Tea Honors Bride-Elect

Among this week's affairs honoring brides-elect is the informal tea for which Miss Marian Carson is to entertain next Saturday afternoon to honor Miss Joan Hoereth, who is to be married August 28 to Theodore Covalt.

Guests are bidden between 4 and 6 o'clock, the tea to be at the South Church street home of Miss Carson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan G. Carson.

Herb Tea to Be In Dillard Gardens

Lebanon—The Lebanon Garden club's 12th annual herb tea is set for Thursday, August 18, rather than the 17th as first announced, and the locale is the Thomas Dillard home in the Gore community, instead of the high school campus.

Designated by the national federation of garden clubs as one of the nation's "open gardens," the Dillard place is landscaped in such a manner that varied choice shrubs make effective backgrounds for many annual and perennial flowers, and though the effects are carefully calculated, a charming appearance of informality is achieved which results in focal points of complimentary color groupings throughout the flowering season.

Mrs. Oliver Gunderson, general chairman of the affair states everyone may have the opportunity to inspect the gardens while open to the public during tea hours.

A work meeting was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ivan Ayers to make lavender sticks, pomanders and other herb products, and to complete favors. Other work meetings will be announced to which all interested to come and bring materials suitable for the making of the product.

Mrs. Harry Howe is herb products chairman for the tea, and Mrs. Ayers will plan the tea tables.

Betrothal Told

Dallas—The engagement of Miss Lavina Harder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Unrau of Dallas, to Edward Friesen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Friesen of Independence, has been announced. No plans are announced for the wedding. The bride-elect attended Salem Bible academy and Mr. Friesen attended schools at Monmouth.

Forty members and guests attended the semi-monthly party for the Sojourners club Thursday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. J. S. Bonawitz, Mrs. Wallace Mills and Mrs. Louis Eriz. New members welcomed were Mrs. Wendell G. Munson and Mrs. Clyde Warren.

Mrs. August Rigby was chairman for the day's committee. The dessert tables were decorated with miniature lace dolly hats with fresh flowers for trim. Honors at cards went to Mrs. A. P. Collins, Mrs. Mason DeNeffe, Mrs. Bon Cleary and Mrs. J. S. Bonawitz.

Mrs. E. J. Church will be chairman for the August 11 meeting.

Silverton—The Silverton Business and Professional Women's club will meet at the city park, Tuesday evening, for a 6:30 family picnic supper. Coffee and bread will be furnished. In informal social hour will follow the supper.

Mrs. Irene Roubal, president, will be hostess for the members and friends who will be welcomed by the entire membership.

The club plans to send a representation to Portland when the booster group charters a bus under the direction of V. V. Runyan.

Silverton—Jentoft Johansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johansen, Silverton, and Miss Jeannine Hadley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hadley of Toledo, exchanged their marriage vows the evening of July 23 at Trinity Lutheran church, the Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Johansen will make their home in Klamath Falls where he will complete a course in the Oregon Technical Vocational school.

For Visitors

Miss Edna McElhane entertained Saturday evening at a supper party in the garden to honor Mrs. Fritz Levin of Lindsay, Kan., and Mrs. Orval Berdan and daughter, Miss Beverly, visitors from Napa, Calif. Other guests included members of the Ecclesia club, Miss Irene de Lisle, Miss Alice Mathey, Miss Golda Wheeler, Mrs. Roy Ohlund, Mrs. Leo Weir, Mrs. Harold Lattin and the hostess.

Wedding in Portland

Of interest to Salem friends is announcement of the marriage of Louise Wheelhouse McClaskey to Ora J. Clark, both of Portland, the ceremony being solemnized last Monday morning, July 25 in the Mt. Taber Congregational church. A breakfast was served at the Mul-tomah hotel following the service.

The couple will live in Portland. Mr. Clark is an engineer with the Archer-Daniels-Midland Co.

Mrs. Clark formerly lived in Salem and attended Willamette university. She is a niece of the late Governor Earl Snell.

Home From Trip

Home from six weeks in Yankton, S.D., are Mrs. E. A. Meola and children, Diane, Ronald and Dennis. They visited Mrs. Meola's parents, Mr. and Joseph Vinatieri, and her brothers and sisters. A family reunion was held at the Vinatieri home, the first time in 13 years the family had been together.

In mid-July, Mr. Meola met his family in Yellowstone park and they toured the park before driving home.

INDEPENDENCE—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wood celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary, and the 25th wedding anniversary of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elma Agee of Albany at the Agee home.

