

Engineers Design Wooden 'Iron Lung' Easy to Build

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 10 (AP)—A group of engineers, volunteering in the fight against polio, announced today they have designed a "wooden iron" lung that can be built in 24 hours from an inner tube, alarm clock, washing machine motor, plywood and other materials.

Widow Denies Wedding Plans

St. Louis, Aug. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Carleton Hadley, wealthy widow, today denied rumors that she would wed Vice President Alben Barkley within the next week or two.

She said she had heard rumors that she and the vice president would be wed in Paduch, Ky., next Sunday or in St. Louis a week later. Both, she said are false.

Barkley took Mrs. Hadley to a ball game here last Sunday and he also saw her at a party earlier.

Questioned before about the romance Barkley answered that Mrs. Hadley was "a very charming and lovely woman . . . a very nice friend."

Tetanus Drug Aids Farm Lad

Portland, Aug. 10 (AP)—A fourteen year old Gaston farm lad appeared today to be recovering from tetanus infection and lockjaw—thanks to experimental use of the drug myonescin.

University of Oregon medical school physicians reported Harry Forquer was well enough to demand a hot-dog yesterday and then a steak. He got the hot dog, but the steak must wait.

Physicians said the boy stepped on a rusty nail July 4 and developed symptoms of tetanus July 23. His body and jaw stiffened and his mouth was so rigid for two weeks he was fed intravenously.

Then the myonescin drug was used. It relaxed his muscles long enough so he could eat normally while anti-toxin combated the tetanus germs.

All Is Ready For State Fair

Construction and clean-up schedules of the Oregon State Fair are far ahead of schedule, Manager Leo Spitzbart reported this week.

"We have only a small amount of painting to do," Spitzbart continued, "and we will be ready to swing the gates open on the best state fair yet." The genial Spitzbart, in his 14th year as head man of the annual exposition, predicted a record crowd if good weather prevails through the fair week of September 5 to 11.

Gate admission will again be 50 cents, tax included, while children, 12 and under will be admitted free. Admission prices to the horse races, the combined horse show-ropo, and Helene Hughes evening stage production will remain at 1941 levels. Reserved and box seat ticket sales are now being held at the fairgrounds office while a portable ticket booth will be parked in downtown Salem during the week preceding Labor day.

Spitzbart anticipates slightly lower food prices and amusement charges during the 1949 exposition. Veteran concessionaires intend to reduce some charges, particularly for the amusement rides, as much as 20 per cent.

In line with last year's policy, free midway acts will again be a daily feature. A trio of high wire acts will form the basis of the show to be held four times daily in front of the horse show pavilion.

Expected to be extremely popular with the enthusiastic younger gentry and harried parents, is the newly constructed "Kiddieland." The latter area, entirely enclosed and furnished with awning covered benches, is designed for youngsters, 10 and under. The area also is resplendent with a new lawn and will offer the smaller amusement rides at substantially lower admission prices.

time and place will be arranged at the Friday meeting. All members of the club are urged to attend this luncheon.

Birthday Celebrated

Monmouth—Mrs. Berle Bagley entertained at a birthday party for her son, Robert's eighth birthday. Games were played and a large birthday cake was served out on the lawn. Those present were Tommy, Larry, Philip and Janie Harding, Ruthie Gunn, Michael Taylor, Jimmie Schroder, Edith and Truman Sommers, Mikie Brandon and Jimmie and Jerry Bagley.

Spaniels Locate Bodies of 2 Boys

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 10 (AP)—Gene Hulk and his two black Spaniels last night found pinned beneath a log raft, the bodies of two Douglas island boys missing since Monday morning. Dozens of law enforcement officers, Coast Guardsmen, volunteers and firemen had searched all day for Oscar "Chum"

Niemi, 12, and Ronnie Eilers, 8. The boys were last seen playing around the raft.

Hulk continued to search the area after the others had decided the boys were lost elsewhere.
