

To Hit 'Sanity Code' Violators

By JOSEPH B. KELLEY

Boston, Aug. 3 (AP)—At least a half dozen of some 180 college athletic powers, which subscribe to the NCAA "sanity code" are in for a rude shock Aug. 12.

On that day from Chicago they will be cited for violations of the code governing athletic policies. The rebukes develop after last week's meeting of college athletic commissioners at New Castle, N.H.

Generally, the NCAA compliance committee is enthusiastic about conditions in intercollegiate sports.

More Collegiate Athletic Headache
Summer baseball for many years has been a sore subject with colleges, the athletes and promoters of summer leagues. Two years ago players in the jurisdiction of the eastern college AA were banned from the northern league, an independent circuit in Vermont and New Hampshire.

Now the college fathers are casting suspicious glances at the Borscht basketball circuit in the Catskills where many collegians have jobs as waiters and play considerable basketball.

Batting Around
Tennis intimates hereabouts think one berth on the United States Davis Cup team will be determined by the showings of Frankie Parker and Pancho Gonzales in the coming play at Newport, R.I., casino, the better man winning.

Red Sox players and coaches think Cleveland outfielder Bob Kennedy has as good a throwing arm as any outfielder they've ever seen and that goes for those who saw Bob Meusel.

Satchel Paige insists a fast ball is the best pitch. "Curve's only a fooler, says Satch. "Yuh gotta watch the good hitters. They step outta the box and get in again with their feet different. And yuh gotta throw that fast ball where yuh want it or they'll hurt. But it's a better pitch than a curve."

Satch will bet "90 per cent of home runs are hit on sliders and curves."

Back to School

Maurice McDermott, lanky and classy Red Sox rookie left handed is going back to school on a scholarship—by mail. Officials of a correspondence school presented the 20-year-old hurler his scholarship at Fenway park. Maury left St. Patrick's high school, Elizabeth, N.J., in June, 1945, to pitch for Scranton, Sox farm in the eastern league, and never earned his diploma.

Where Will He Play?

Just before the Cleveland Indians left New York for Boston Manager Lou Boudreau told writers he would play first base against the Sox. Lou played short through the five game series.

Before he left town last night he said he would remain at short for some time. Asked directly "who'll you put on third?" He replied, "I can't answer that right now."

Ken Keltner made one single in 20 times at bat against the Red Sox. Cleveland scribe Ed McCauley polled some of the Indians and they were virtually unanimous in their opinion Boudreau should play third and Rookie Ray Boone should play short.

Raising the Roof
Les Canadiens of the National Hockey league are raising the roof in their home city of Montreal. The forum cover is being elevated to make room for 3,000 seats.

Come the hockey season 12,000 of les habitants will be able to sit in new, leather cushioned seats. There will be standing room for 3,000 more. Still Chasing the Puck

Governor Billed As Attraction at Legion Tourney

Albany — Governor Douglas McKay will be here to highlight the opening ceremonies for the state American Legion Junior baseball tournament next Saturday, it was announced Tuesday by Zed Merrill, chairman of the Legion committee handling the tourney.

The Shrine band from Portland will also be on hand for the opening, Merrill also said.

The ceremonies will start at 7:15 p. m., at Hudson field. The first game will start at 8 p. m.

Entries will be the Byerly team from Portland, Vale, from eastern Oregon, Hillsboro, and the Drain nine.

The series will run through the first part of next week, it was announced.

Johnny Crawford, popular defense veteran of the Boston Bruins is Frank Selke's first choice as player coach of the new Cincinnati club in the western division of the American Hockey league. But the Bruins want a young player, or players, in return as Bruins think Johnny has two more playing years in his rugged system.

Early Governor

Vermont Governor Ernest W. Gibson has filed intentions early for his annual court appearance. He has entered the Vermont state tennis championships at Burlington which begin Sept. 8. He was eliminated in an early round last year.

Ross Collects Mat Win on Foul

Al Williams, a tattooed roughian with little respect for rules, lost his professional wrestling match to Tony Ross on a foul in the local armory arena Tuesday night.

After each grappler had taken a fall, Williams repeatedly yanked Ross out of the ring and applied full Nelsons. Referee Jack Mitchell finally stepped in and awarded the victory to Ross.

In other matches, All Szasz defeated Buck Weaver and Tex Hager won over Billy McEuin.

Aussie Horse to Invade

New York (AP)—Bernbrook, a full brother to the Australian horse, Shannon II, for which a syndicate of Kentucky breeders paid $300,000 last year, is being prepared for a trip to the United States with the Santa Anita Handicap as his goal.

A stakes winner in Australia, Bernbrook runs well over the mile distance. Bernbrook, by Midstream out of Idle Words, is owned by A. O. Romano, Sydney Restaurateur, who also raced Bernborough, regarded by Australians as second only to the immortal Phar Lap.

Requests totalling $44,000 to help past and present members of his old regiment, the Royal Fusiliers, were left by Brigadier Howlett of Bradford, England.

It's a Crime (On the Beach)—Roy Miffleton kisses his pretty wife, Eleanor, at their Washington, D. C., home and contends it is his privilege at home or on the beach. It was on Sunday that Miffleton kissed his wife during an outing at Mayo beach on Chesapeake bay and was arrested for disorderly conduct. No kissing on the beach, he was told. The Miffleton children, Eddie, 12 (left) and Arlene, 6, look at the home kiss and agreed it wasn't any different than the beach kiss. (AP Wirephoto)

Third Best

East Lansing, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State's 1949 baseball team produced the third best winning record in the 25-year coaching career of head mentor John Kobs. The team won 19 and lost eight. Kobs' best team was that of 1946, which won 21 and lost five.