An open house was held the night before for friends of the couples with 24 present, and on Sunday a family dinner was enjoyed with 20 present.

Members of their families present were Mrs. Fred Antrobus and three children of Longview, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson of Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mrs. Dalvina Robinson and son, Asa, and Mrs. Ivy Thomas of Independence, and Oscar Agee of Albany.

MEMBERS of the TPM club were entertained with a buffet luncheon, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. William McKinney on North 15th street in Salem.

Members of the club present were Mrs. Charles Bottorff, Mrs. Rex Peffer, Mrs. Ralph Hein, Mrs. E. E. Brandt, Mrs. Paul Arisman, Mrs. Louis Neuman, Mrs. Elmer A. Terrill, Mrs. Laura Pangel, Mrs. William Damery and Mrs. William Hartley. Special guests were Miss Sara McMahon of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mrs. J. Warren Miles. Mrs. Arisman received special birthday honors.

WOODBURN—Woodburn Camp Fire Girls at Camp Kilo-wan for two weeks are Charlene Blinn, Joan Gaviola, Harriett Hooper, Rochelle Plank and Ruth Marie Applegate. They left July 25 and will return August 8. Returning Monday after one week at camp will be Carole Ann Livesay, Carole Lea Foster and Patricia Heer.

Returning from camp last week were Marilyn Barth, Kathryn Thompson, Linda Peterson, Marcle LaBarr, Delene Sealey and Jeanette Weise.

IN PORTLAND, Monday, were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, driving there to meet their daughter, Miss Patty Wilson, who returned from Hawaii on the Pan American airlines. Miss Wilson was one of the Oregon co-eds attending University of Hawaii summer session the past six weeks.

OREGON Grape camp, Royal Neighbors of America, is to meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Is Betrothed—The engagement of Miss Beryl Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Pope, to Charles Mary, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mary of Dallas, was announced recently. An early fall wedding is planned. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Struck-Massee Wedding Event Sunday Afternoon

The First Congregational church was the setting for a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Mary Constance Massee, daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Massee, was married to James Morton Struck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Struck of Parkdale. The vows were read at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Vernon Zornes of the Clear Lake Evangelical church officiating.

Gladtioluses in white and orchid decorated the church for the wedding and flowers tied with white ribbons were arranged at alternate pews.

For the music, Mrs. T. C. Mason and Harold Puddy sang and William Fawk was at the organ. Mrs. John Ward of Portland and Mrs. Eric Carlson of Corvallis lighted the tapers. Both wore yellow organdy gowns.

In White Satin
Calvin Massee gave his sister in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and designed with a high neckline, a round yoke edged with gathered Chantilly lace; long sleeves pointed over the wrist with some of the Chantilly lace for edging; and a full gathered skirt ending in a train. The fingertip veil of net illusion was arranged from a crown of lace and seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible used traditionally by her family and on top of it was a purple-throated white orchid with white ribbon streamers. With her gown the bride wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. B. Homer Davis was matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was of ice-green taffeta fashioned with a standing bertha of organdy in the same color, a full flared skirt of the taffeta with a matching overskirt of organdy. Mrs. Davis carried an arm bouquet of pastel colored gladtioluses.

Bridesmaids were Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride, Miss Joan Agan of Portland, Miss Gwen Hammersley of Tillamook, Miss Virlee Kuhn of Dundee, Miss Marolyn Rigby of Salem. Their dresses were all alike in deep lavender faille, designed with fitted bodices, band sleeves, V-necks with white organdy berthas, full gored skirts of the faille in redingote over white organdy. They wore hairbands of roses and carried baskets of sweet peas.

Dianne Smith, young niece of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a frock matching that of the matron of honor in color and style. She carried a basket of rose petals.

David Dormeyer of Sacramento was best man and ushering were Dan Struck, brother of the bridegroom, Truman Massee, brother of the bride; Donald Samuel of Corvallis, Donald Meyel of Portland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Massee wore a dusty rose silk taffeta and a corsage of Countess of Stradbroke roses. Mrs. Struck, mother of the bridegroom, wore aqua crepe with gold sequins for trim and a corsage of Tallisam roses.

To Be in Corvallis
The reception following was in the church fireplace room. Mrs. Robert Perigo of Hood River and Mrs. Chester LaMar cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Charles Davis, aunt of Mrs. Struck, Portland, and Mrs. L. J. Chapin poured. The round, tiered wedding cake was surrounded with a purple French lace ruffle and white stephanotis, and bouquets of sweet peas and gladtioluses decorated the room. Assisting at the reception were Miss Nancy Farrar and Miss Joan Schwabauer of Salem and Misses Joan Lawrence and Harriett Berger of Portland.

