Black, secretary, both of Salem; Al Hare, Portland and Paul Troeh, Walla Walla, vice presidents; O. B. Putnam, Albany; B. K. Werner, Coos Bay; Fred Stone, Corvallis; Thornton Sullivan, Everett; L. F. Ramsey, McMinnville, directors.

Silverton Old Timers Gather Indoors for Annual Picnic

Silverton—Karl Haberly was elected president of the Old Timers Picnic association in the third annual reunion at Legion hall Sunday, succeeding T. R. Hobart, with assisting officers for the coming year, Hugh Small as vice president and Dewey Allen as secretary.

This was the third consecutive time that the large group had been "rained in" from the city park, given the courtesy of the three rooms of Legion hall.

J. D. Drake was the principal speaker of the afternoon program. Miss Kathryn Loe, accordionist and W. R. Tomison in kilties, giving much appreciated bagpipe numbers, furnishing special musical selections. Others speaking briefly were Dan Geiser and Helen Hibbard-Paget. Harry Riches, Marion county agriculture agent, was program chairman. Around 150 attended the early afternoon picnic dinner and program.

The speaker, J. D. Drake, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Drake, his grandmother's maiden name was Milster, pioneers to the Marion county Silverton area, told of the hardships of the pioneers and of the numerous folk of this community who have made good in the activities of their country. Drake specialized in his interesting talk on the two families, the Davenport and the Geers and near relatives.

Among those listed as becoming more or less famous who were born in the Silverton community were Frank Bowres, cartoonist and news columnist; Homer Davenport, writer, cartoonist politically and otherwise, fancier and importer of Arabian horses and perhaps in more ways than any other citizen of Silverton, claiming the most widespread fame; Gov. T. T. Geer; James Buff, for more than 50 years a school teacher, general educator, philosopher, famous mathematician; Dr. L. J. Wolfe, with Peery's North Pole first expedition; Loyd Haberly, now in Massachusetts, world renowned writer and self-publisher of books, engraver and university instructor; Edwin Markham, famous poet, probably best known for his poem, "The Man With the Hoe." Marguerite Fischer (Pollard), stage and screen actress; Juanita Hansen, screen actress; teachers who are now in university groups, Ethel Smith, Louise Whitlock, Glenn Johnson; doctors, Dr. Blackery of Drift Creek, Dr. Davis of Evans Valley, Dr. Davenport of Waldo Hills, and Dr. Hutton of the Abiqua district; Circuit Rider Small, grand father of Matt Small; Timm W Davenport, father of Homer, writer, surveyor, engineer, headed syndicate column for Hearst papers; King Hibbard, grandfather of Helen Hibbard-Paget, held No. 1 donation land claim patent, and first No. 1 deed signed by President of the United States, Andrew Johnson; and members of the Silverton band, made up professional and trades community builders of no small ideals.

Honored guests Sunday for their educational work as teachers were Meda Hobart-Brandt, Stella Fisher-Blackery, Helen Hibbard-Paget and Iebela Hartman-Scott.

Ben Fleischman of Portland, Dan Geiser, Silverton, and Mrs. Pearl Blackery of Salem, also gave short talks and Mrs. Helen Hibbard-Paget read a poem.

Registering for Sunday's event were: Silverton, Harry L. Riches, Cathelene Riches, John Thurman, W. O. English, W. R. Tomison, Mrs. Oscar Loe, Kathryn Loe, LeVonne Loe, J. D.

Elfstrom Firm Prize Winner

The R. L. Elfstrom company was announced today as winner of first prize, $250, in the national window display contest conducted by the American Home Laundry Manufacturers' association as a feature of national home laundry week.

Judging was on the basis of geographical zones and by types of retail establishments.

The association, until recently known as the American Washer and Ironer Manufacturers' association, announced at its headquarters in Chicago that more than 5,000 retail display windows featuring the slogan, "For Family Washing, There's No Place Like Home," were shown during National Home Laundry week.

New Buick Special Introduced—New styling throughout, many engineering improvements and a completely new grille and bumper design are incorporated in the new Buick Special announced today. With Dynaflow offered as optional equipment, the low-priced Buick is long and sleek in appearance but three inches shorter over-all. Shown above is the four door six-passenger sedan.

SHORTER AND LOWER Buick Reveals New Special Model, Smaller Size

Flint, Mich., Aug. 8—Featured by a bumper and radiator grille design entirely new to the automobile industry, Buick's Special Series was introduced today with completely new styling and many engineering innovations.

Long and sleek in appearance, the new Special is three inches shorter in overall length on a wheelbase virtually the same as its predecessor which went out of production last December.

The new car retains the same solid, substantial appearance of its running mates—the Super and Roadmaster Series—with fundamental characteristics of Buick design presented in brand new dress.

Dynaflow, Buick's torque converter transmission, is available as optional equipment.

The new series is presented in two body styles and three models—a six-passenger four-door sedan, a six-passenger two-door sedan, and a three-passenger individualize the Special from a styling standpoint.

The Buick ventilports, a Buick development of last year which has been widely copied, are relocated in the Special and are ovals rather than circles. They are mounted in the hood instead of in the fenders as on the Super and Roadmaster series.

Although the car is lower than its predecessor, Buick engineers accomplished this without sacrificing ground clearance or head room.

Many changes are incorporated in the interior of the body, most important of which is the 12 inches additional width at hip level in the rear seat.

High on the list of engineering achievements is the design of the combined bumper and grille. Developed by Buick and offered on the Special for the first time, this innovation was accomplished by placing the vertical bumper grille bars forward of the single-piece bumper.

Two bomb-shaped bumper guards, which also house the parking lamps, are mounted on the bumper.

New also are sweeping fender and body contours which

Wonderful New Comfort

The Beautiful Chrysler | Silver Anniversary Model

New Yorker 4-door sedan with PRESTOMATIC FLUID DRIVE* TRANSMISSION—drive without shifting

New Wider Chair-Height Seats! We don't fold you up like a "jackknife." You sit comfortably in seats the height of your easy chairs at home. We've more headroom, legroom, and shoulder room for you. And no other car has ever been so completely engineered from the fundamentals up for your comfort, your convenience, your peace of mind.

New Easier Steering! In one of the great advances since the war, we give you new "center control" steering. For the first time, tie rods of equal length give you balanced control. There's no wheel fight. There's greater road stability, easier handling, less road shock. Yes, and greater safety, too—for everything about this car is designed for safer driving.

New Smoother Driving! Chrysler's mighty Spitfire engine now has still higher compression for faster acceleration, smoother response. And along with its better all-around performance goes an amazing new Waterproof Ignition System that's exclusive with Chrysler. You can drive through high water but it won't stall. You get quicker starting, even in dampest weather, smoother idling, longer life.
