

Among Newcomers Being Welcomed Here

Jessen-Miller studio picture

AMONG NEWCOMERS being welcomed in Salem is Mrs. Stanley Fallander. Her husband, Lt. Stanley Fallander, is executive officer at the naval air facilities in Salem. They moved here from Corvallis and are at home on Pioneer Drive.

AN OCTOBER bride will be Miss Jeanne Marie Myers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers, who is announcing Sunday, October 2 as date for her marriage to Ensign Henry B. Johnson, USN, son of Mrs. Dora Johnson of Salem.

The wedding is to be an afternoon one in the First Presbyterian church.

The engagement of the young couple was announced in the early summer. Miss Myers' twin sister, Janice Lea Myers, was married July 17 to Lloyd Vernon Lewis of Eugene.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

MISS Jane Carson has been named chairman for the picnic event to be given for the Spinster's club on Friday evening, August 19.

Serving with Miss Carson on the committee are Miss Edith Fairham, Miss Jean Claire Swift and Miss Patricia Larson.

The group will meet soon to make plans for the place and arrangements for the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers will be in Ashland the fore part of the week. Mr. Chambers will attend sessions of the state board of higher education, of which he is a member, and he and Mrs. Chambers also will attend the Shakespearean festival now on there.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be in Coos Bay next Friday and Saturday to be special guests at the Pirates club festivities there.

Arriving home today from a week at Vancouver and Victoria, B.C., were Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Miss Phyllis Schnell, bride-elect of Robert Strebig, was honored at a brunch and shower given today by Miss Jeanne Foster, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Eugene I. Foster, at their home.

The table was gayly set with a red and white plaid cloth and the centerpiece was a clever arrangement of a basket filled with kitchen items—cereals, spices, jams, jellies, etc.—the handle being decorated with flowers and plastic colored clothespins. The arrangement was presented to Miss Schnell. Placecards were cards upon which guests wrote recipes for the bride-elect.

Miss Foster, who recently observed her birthday, also was surprised with a gift.

Invited to fete Miss Schnell were her mother, Mrs. P. H. Schnell, Miss Charlotte Alexander, Miss Margaret Jane Cooley, Miss Carolyn Carson, Mrs. George C. Alexander, Miss Shirley Lukins, Miss Jean Claire Swift, Miss June Young, Mrs. Lester D. Green (Marylou McKay), Mrs. Donald Preiss, Miss Jean Fidler, Miss Addy Lane, Miss Connie Cocking, Mrs. Leonard Rinearson, Jr., of Corvallis, Miss Edith Fairham, Mrs. Roger Schnell, Miss Janet Rilea, Miss Mariann Croisan, Mrs. Foster and Miss Foster.

Miss Foster leaves tomorrow morning to return to San Francisco following a few days' visit here. She came north for the wedding of Miss Margaret Jane Cooley and John Phillip Maulding this evening.

Salem friends are saying farewells to Sgt. 1c and Mrs. Melvin E. Haines and children, Kathy, Millie and Melvin, Jr. (Skippy), who are to leave Monday for Tacoma to make their home. Sgt. Haines has been with the army recruiting office here.

King Family Comes from Alabama to Make Home in Salem

Jessen-Miller studio picture

BEING WELCOMED to Salem to make their home are Mrs. Lewis Marable King and son, Lou, who will be three years old this month. Mr. and Mrs. King and son recently came from Birmingham, Ala. Mrs. King's sister, Miss Mildred Christenson, was in Birmingham for several weeks visiting the Kings who came west with her.

August Weddings Are Planned

August is another month of weddings, a long list of them being recorded on the calendar. Several brides-elect whose nuptials come the latter part of the month are announcing plans for the ceremonies and members of their wedding parties.

Holmsted-Liudahl

Miss Donna Liudahl, who is to be married this month to John W. Holmsted, Jr., of Paxton, Neb., is telling plans for the ceremony to be solemnized at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, August 21, in St. Mark Lutheran church. Officiating at the service will be the Rev. M. A. Getzenander and the Rev. John Baglien.

Soloist is to be Victor Palmason and Prof. Maurice Brennen will be at the organ. Lighting the tapers will be Edward Meyer and Melvin Langeland.

