Softie Crucial Slated For Monday at Leslie

Mootry's Pharmacy and Papermakers, who have been waging a season-long battle for leadership in the Salem City softball circuit, clash at 8 o'clock Monday night on Leslie field in a game that might well decide the loop title and the local entrant in the state tournament at Eugene later this month.

Steelers Meet Corner Juniors In 'C' League

The undefeated Salem Steel and Supply company team of the Salem junior "C" league meets Four Corners at Four Corners Monday in a game that could put the Four Corners club, defeated in only one of six games, on top of the loop standings.

Truax Oilers tangle with Midget Market at Keizer, River Bend Sand and Gravel meets Master Bread and Elstrom's vies with Schreder Market in other "C" loop mixes. All games start at 8 o'clock.

DeMoss Snares Third Golfing Title

Portland, Aug. 8 (AP)—Graef De Moss of Corvallis held the Portland city women's golf trophy today for a third year and Tab Boyer of Portland claimed the men's silver a fourth time. For Miss De Moss it was three times in a row as she defeated Sue Huston, Portland, 8 and 6. Her putter worked neatly on the opening greens and she held the lead through the final play Saturday.

Boyer defeated Bob Dunden, also Portland, 2 and 1, in a match that wasn't over until the 15th. He was two down on the 18th, squared the play on the 27th and then held the deadlock until he sank a six foot putt on the 35th.

Saltzman Blanks Oaks As Bevos Divide Twin

Portland, Ore., Aug. 8 (AP)—The Oakland Acorns and Portland Beavers split a Pacific Coast league doubleheader Sunday, the Oaks dropping the opener, 1 to 0, and taking the seven-inning nightcap, 3 to 1.

Milo Candini notched his seventh mound win of the season in the second game, issuing four hits as starter Red Japhet Lynn took the Portland loss.

Oakland made all three in the first inning on Artie Wilson's

Double, two walks, a single and a double steal.

The split bill gave Oakland the series, five games to four. Hal Saltzman blanked the Acorns in the first game on seven hits. It was Saltzman's 16th win against nine defeats as Earl Jones took the loss, his third against seven victories.

The Stars completed their worst week of the season yesterday by losing both ends of a doubleheader to the Suds. Seattle got back into contention with a 3 to 1 and a 14 to 2 win over the leaders.

San Diego also won both Sunday games, whipping Los Angeles, 3 and 1, and 7 to 4. The other clubs split. Sacramento won the first one from San Francisco 2 to 1, but dropped the second game, 3 to 2.

Portland Girls Pace Oregon AAU Junior Olympics

Portland, Aug. 8 (AP)—Portland girls set the pace in the first Oregon AAU Junior Olympic games here Saturday to give the city's boys-girls team the top honors.

The girls won 11 to 18 girls' events and Portland leads four of the 23 boys' events while both were piling up 247 1/2 points.

Eugene lads paced the upstarters with 143 points. Wilkes, a small suburban area near Portland, was third with 107. Astoria was next with 58; Albany 21; Pendleton 19; Bend 16. Gresham failed to score.

Pendleton's 13-year-old Gary Guyl was top individual performer. He won the 50-yard sprint in 6.4 seconds and the running broadjump with a 15 foot, 3 inch leap in his age group.

Fireballer Bob Knight will perform hurling chores for Papermakers Monday, while either Jim Rawlins or Clancy Applegate will toss for the Druggists.

The crucial clash will be the second of three softy games slated for Leslie Monday night. An industrial league mix between Maple Dairy and Interstate Tractor opens the evening program at 6:30, then the Mootry-Papermaker contest at 8 o'clock and the 9 o'clock nightcap pits Golden Pheasant opposite Knights of Columbus in another City league game.

Promised Homer Yankee slugger Joe DiMaggio is congratulated by batboy and Yogi Berra as he scores on a homer in the fourth inning of the Yanks' first game with the St. Louis Browns at Yankee Stadium. This was the special clout DiMaggio promised to try to hit for 10-year-old Michael Rosenthal, who lies seriously ill in a New York hospital. (Acme Telephoto)

Bums Tie Cards, Yanks Fatten Up

George (Red) Munger got the Cards back on the win path as he stopped New York with seven hits, 9-2.

Boston broke a five-game losing streak by trouncing Chicago, 11-0 on Bill Voiselle's seven-hit batter but fell back into its tailspin in losing the second game in 10 innings, 4-3.

