Miss Gregg Recent Bride

Bride on July 22 was Miss Lillian Gregg of Salem, daughter of Mrs. Annie Gregg of Nyssa, Ore., her marriage to Leo L. Baton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop of Salem being solemnized that date at an 8:30 o'clock service in the evening at the First Baptist church, the Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating.

For her wedding the bride wore a white taffeta gown, designed with bustle effect in back and a train. The fingertip veil was arranged from a bandeau with orange blossoms at the sides. For her flowers, the bride carried a crescent bouquet of Vanda orchids, Rapture roses and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Howard Paschall of Mitchell was matron of honor for her aunt. She wore a sky blue taffeta dress, and Miss Vera Jones was bridesmaid wearing a teal blue marquisette frock. Both carried crescent bouquets of Rapture roses and pink and white sweet peas. Flower girl was Judith Hansen, wearing a pink taffeta dress. Edwin Watkins of Hillsboro was best man and ushering was Ray Guthner. Victor Gregg, a nephew of the bride, Nyssa was ring bearer.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Mary Carolyn Davis, wearing a white gown, and Miss Pearl Combs, who was in blue. Both wore Rubrum lilies in their hair.

For the music, the Rev. Mrs. Brickwedel sang and Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr. was at the organ.

The reception following also was at the church. Mrs. V. L. Loucks of Seio, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Miss Ardith Combs poured and assisting with the serving were Miss Myrl Gramse and Miss Betty Holland.

Following a trip to Lake Louise and Banff the couple are at home in Salem until the fall when they will go to Portland to live. Mr. Baton is a civil engineer.

Guthner-Gramse Wedding Sunday

Miss Myrl Gramse and Ray Guthner were married Sunday evening at a simple service in the First Baptist church, the ceremony being solemnized at the close of the young people's service with Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown of Portland attended the couple, and others standing with the bridal couple were Miss Alice Bailey, Miss Mary Carolyn Davis, Walter Judd and Norman Mann.

The bride wore a green suit with gray hat and carried a white Bible on which was placed an orchid.

The informal reception was held after the church services. The young couple will live in Portland. Mr. Guthner to continue his studies at the Multnomah School of the Bible.

Clan Reunion

Dallas—The 1949 meeting of the Humphreys clan was held in the Dallas City park, with 72 members present. The family include descendants of Thomas Melvin and Jane Humphreys.
