

Many Picnics Woodburn Park

Woodburn—Around 500 people took advantage of Settlemier park Sunday for group picnics and close to 300 more enjoyed the War Memorial swimming pool.

At the fourth annual picnic of the Social club of Evergreen chapter, Order of the Eastern Star for Stars, Masons and families, more than 100 gathered for a picnic. Arrangements were in charge of the president, Mrs. Nettie Johnson, and the men of the group served the coffee. Among those from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Butterfield and family of Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hill of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loney of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baillie of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Matson and children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Bentaas and son of Vancouver, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peterson of Halsey, Mrs. W. E. Gilbert of Albany, Mrs. David Wright of Salem, Mrs. Emil Born of Davenport, Iowa.

About 150 members were in attendance at the Church of God picnic. Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Skinner of Portland, former pastor of the local church.

Another group from the Lutheran Sunday school included between 75 and 100 adults and children.

About 50 attended the picnic of the Aid Insurance group for Lutherans.

In addition there were several smaller private groups and every table in the park was occupied.

School Clothes Choice—June Pedersen (above), "Miss California of 1949," chooses these outfits designed by Stephanie Koret as the proper attire for the University of California in Berkeley, where she starts the fall semester as a freshman. At the left she wears a corduroy set featuring a topper with a huge, windswept back, jutting collar and generous cuffs. On the right she wears a matching pleated skirt and shirt. This Heather grey wool jersey creation features a triangular Eaton collar, shirtmaker sleeves and gunmetal buttons. (Acme Telephoto)

East Salem Groups Holding Social Calendar Spotlight

East Salem, Aug. 2—Club, family picnics and family reunions with picnic dinners were the highlights for social activities in East Salem over the week-end. The Merry Minglers club held their annual family picnic in the Dallas park.

Going over for the evening supper served at 7 o'clock were Mr. and Mrs. J. Irvin Wagers; Mr. and Mrs. Vicar Wagers and Johnny; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sprick; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Page; Shirley, Marilyn and Dayri; Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Keppinger; Gay Lee and Toni; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagers; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fabry and Joanne; Mr. and Mrs. George Hardy; Mrs. Sarah Wright; and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wagers and David. Following the eating of supper four short contest games were played with Mrs. Robert Wagers winning two and Lee Wagers and Cleo Keppinger each one. The first regular meeting of the club for the fall will be September 15.

The first family reunion for the new members of the Charles E. Siegmund family was Sunday when all children and grandchildren met at the family home on a Garden Road for an outdoor picnic dinner. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Siegmund; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Siegmund; Thomas, Shirley and Robert of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Siegmund, Charles and Sara Jane of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Siegmund, James and Martha of Astoria and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Sharyn and Allan of Salem.

Several young folks of East Salem are at church camps this week. Marvin Cage of Middle Grove is at Jennings Lodge for the young peoples program at the annual camp meeting. Driving up for the services were Mr. and Mrs. John Cage. The annual summer conference for the American Sunday School Union is being held at Turner this week. Donna Mae Brandt from Swegle community is attending and Eddie Page and Dale Van Cleave from Middle Grove. John Stark of Swegle attended the Baptist church camp near Tillamook the past week.

Mrs. Ella Brown of Cutler City is visiting for a few days in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown on Garden road. They all attended the annual Pugh family reunion of Mrs. Ella Brown's sister held at Silver Creek Falls on Sunday.

Satire on Fact
Moscow, Aug. 2 (AP)—"The Mad Haberdasher" is the title of a new play now in rehearsal and scheduled for a mid-August premiere. The newspaper Evening Moscow describes it as a satire on the North Atlantic pact.

Electrician Killed
Astoria, Aug. 2 (AP)—Electrician Robert E. Ebert, Portland, slipped against the main bus bar of a 25,000-volt power line here yesterday and was killed. He was helping a construction crew cut in a feeder line for the Pacific Power and Light company at the main plant here.

Alteration and repair permits have been taken out by W. J. Stockholm, Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson, Harry Barzee, E. W. Staats, G. N. Prime, Lloyd A. Cook, R. B. Loomis, Mrs. Beulah Pike, Earl Conkey, Frances Coleman, Ed Warrick, Charles N. Moore, H. T. Ficklin and E. T. Earhart.

Delayne T. Paulsen took out a permit for a storage building for machinery and trucks.