Dick Sisler helped the Phillies to a double triumph over Pittsburgh with a three-run pinch homer in the ninth inning to take the second game, 5-4, after the Phils won the opener, 7-3.

The New York Yankees continued to fatten their American league lead at the expense of the St. Louis Browns although they had to be satisfied with a 2-2 tie in the second game. They smothered the cellar club, 20-2, in the opener.

The Yanks now lead by 5 1/2 games. They are 6 1/2 games out front of Boston whose seven-game winning streak was broken by Detroit, 6-4.

Cleveland's hopes took a double jolt from the A's when Elmer Valo and Mike Guerra punched out the stiffest defenses. Guerra's three-run homer and fine relief pitched by Charley Harris saved Lou Brissie's 11th win, 5-4, in the first game. Guerra's two-run single enabled Joe Coleman to grab victory No. 10 from Al Benton in the second 4-2.

Art Houtteman celebrated his 22nd birthday by pitching Detroit to a 6-4 edge over the Red Sox, defeating Maurice McDermott, the sensational rookie southpaw.

Dom DiMaggio bunted safely in the first inning, running his hitting streak to 34 consecutive games.

Chicago split a pair with Washington, the White Sox taking the opener, 4-1 on Randy Gumpert's eight-hit pitching, and the Senators breaking a seven-game losing string to cop the second, 1 to 0 behind Rookie Lloyd Hittle.

Senators Aid Cap Pennant Drive

The 457 die hards who sat in on Sunday night's Salem-Vancouver doubleheader at Waters park were neither pleased nor surprised. The 11 to 1 and 6 to 5, as they continued to knock on the Western International league cellar door.

Vancouver thus gained a clean sweep in their five-game stand with the sorrowful Senators. It was 13 to 5 Saturday. Salem is idle Bremerton, and opens a series at Monday, Tuesday night.

A total of 27 hits were racked up off a trio of Salem pitchers in the twin bill. Stu Fredericks and Gene Peterson were nicked for 13 hits in the opener, and Bob Drilling was drilled for 14 safeties in the nightcap.

Four of Vancouver's hot bingles came off the red hot bat of Dick ($500) Sinovic, who has been causing his ex-teammates all sorts of discomfort since the higher-ups in the Senator front office peddled him to the Canadian club for a half "G" because they "couldn't find a place for him on the team."

In the five-game series just completed, Sinovic was credited with nine runs batted in and two homers. And in a recent series at Vancouver, the same Sinovic clubbed out a .600 plate performance opposite Salem's Bob Brown, Vancouver president, says the Sinovic deal is the best he's made since in organized baseball.

The Capitanos had little trouble disposing of the Senators in the first game. Their big inning was the fifth, when they pushed across five runs on three hits, a walk, a hit batter and a Salem error.

Mel Wansley gave the home-town fans one of their few opportunities to cheer when he waylaid one of Bob Snyder's pitches over the right field wall for a home run in the second inning. That was all the scoring Salem did in the ball game.

The second game started out as if it were to be just as big a rout as the first. Vancouver went to work on Drilling, and after only two innings, had chalked up five tallies on eight hits. Meanwhile, Salem got only a couple of horse-collars on the scoreboard.

The Canucks upped their lead to 6 to 0 as Sinovic socked one of the longest home runs hit in Waters park this season. His line drive jarred the Coca-Cola sign, which stands above and behind the fence, just to the left of the scoreboard.

Salem got back in the ball game in the sixth when they poked out four hits off Cap chucker Vern Kindsfater for four runs. The hits, all singles, were punched by Bob Cherry, Cal Melvin (who was playing first for benched Marty Krug), Orrin Snyder and Bob Drilling.

The home-owners closed the gap another run in the eighth on Melvin's single and Wayne Peterson's double.

Waters Repairs Hot Rod Wrecked In Holly Races

Don Waters was busily at work in his garage at the rear of 1545 Center street today repairing the damage done to the rear end of his '73' roadster Saturday night at Hollywood bowl.

Waters' hot rod, driven by Max Humm, was involved in a four-car pileup in the first heat race and had to be pushed to the pits. The car had made a clean sweep of the races the week previous, and had just won the helmet dash of Saturday's program when the mishap occurred.

The car is expected to be ready to roll again next Saturday.

