Invaders Stifle Salem Rally With Triple Play in Second

The Salem Senators, playing before the second largest crowd of the season—3146 paid customers, knuckled down to baseball Wednesday night and slapped down the Victoria Athletics, 4-1.

Bob Drilling went the route for the locals and set back the Canaan crew on his seven hitter which was supported by top fielding of the Salems.

The fans, lured to Waters park to see Funnyman Al Schacht perform, saw a hot Salem rally snuffed off in the second by the third double play ever effected at the local garden.

Mel Wasley led off the Salem half of the inning with a double which bounced off the center field fence. Bill Beard walked, and Orrin Snyder, in the left field garden, clipped a sharp double into the area he covered on defense.

Snyder's blow scored Wasley and moved Beard to third.

Claude Buckley tagged one of Pete Vucurevich's fast ones for a single, scoring Beard and moving Snyder to second.

Drilling, out to help his own pitching chores by offensive play, slammed the next pitch for a single which brought Snyder home.

Then, Victoria lowered the boom.

Marty Krug clipped one which was taken by Vic Buccola and flipped to Ray Waiseth for a triple play which snuffed the Salem attack. After that inning Vucurevich settled down to hold the Salem sluggers.

Both teams scored one each in the fifth.

Gil McDougal was forced from play in the fourth inning when he sustained a cut sliding into home. Beard effectively blocked the plate on the play to nullify his attempt.

Bob Hedington, normally in the lineup for Salem, will be out of play for several days as the result of a bad ankle, injured when he stepped on the jacked at home plate Tuesday.

The final of the six game series, and the last appearance for the Athletics in Waters Park this season will be played at 8 p.m. Thursday. Friday, the Vancouver Capitanos will move into the local pasture for a week-end series.

Funnyman Performs Al Schacht, known as the clown prince of baseball, is shown here mimicking a near sighted pitcher as he clowns an effort to read signals from "Swede" Carlson, catcher for the Senators. The clown drew the 3,146 fans, second only to the recent raspberry night which feted the Spokane manager. Schacht performed for a half hour, drifting through the stands, swiping swigs of pop, cigars, switching hats and buzzing the ladies. His antics on the field including pantomimes of Dom and Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams and other national stars.

Twin Win Over Bevos Puts Oakland on Tail of Stars

San Francisco, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—The Oakland Acons are giving evidence of sprouting into a substantial roadblock to the Hollywood Stars.

Last year's champions, who spent the first half of the season on a treadmill, have suddenly turned into a powerhouse. The Oaks knocked off the Portland Beavers twice last night and moved into second place. They replaced the Sacramento Solons as the latest "hop" to displace the Stars for the Pacific Coast leadership.

Charlie Dressen's charges stemmed the uprising Beavers 10-5 and 8-7, while the Solons, erstwhile challengers for Hollywood's spot, were dropping a pair to the San Francisco Seals. Sacramento lost 4-3 and 8-6 in a couple of the worst - played games of the season.

The Stars capitalized on the change of challengers. The Solons lost to Seattle 10-2 but retained their six and a half game margin. The San Diego Padres, an earlier threat to the Twinkles, pulled up to the even-Stephen mark by beating Los Angeles 8-5.

Oakland make the hop into second place by buncing their hits. In the first game the Acons lashed out with a seven-run rally in the fourth to take the lead and the game away from the Beavers. In the nightcap the Oaks stayed off a last inning rally by Portland to preserve a lead that was built up in the seventh when Earl Rapp broke a tie with a two-run homer.

San Francisco continued to hold the Seals stadium jinx on the Solons. The Seals won their ninth straight game from the Seals in the park. In the opener the Seals got only two singles, but utilized Sacramento errors and walks for the necessary four runs. The second game, replete with five boots, was called after eight innings because of the time law. The Seals virtually clinched the game in the fourth with a rally of four unearned runs. The two teams made nine errors in the two games.

Industrial Loop Chalks 31 Errors Thursday Evening
Errors were plentiful in Industrial league softball play at Leslie field last night. A total of 31 miscues were committed in three games.

Clear Lake Store, Navy pushed across one run in an extra inning to nose Interstate Tractor 8 to 7, and Teamsters downed Post Office 10 to 8.
In the nightcap, Post Office scored its six tallies on only two hits, taking advantage of sloppy play on the part of the Teamsters, who erred six times. Post Office was charged with five muffs.

