

Second Day Of Meeting To Be Busy

Another busy day is ahead. Friday, for the American Legion auxiliary units in session here for the annual department convention.

A very "early start" is on the calendar for the secretaries and treasurers, a breakfast to be given in their honor at 1 a. m. Friday in the Chamber of Commerce (billed as the Malamute Saloon on the invitations with Dan McGrew and the Lady known as Lou, officiating.) Mrs. Bert A. Walker heads the committee in charge.

Business sessions for the auxiliary take up at 9 a. m. Friday in the state senate chambers at the capitol building. Following the roll call and convention minutes, there will be a report by the resolutions committee, of which Mrs. Robert Kreson of Dallas is chairman; a report of the department treasurer and finance commission, and presentation of the convention auxiliary chairman, Mrs. I. N. Bacon of Salem.

Nomination of officers will close the Friday morning session.

The afternoon meeting is slated to start at 1:15 o'clock with Mrs. Hubert A. Goode of Portland, national president of the auxiliary, to give her message at that time. A floral degree will be presented by juniors of the auxiliary, Mrs. Leon M. Brown as chairman.

Following the ceremonies honoring Mrs. Goode, reports will be given by all convention committees, about 20 of them. The group will adjourn for the "annual parade" at 2 p. m., and district caucus meetings are slated between 3 and 4 p. m.

Miss Broad Bride Saturday Evening

Aurora—The Cedar Mills Community church, near Beaverton was the scene Saturday evening, July 30, of the wedding of Miss Mildred Broad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Broad of Beaverton, and Harold R. Freece, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Freece of Canby.

Honoring the bride, a pre-nuptial shower was given during the week preceding the wedding at the home of Mrs. C. E. Kraft in Canby, with members of the Milk Creek Extension Unit as hostesses. The gift table was centered with a bowl of pink and white sweet peas, guarded by white tapers. An umbrella suspended above, from which streamers led to miniature umbrellas in pink and white, further carried out the "shower" theme.

Guests were Mrs. Elwood Faist, Mrs. Sherman E. Zweigart, Mrs. Gordon Lindland, Mrs. Elmer Blake, Mrs. Leon Jackson, Mrs. Raymond Weygandt, Mrs. Adam Bany, Mrs. Chris Kraft, Sr., Mrs. Melvin Mahlum, Mrs. Fred Dietz, Mrs. Belle Brown, Mrs. Abe Hepler, Mrs. Ora Slyter, Mrs. W. O. Melum, Mrs. Louis Sperm, Mrs. C. E. Kraft, Mrs. Vida Hamblett, Mrs. Warren Freece, Misses Gloria and Dorothy Rupp, Mrs. R. L. Hansen, Mrs. Frank Sperm, Mrs. Elmer Pugh, Mrs. Ed Rupp of Salem, Mrs. Clarence Rupp, Mrs. Fred Scallion, Mrs. Raymond Freece and sons, Donnie and Bobby, Miss Orma Hepler, Mrs. I. U. Bany, Mrs. Matt Faist, Mrs. James Broad and the bride, Mrs. Harold R. Freece, of Beaverton, Mrs. William Broad from Ontario, Canada, Mrs. Oscar Olson, Mrs. Henry Kraft, Mrs. L. C. Berney, Janice and Norman Berney, Miss Alice Rupp, Mrs. Roy L. Halo, Mrs. D. W. Cutsforth.

Miss Nelson To Wed Soon

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan S. Nelson, formerly of Spokane and now of Salem, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Eloise Nelson, to Lyle H. Hamilton, son of Mrs. Iva Hamilton of Salem.

The wedding is planned for August 21 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Lake Labish Community church.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Central high school in Spokane and attended Washington State college. She is now employed at Kelley-Farquhar company office. Mr. Hamilton is a senior at Willamette university and is a laboratory technician at Salem Memorial hospital.

Costume Day For SWGA

The annual costume day for members of the Salem Women's Golf association was Wednesday, and any one passing by would have seen a startling array on the greens and at the club house — everything from Gypsy and Indian costumes to comic strip make-ups, and certainly many "originals."

Prizes for the costumes went to the following: Mrs. John H. Johnson, the most original; Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, prettiest; Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., best character; Mrs. Robert Drager, funniest; Mrs. Edward Roth, most outstanding; and honorable mentions to Mrs. W. T. Waterman, Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mrs. John Heltzel.

