Miss Rondeau Wed Sunday

Gervais—At a 3 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon, July 31, at the Presbyterian church, Miss Shirley Rondeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rondeau, and Lloyd Dale Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Brown of Woodburn, were united in marriage. The couple exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with tall baskets of yellow, white and pink gladioluses, flanked by white tapers which were lighted by John Brown and Robert W. Harper. Rev. Ernest Tremblay, pastor of the church, read the service.

Preceding the ceremony, Olin Brown, brother of the bridegroom, sang and Mrs. Kenneth Brown played the accompaniment and the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white moire taffeta fashioned with a close fitting bodice, long sleeves, an off-shoulder effect with scallop trim and a lace yoke. The skirt was full with scallop trim as a flounce. Her fingertip illusion veil was lace trimmed and held in place with a scalloped halo of moire and lace. The bride carried a white Bible on the top of which were pink rosebuds showered with white satin ribbons and pink rosebuds. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and a pearl bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom. Mr. Rondeau escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Luzerne Hanes was maid of honor and wore a pale yellow nylon floor length dress with yellow lace trim. She carried white gladioluses tied with aqua satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Viola Bierly, who wore pale pink nylon and a pink satin ribbon braided coronet in her hair, and carried yellow gladioluses tied with yellow satin ribbon streamers; and Miss Mary Jane Hall, who wore an aqua nylon gown and self color ribbon coronet in her hair, and carried coral color gladioluses tied with coral satin ribbon streamers.

Flower girls were Sharon Brown, niece of the bridegroom, and Tena Cutsforth. Orville Brown served as best man for his brother, Robert Harper and John Brown, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Mrs. Rondeau chose a brown and aqua print with aqua accessories and wore a corsage of cream gladioluses. Mrs. Brown, mother of the bridegroom, wore a salmon pink and black print with white accessories and wore a corsage of light blue gladioluses.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Martha DuRette cut the cake assisted by Mrs. John Drake. Mrs. John Brown presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Olin Brown passed the guest book and Mrs. Orville Brown had charge of the gift table.

The couple left on a trip and the bride wore a white and green print with white accessories and a green tweed coat, and a pink rosebud corsage. The couple are graduates of Gervais union high school and upon their return will reside at the bridegroom's parents home until fall when Mr. Brown will complete his senior year at Seattle Pacific college in Seattle.

BEING welcomed home from a month's trip to Montana are Mrs. W. E. Deeney and children, Michael, Patty and Maura. They were at Butte visiting. Mrs. Deeney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davenport.