Miss Patricia Struck, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marilyn Jacobs, his cousin, passed the bridegroom's cake.

For traveling the bride wore a royal blue gabardine suit with silver buttons, a blue taffeta picture hat, white gloves with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The couple will be at home

Sunday Tea Of Interest

A large group called for the "fuchsia tea" given by the Salem Art association Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, the affair being between 4 and 8 o'clock.

A bit of rain caused some rearrangement of the tea table, and prevented some from viewing the unusual arrangement of fuchsias in the gardens, but even so the association deemed the tea a successful one. The serving table, arranged by Mrs. Keith Powell and Miss Edith Schryver, was set with a pale green cloth and decorated with ribbons striped in pink, lavender and soft blue, flowers in blue vases carrying out the same color theme.

Another event on the week's calendar for the art association will be the informal tea Tuesday afternoon to honor Miss Constance Fowler, who has an exhibit of her work in Elfstrom's art galleries this week, the tea to be between 3 and 5 o'clock in the Gift Box near the galleries.

Kitchen Shower

Miss Iris Proudfit was honored with a bridal kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Clayton Gibb on Hollywood drive with Mrs. Harold Holler assisting hostess. Mrs. Gus Klempel led the devotions. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Gerald Christofferson, Mrs. Mildred Morris, Miss Harriet Broman, Mrs. Frank Meyers.

DR. AND MRS. J. Harry Moran and grandson, James Reed of Portland, have returned from a 5,000 mile trip taking in Denver, Bryce Canyon, Grand Canyon, Zion Canyon, Merca Verda Catacombs, Las Vegas and Reno. They spent several days in San Francisco.

SILVERTON—Mrs. Clea Lehr is announcing the betrothal of her daughter, Miss Joan Lehr, to Robert S. Kemper, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Kemper. The date of the wedding is August 27, Saturday, at Immanuel Lutheran church.

Miss Ward, Mr. Bielenberg Wed at Church, July 28

Mt. Angel—Holy Rosary church at Crooked Finger was the scene of a wedding ceremony on Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock when Miss Darlene Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward was married to Anthony Bielenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bielenberg, all of Crooked Finger. Rev. Vincent Koppert, O.S.B., assistant pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, officiated at the nuptial high mass and read the vows before a large number of relatives and friends. Serving the mass were Donald Schmidt and Kenneth Wachter of Mt. Angel. Miss Stella Dummer was organist for the Mt. Angel girls choir, singing the mass, and played the processional and recessional marches. Mixed summer flowers and lighted cathedral tapers decorated the altars.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white satin fashioned with net yoke on fitted bodice, with wide lace bertha collar, long sleeves, a peplum of ruffles over the hip-line, and a full skirt terminating in a long train. Her fingertip veil, edged with double row of lace, was held in place by a coronet beaded with white pearls, and she carried a white prayer book topped with two white orchids and satin streamers.

Miss Barbara Thompson of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a dress of pink marquisette with appliqued flowers, large collar on fitted bodice and floor-length skirt. Her head-dress was a matching braided coronet with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of peach colored gladtioluses tied with a pink ribbon.

Mrs. John Spionski, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid, wearing a blue marquisette gown with square neckline on fitted bodice and full floor-length skirt. Her braided coronet headdress with pearls was in blue and she carried a bouquet of peach colored gladtioluses tied with blue ribbon.

Fred Bielenberg served as best man for his brother, and John Spionski was an usher. Mrs. Ward was dressed in a dark blue suit for her daughter's wedding, and she wore a corsage of white carnations centered with Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Bielenberg wore a black silk print afternoon dress, and her corsage also was of white carnations with Cecil Brunner roses.

The breakfast and dinner were held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bielenberg. An arrangement of summer flowers with lighted tapers guarded the wedding cake centering the bride's table. Serving were Miss Jeannean Fulton, Miss Cheryl DeMent and Miss Donna Williams of Portland. A reception was held at the Mt. Angel Legion hall during the afternoon, and a wedding dance held in the same place during the evening.

For going away the bride wore a tan wool tailored suit with tan straw hat and white accessories, with her corsage of white orchids. Following a wedding trip down the Oregon coast and returning through central Oregon, the couple will reside at Scotts Mills where he is in business.
