. Shinn is shown above, in one of the sections for the fuchsias.

The Sunday tea is for all association members and friends interested and will be given between 4 and 8 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Lord, at left, president of the Art association, and Mrs. Lester Barr, general chairman for the tea are shown, right above, in another scene in the fuchsia section of the Shinn gardens.

Other arrangements of the fuchsias are being viewed by Miss Lord, Mrs. Shinn and Mrs. Barr in the lower right photo. Few gardens have featured fuchsias to the extent they are in the Shinn gardens.

For Miss Fowler

An event for Tuesday afternoon will be the informal tea for which members of the Salem Art association will entertain in compliment to Miss Constance Fowler, who has an exhibition of her water colors and paintings up in the Elfstrom Art galleries for the next two weeks.