Howard Osborne won the 25-lap main event of Saturday night's racing program.

Hillsboro Rates Final Berth in Legion Tourney

Albany, Aug. 8 (AP)—Hillsboro lined up today in a final berth for the Oregon American Legion Junior baseball title while one-time losers Vale and Byerly's of Portland play for the other berth.

Hillsboro's MacKenzie came from behind last night to defeat the Byerly's, 7 to 6, after winning an opening round game over Vale 4 to 2, Saturday night. Drain, after losing a first game to the Byerly's, 3 to 2, succumbed to Vale, 4 to 3, last night and dropped from the playoff.

The final will be Tuesday with a second game that night if necessary to determine the state entry in the regional tourney slated to open Friday in Portland.

Snead-Mangrum Eye First Place Tam Golf Cash

Chicago, Aug. 8 (AP)—A pair of tested golf veterans, leading money winner Sam Snead and defending Champion Lloyd Mangrum, were making a two-man race out of the All-American open at Tam O'Shanter today.

With each aiming at the $3,333 first prize, Mangrum held a one-stroke edge on Snead at the midway point of the 72-hole competition. He rolled around the links yesterday in a two-under-par 70 for a 134 total at the end of 36 holes, 10 under par.

But Snead, who has won three of the big four tournaments this season—the PGA, the masters and the western open—was hot on his trail. Sam had a first round score of 67 and yesterday he came home in 68 for a 135.

Both Mangrum and Snead did some scrambling to stay out in front of Herman Barrow, White Plains, N. Y., and Johnny Bulla, Vero Beach, Fla., each with 137, and Pete Cooper, Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla., with 138.

Lodi Grabs Major Grid Games Without College

The problems of running the average minor league baseball operation are growing — and apparently they are varied — by leaps and bounds.

It may be the stupidity of the executive; just plain carelessness — or just an accident, but look what happened in California during the past few days:

In the Sunbelt league — The Salinas franchise was transferred to Tijuana, Mex.

Apparently the Reno team, which was supposed to play Salinas, was not informed by the league president, and it appears that the players don't read the newspaper or listen to the radio, either. Anyway, the Reno team, which was playing in Mexicali, boarded its bus and drove 450 miles to Salinas for a Friday night game. Meanwhile, the Salinas team was on the field at Tijuana, waiting for Reno to show up. Tijuana is only 90 miles from Mexicali!

The teams all arrived at the right places and a few fans were on hand for each of the games. The only inconvenience, of course, was to the newspapermen, who had the schedules and playing dates all mixed up!

Oswego Defeats Salem Divoters Ted Scharbach of Oswego Country club fired a one-under-par 71 for medalist honors in a Salem-Oswego team golf match at Salem Golf club Sunday. The meet was won by the Oswego team 20 1/2 to 18 1/2.

Match score: Scharbach 6, Scharbach 3, Ingram 2, Jerrell 1, Alley 0, Latorrette 3, Albricht 3, Kansas 0, Paulson 2, Sterns 1, Estey 3, Kerry 0, Mapes 1, Murdoch 2, Johnson 2, Bennett 1, Clark 0, Williams 3, Osawa 1, Du Long 1, Watter 0, Carter 3, Rodas 2, Pickett 1, Gustaf 1, Shilenki 1.

Banks Team Gets Final Spot

Portland, Aug. 8 (AP)—The surprising team from Banks vaulted to Wednesday's state semi-pro baseball tournament final by posting a fifth consecutive victory last night.

Banks' manager Lenore Lyda allowed but one hit in hurling his team to a 4 to 2 win over previously unbeaten Reedsport.

Fighting it out for the other berth tonight and tomorrow will be the defending champions of Albany and the Portland Reliance and Albina Fuel teams.

Albany got a five run inning off Chuck Sauvain to start the rout of Silverton, winning 7 to 3 and edging the losers from the board, 3 to 1, and Albina did the same to Willamette by winning, 3 to 2, in eight innings.

That's strictly a major league schedule—with a couple of inter-sectionals thrown in

San Francisco, Aug. 8 (AP)—The quiet little city of Lodi, Cal., 20 miles south of Sacramento and without a full course college to call its own, probably will see more major league football this fall than half of the big cities of United States.

Lodi, with a population of about 15,000, likes to bill itself as the "grape growing capitol of the world." And to advertise that fact, the citizens apparently have chosen football as one of the most likely ways.