Guests for the day included Miss Birdie DeBeck, Mrs. Glenn Holman, Mrs. Arthur Rhan, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Miss Jean McDougall, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, Miss Mary Bacon and Mrs. Forsythe Bacon of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. P. C. Anderson, Mrs. Loren Mort and Mrs. Charles A. Barclay.

Prize winners in the day's play included Mrs. John Heltzel, class A; Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, class B; Mrs. Joseph W. Matujece, class C; Mrs. Linn Hammerstad, class D.

Rebekah Meeting Held at Woodburn

Woodburn — Home Rebekah lodge No. 58 met in regular session Tuesday evening at the L.O.O.F. hall. Members were reminded of the harvest festival for the L.O.O.F. in October.

Plans were completed for the annual picnic to be held Sunday, August 14, for all Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and families and any visiting members in the community, at Settemier park. Committee in charge of tables and coffee includes Mrs. Arthur Burt, Mrs. Alfred Moon, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Fred Frenz.

The noble grand, Mrs. Sidney Cummings, appointed the following with a bell on one side and a ladies slipper on the other.

Serving the bride's cake were Miss Norma Moshberger and Mrs. E. A. Dickson, at the punch bowl were Mrs. Wilfred Weathers and Miss Lorraine Haunuska, and pouring at the coffee urn were Mrs. Homer Harrison and Miss Rita Halter. Assisting were Mrs. Elmer Rierson, Mrs. George Lathrop, Mrs. Fritz Moshenberger and Mrs. L. D. Johnson. Miss Yvonne Williams passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Clayton Baker and Mrs. Al Berg.

The bride wore for traveling a gray tailored suit with navy hat and purse and white shoes and gloves. The couple left for a short honeymoon at Seaside and parts of Washington. They are at home to their many friends at 4737 N. E. Going, Portland.

The couple are both graduates of Woodburn high school and the bride is employed by the state in the veterans affairs office in Portland. Mr. Tremaine was in the U. S. Coast Guard attending stenotype school in Portland.

Is Bride—The marriage of Mrs. Richard Hartley, the former Barbara Nelson, was solemnized July 29 in the First Congregational church here. The new Mrs. Hartley formerly lived in Portland and attended Willamette university. Mr. Hartley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartley of Silverton and he will complete his work at Willamette this year. The couple will reside in Salem. (Kennell-Ellis studio picture)

Following heads of standing committees: Community chairman, Mrs. Arthur Burt; good of order, Mrs. H. A. Lohse; publicity, Mrs. Ellen Swofford; fraternal press, Mrs. Fred Frenz.

The charter was draped in memory of William B. Brown, 91, a member for many years, who died July 30.

Following the meeting games were played with Mrs. Charles Dean winning prizes. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Scott, Miss Laura Bonney and Mrs. Lafa Peterson.

The refreshments committee for the next meeting, Aug. 16, will be Mrs. Ernest Livesay, Mrs. Lyle Warren and Mrs. Reba Gass.

THE FOURTH birthday anniversary for Karen Fortmiller was Thursday and she was honored this afternoon at an informal party at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Fortmiller. Honoring Karen were Johnny and Jimmy Zerzan, Marilyn Miller, Mary Griffith and Judy Fortmiller.

FORMER Baker county residents are reminded of the picnic to be staged for all former residents of Baker county, in Portland next Sunday, August 7, in Laurelhurst park. Each family is to take its own basket lunch and coffee. The ice cream is to be furnished.

Refreshments were served to nearly 150 guests in the church dining rooms immediately after the program. Mrs. Ed B. Frey and Mrs. Thomas Dalke poured. Mrs. Henry Quiring and Mrs. S. N. Ediger cut the ices. The bride's table was centered by a large square tiered wedding cake which Mr. Jake Buhler had made. The Misses Lavina Harder and Florence Frey assisted.

Twenty-five years ago this couple's wedding was the first wedding to be held in the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren church which had just then been built on Miller avenue. On Saturday evening this was the first silver wedding to be held in the now new Evangelical

Surprise for Bride-Elect

A surprise party and miscellaneous bridal shower were given last evening for Miss Elizabeth Louise (Betty) Thompson, Buhl, Idaho, who is to be married August 31 to Ray N. Fedje of Salem.

Miss Polly Pollock of Portland was hostess for the party given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fedje, parents of Mr. Fedje.

