

Let $74,300 School Contract

Contract for the construction of a four-classroom addition to the Green Acres school by the board of school district No. 16 has been awarded to Harry Greenman, Lebanon Route 1, on a low bid of $74,300. The school is in the Lebanon district. High bidder was Claude Buerge, Albany with $95,922.

The contract calls for construction of a 70 by 170 foot addition which will house an office, multi-purpose room and boiler room in addition to the four classrooms. Construction will be frame with plywood, fiberboard, acoustical and asphalt tile in the interior. Glass block windows will be used and the roof trussed rafters with composition shingles.

Work on the heating system will include installation of a new boiler and unit ventilators for the existing three classrooms.

Liberty Picnic For Oldtimers

Liberty — A group of old time Liberty residents, former students of the old Liberty school house, met for a re-union picnic at the Liberty Hall. Dinner was served at noon and a general reminiscing over old school days.

A short business meeting presided over by J. C. Perry was held. The principal speaker was Bruce Cunningham, others speaking briefly.

Members coming the farthest distance to attend the picnic were Mrs. Francis Hrubetz Koromy, from San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Katie Mize-Hunting, from Chelalis, Wash. Besides Salem other towns represented were Aumsville, Eugene, Independence, Lebanon, Newberg, Oak Grove, Oswego, Portland, Redmond, and Scio.

9000 Long Tons of Grain Going to Japan

Seattle, Aug. 12 (U.P.) — Fifteen ships will be chartered from private firms this month to transport 9,000 long tons of grain to Japan, the Seattle port of embarkation announced Thursday.

In addition, another 10 government vessels will be used during August to carry partial loads of wheat on a berth term basis, a spokesman said.

The wheat shipments will be made from Seattle, Tacoma, Longview, Vancouver, Wash., Portland and Astoria, Ore.

Unionvale — An addition, 12 by 28 feet in size adjoining the north side of the residence, is being built at the Clyde Hoard home.
