Taft Sees Plot To Exclude Him

Washington, Aug. 12 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) accused the democrats Thursday of trying to bypass him in a proposed new investigation of labor-management relations.

Taft told a reporter he thinks there is a definite move afoot among democratic members of the labor committee to leave him and other supporters of the Taft-Hartley act out of a proposed new inquiry group.

"If they try it—and they have given every sign they will—I'm going to fight it in the senate," the Ohioan said.

He said he and Senators Donnell (R-Mo.) and Smith (R-N.J.) who developed the bill which the senate passed as a substitute for the administration's Taft-Hartley repealer, weren't invited to join in sponsoring an investigation resolution now ready for senate action.

The resolution, setting up a $25,000 fund for an inquiry into labor-management relations—including the operation of the Taft-Hartley act—won approval yesterday of the senate rules committee. It previously had been approved by the labor committee over Taft's protests.

Senator Murray (D-Mont.), a vigorous opponent of the Taft-Hartley act, is expected to head the labor subcommittee. It would hold hearings and report to congress by next January 15.