Burgher Returns To Salem Team From Portland

George Emigh, business manager of the Salem Senators, disclosed Thursday that Bill Burgher would be returned to the Solons for possible work against Victoria.

The catcher moved up to Portland at the end of the 1948 season after catching for Salem. The reason for his return, according to Emigh, is to give him work behind the plate. He has been little action in Portland.

With his return, it is likely that "Swede" Carlson, who has subbed for Bill Beard in games this season behind the plate will be returned to some Yankee farm club.

Stackhouse Arrives Eager for the feel of pigskin, Willamette's new athletic director and head football coach Chester Stackhouse (left) made a quick visit to the university gym upon his arrival Wednesday for a chat with Coach Johnny Lewis and a preview of the athletic plant. Stackhouse expects to use a variation of the "T" formation. Practice will begin early next month with the opening date for the 'Cats set for September 17 against the University of Idaho. Stackhouse resigned from the directorship of Lincoln university in Pennsylvania for the Willamette post.

Alaskan Pitcher Strikes Out 21—Loses Anyhow!

Fairbanks, Alaska, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—Lady Luck deserted Jack Spurr last night.

The Fairbanks pitcher struck out 21 men in a seven-inning fastball game of the Farthest North Fastball League—and lost 1-0.

Spurr gave up two hits and a pair of walks. His teammates collected eight hits but couldn't score.

Hot Rod Race to Be Legion Event
Saturday night's roadster racing program at Hollywood bowl will be an official event of the 31st annual Oregon state American Legion convention, according to an announcement made today by an official of Valley Sports, Inc., race promoters.

Legionnaires will be given a part in the pre-race program, and it is hoped that one of the Legion bands now visiting in Salem will be available to play at the Bowl between races.

Time trials start at 8 o'clock Saturday, with the first race, the trophy dash, scheduled to get the green flag at 8:45.

WILLIAMS WINS NOD IN TEN-ROUND SHUFFLE
Oakland, Calif., August 4 (U.P.)—The Williams, world lightweight champion from Trenton, N.J., coasted to a unanimous 10-round decision over Benny Walker of Oakland last night in a slow-moving, non-title bout.

Hogan to Lead Ryder Cup Team
Chicago, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—Ben Hogan, golf man of the year in 1948, has been honored with the captaincy of the U. S. Ryder cup squad, although injuries suffered in an auto collision have sidelined him from links action.

The professional golfers' association announced yesterday that Hogan, the mighty bantam, will appear with the U. S. team in Boston, although he will not be able to compete.

Dodger Pitching Works, Yankees Continue Lead

New York, Aug. 4 (U.P.)—Somebody finally solved the Dodger pitching jigsaw today, putting the once-scattered pieces together for a suddenly efficient staff.

For most of the season, even as Brooklyn led the National league, the Dodger pitchers seemed on the payroll simply for comic relief—plenty of comedy and plenty of relief. But yesterday trim Carl Erskine hurled to a six-hit 10 to 5 romp over the Pirates and thus became the fourth Dodger pitcher to go the distance in as many games. All four won.

Don Newcombe was the first to do it, then Ralph Branca, then Rex Barney and now Erskine. Newcombe takes another crack today—and still under wraps are the two leftys, Joe Hatten and Preacher Roe.

The Doger triumph yesterday still left Brooklyn a half a game out of the National League lead, for Howie Pollet shut out the Boston Braves on four hits, 7 to 0, to protect the St. Louis Cardinal margin.

The five-hit pitching of Dave Koslo gave the Giants their sixth in a row, this a 4 to 1 triumph over the last-place Chicago Cubs. Meanwhile, lefty Ken Raffensberger gave up only two singles as he hurled the Reds to a 2 to 0 triumph over the Phils.

The New York Yankees kept their edge in the American League race, thanks once again to Frieman Joe Page. They came from behind with three runs in the eighth to beat the Detroit Tigers, 7 to 5.

The second-place Cleveland Indians were rained out in their game at Washington, but the third-place Boston Red Sox kept a-comeing by beating the St. Louis Browns, 9 to 3.

The Athletics climbed back into fourth place with a 3 to 2 victory over the White Sox.