Mrs. Weston LaMunyon of Bruning, Neb., will be matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids are to be Miss Anna Faye Olson and Miss Oradell Seife, the latter of Portland. Linda Stenjem is to be flower girl and Gary Reinsche will serve as ring bearer.

Best man is to be Weston LaMunyon and ushering will be Howard Baumgart, Donald Liudahl, brother of the bride-elect, Edward Meyer and Melvin Langeland.

The reception following also will be at the church.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Liudahl of Salem, and Mr. Holmsted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmsted of Paxton, Neb.

Williams-Arnold
Also to be wed on Sunday, August 21, are Miss Beula Arnold and James Williams, the service to be solemnized at 4 o'clock that afternoon in the Knight Memorial Congregational church with the Rev. Louis E. White officiating. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Janet Lindley and Miss Marilyn Nichols. Soloist for the service will be Robert Gwinn and Mrs. Lucille Mitchell will play the organ.

Miss Arnold has asked her sister, Mrs. Robert Wagers, to be her matron of honor, and as the junior bridesmaid, her younger sister, Mary Arnold.

Miss Joan Hoereth and Miss Crystal Huntington will be the bridesmaids. Best man will be Robert Seamster, and acting as ushers will be Theodore Covalt, Robert Wagers, Bruce Boatman, Lowell Weese, Tom Bartlett and Jerry Arnold, a cousin of the bride-elect.

The reception following also will be at the church.

Miss Arnold is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold and Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickey.

Grenz-Kerber
Another wedding arranged for August 21 is that of Miss Patsy Kerber and Jack Grenz of Albany.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. T. J. Bernards, pastor, officiating.

Wayne Meusey is to provide the music for the service.

Mrs. Bernard Grindle (Gwenda Boyer) is to be matron of honor and the bridesmaid will be Miss Margie Grenz, sister of Mr. Grenz.

William Grenz will be best man for his brother and ushering will be Darwin Kerber, brother of the bride-elect, and James Ammon, cousin of Mr. Grenz.

The reception following is to be in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

Salem Girl Wed at Church Service, Reception Follows

Jessen-Miller studio picture

WED LAST SUNDAY afternoon at a ceremony in the first Congregational church were Mr. and Mrs. James Morton Struck (Mary Masse). At left, the couple are shown at the reception cutting the cake, and at right is the bride in a formal pose at the altar steps. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Masse of Salem, and Mr. Struck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Struck of Parkdale.

Mann-Davis Ceremony Tonight

An altar banked with all white gladioluses, surrounded with ferns and palms, will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Mary Carolyn Davis and Norman E. Mann at an 8 o'clock ceremony this evening in the First Baptist church. Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson will officiate at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey F. Davis and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Mann of Walla Walla, Wash.

Singing at the ceremony will be Miss Beverly Kenney and David Lawrence. Miss Kenney will sing "At Dawning" and Mr. Lawrence will sing "Because." Organist will be William Fawk.

Lighting the ivy entwined tapers and the candles along both of the aisles will be Miss Nancy Buren and Mrs. James Duval. They will wear identical pastel yellow organdy frocks with full skirts and organdy sashes with bows in the back. Both will wear wrist corsages.

The bride has chosen a traditional white satin gown for her wedding with a long aisle filling train. It is designed with a nylon marquisette yoke, emphasized by shirred insertion around the shoulders. It is fashioned with a dropped waist which separates the tight bodice from a full skirt which also has an insertion of shirring. The veil will be fingertip in length made of illusion net, edged in lace and arranged from an orange blossom crown. For something old, the bride will carry a white lace edged handkerchief given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha C. Street. The bridal bouquet will be of white carnations, bouvardia and stephanotis surrounding a delicately arranged centerpiece of pink rosebuds. Small white satin streamers will cascade from the bouquet. Miss Davis will be given in marriage by her father.

In Pink and Green

Pale green and coral pink will be the colors of the gowns of the bride's attendants. All will wear identical rhinestone choekers, gifts of the bride. Mrs. Donald Brakey, sister of the bridegroom, will be matron of honor. She will wear a coral pink organdy frock with a slightly drooped shoulder effect, accented by two collars, and a full fashioned skirt. She will wear elbowlength net mitts that match her dress and on her head will be a halo of pink net and flowers. She will carry a round bouquet surrounded by pink net.