A group of 25 was bidden. Following an informal evening late refreshments were served. Miss Thompson and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gan Thompson, and her sister, Mrs. Eb Martin, were to leave Thursday to return to their home in Buhl. All came earlier in the week to be guests at an open house for which Dr. and Mrs. Fedje entertained Tuesday evening to honor their son and Miss Thompson.

The Fedje-Thompson wedding is to be in the Methodist church at Buhl, August 31.

Kroekers Feted On Anniversary

North Dallas—The chancel of the new Evangelical Mennonite Brethren church on Howe near Miller avenue was decorated in pink and white gladioluses and ferns in large baskets on Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Kroeker of West Salem, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an 8 o'clock service. Their older daughter, Miss Margaret Kroeker, was toastmistress for the evening.

The plans included a program similar to the original wedding service 25 years ago. The minister who had preformed the ceremony could not attend, so his complimentary letter was read to the friends and relatives gathered with the honored couple. A choir of about a dozen voices sang the same song "Sail On" by Gabriel, that had been sung originally. The choir members were a portion of that other choir 25 years ago. At that time a choir of 50 voices took part.

Rev. Jacob H. Quiring gave the invocation. Originally he had given a sermonette. Rev. A. P. Toews brought the message of the evening on "Faith." Misses Margaret and Esther Kroeker, the two daughters, sang "My God and I."

Rev. Glen Yates of the Wesleyan Methodist church in Salem gave appropriate remarks. Informal good wishes were extended to the couple. Mrs. Henry Quiring gave a reading of which she was the composer. Among those speaking were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Buhler of Salem, Mrs. W. S. Downer, and Mrs. J. N. Ediger. John S. Ediger, who is the only living uncle on the bride's maternal side of the family, gave the closing prayer.

Refreshments were served to nearly 150 guests in the church dining rooms immediately after the program. Mrs. Ed B. Frey and Mrs. Thomas Dalke poured. Mrs. Henry Quiring and Mrs. S. N. Ediger cut the ices. The bride's table was centered by a large square tiered wedding cake which Mr. Jake Buhler had made. The Misses Lavina Harder and Florence Frey assisted.

Twenty-five years ago this couple's wedding was the first wedding to be held in the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren church which had just then been built on Miller avenue. On Saturday evening this was the first silver wedding to be held in the now new Evangelical

Wed at Silverton — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis Peoples (Gretchen Handtamann) were married June 17 at Calvary Lutheran church in Silverton. The bride, from Bismarck, N. D., is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Handtamann, and Mr. Peoples is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peoples of Corvallis. (McEwan studio picture)

Mennonite Brethren church standing on Howe just off Miller. This church had been dedicated on July 24 just six days before this 25th anniversary was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Kroeker have spent all but 4 years in Kansas. These last 4 years have been in Oregon. The daughter attended Salem College and Academy. Mr. Kroeker has been pastor at an Aumsville church for two of these past 4 years. They are now at home in West Salem.

MRS. CLEO KEPPINGER was hostess for a shower at her home on Lancaster drive Tuesday night, honoring Miss Iris Proudfit whose wedding will be an event of August 12.

Honoring Miss Proudfit were

Engagement Is Announced

Announcement is made by Mrs. Pearl Cowan of Salem of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Viona Mary Cowan, of Pasadena, Calif., formerly of Salem, to Ross William Heegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Heegel of Alhambra, Calif. The wedding date has been set for September 3.

Miss Cowan is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and was employed at the state treasury department before going to California. For the past year she has been employed at the California Trust company in Los Angeles. Mr. Heegel, since his discharge from the navy, has been taking an engineering course at Pasadena college.

Mrs. John Van Laanen, Mrs. William Massey, Mrs. Paul Bassett, Mrs. Dan Scharf, Mrs. Robert Wagers, Mrs. Clyde Kuenze, Jr., Mrs. John Anglin, Mrs. James Schardein, Mrs. Emory Goode, Mrs. Roy Scofield, Mrs. John Cage, Mrs. Robert Fromm, Mrs. William Scharf, Mrs. Anna Wiresing, her mother, Mrs. Russell M. Proudfit, and sister, Mrs. Paul Barham.

Advertisement for 'The Fashionette' sweaters, featuring a woman in a sweater, 'back to school' sign, and price of 50¢ down. Text includes 'means you'll wear your famous BABY KNIT JOAN MARIE this Fall!' and a coupon for a convenient terms purchase.

Advertisement for Spauldings, featuring a large diagonal banner, the text 'JUST RECEIVED!', and 'Price's' logo with address '135 North Liberty'.