Miss Jean Estfield is maid of honor, and Miss Elen Reynolds and Miss Shirlee Reimann, bridesmaids. All will wear pale green organdy frocks identical to that of the matron of honor. They will wear pale green net mitts and halos of matching green net and flowers.

Miss Judith Hansen will be flower girl. She will wear a floor length dress of pastel yellow.

Daryl Willecke, former Oregon State college roommate of the bridegroom will be best man, and Walter Judd, Donald Brakey and Robert Goffrier will be groomsmen. Ushering the guests will be the bride's uncles, John P. Seitz and Kenneth F. Sides, also Robert Cook and Stewart Sharpnack.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Davis has chosen a powder blue crepe floor length gown. It is fashioned with an angel neck surrounded with a design of beading. The gown has quarter length Dallman sleeves. She will carry a Parisian handbag of pink and white beading, and her corsage will be of white gardenias and pink roses.

Mrs. Mann will wear a floor length rose colored gown with short sleeves adorned with sequins. Her corsage will be of roses and gardenias also.

At the Reception

The reception will be in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. The color scheme will be pink and white. At the punch table will be Mrs. Kenneth F. Sides and Mrs. Mildred Gwin, both aunts of the bride. Cutting the cake at the bride's table will be Mrs. John P. Seitz, assisted by Mrs. Desota W. Davis of Pendleton, Ore., and Mrs. Clifton B. Mudd. The bride's table will be covered with an imported white linen cloth and will be decorated with pink and white candles on each side of a floral arrangement. Mrs. Arthur Willecke and Mrs. Gene Brickwedel will be in charge of the gift table, assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Bartlett, Miss Doris Dierks, Miss Wilma Dunn, and Miss Alice Bailie. Passing the guest book will be Miss Ardith Combs. Loren Seitz, cousin of the bride, and Peggy Jewell will pass the dream cakes. Serving the guests will be Mrs. Stewart Sharpnack, Mrs. Leo Baton, Mrs. Troy McGown, Mrs. Floyd Riley, Mrs. Curtis Coe, Miss Betty Lou Edwards, Miss Marcial Stewart, Miss Margaret Forsythe, Miss Caroline Strohmeir, Miss Bernice Struckmeir, Miss Vera Jones, Miss Pearl Combs. Assisting about the room will be Mrs. Lee Cross and Mrs. Marion Curry.

For traveling the bride will wear a brown and beige suit accented with a small copper stripe. She will wear a plain white blouse with copper accessories.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 345 1/2 South Winter street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stoddard, Miss Trudi Schless and Charles Emerson left last evening on a 10-day motor trip to Reno, Lake Tahoe, San Francisco and a stop at the Oregon Caves en route home.

Visitors arriving Sunday will be Dr. and Mrs. William Parker and twin daughters, Cathy and Susan of Sacramento, who will be guests at the home of Dr. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker.

Mrs. James R. Phillips is to entertain Wednesday evening at a party and kitchen shower to honor Miss Miriam Shellenberger, who is to be married in August to Theodore Floock. Following the informal evening a late supper will be served.

Guests include Miss Shellenberger, Miss Barbara Sundet, Miss Suzanne Small, Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice, Miss Patricia Brock, Miss Gloria McClintock, Miss Barbara McClintock, Miss Jane Carson, Miss Margaret Newton, Miss Barbara Causey, Miss Mariann Croisan, Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, Mrs. Courtney Jones, Mrs. Edward Holstrom, Mrs. Budd Coons, Mrs. William Pettit, Mrs. Hubert Williamson.

Of interest to Salem friends is announcement of the approaching marriage of Mrs. Helen Norman of Portland to State Representative John Dickson, also of Portland, the wedding to be the first of October. Following the wedding the couple plan an extended trip through the east. Announcement of the coming marriage was made to local friends this week when the couple were here for some of the American Legion convention events. Mr. Dickson has served in several sessions of the legislature from Multnomah county.

Glenda Fravel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fravel, observed her fifth birthday today and was feted at an informal party given by her mother this afternoon at their home. Games were played and refreshments served. Ten little friends of the honoree were invited.