

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Friday, August 12, 1949

Subscription Club Sets Dance Dates

Another reminder that the fall season is practically at hand with its busy schedule is announcement by the Subscription Dance club of its list of dance dates for the new year.

First dance for the group will be October 29. The other three schedule for the season include: December 31, February 11 and April 15.

The committee met last evening for a no-host picnic gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, the meeting being an annual occasion.

Officers of the club this year are John R. Caughell, president; Donald McCargar, vice president; Mrs. Werner Brown, secretary-treasurer.

Zontians Meet at Dinner Thursday

Forty attended the annual dinner given by Miss Mabel Savage for members of the Salem Zonta club last evening, the tables being arranged in the gardens at her home.

Mrs. Gladys Christenson of San Francisco was a guest. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. W. Land.

Next meeting of the club on the fourth Thursday of the month will be at the home of Mrs. Land as a dessert meeting and business session for the group.

Dinner for Wedding Party

Miss Miriam Shellenberger, who is to be married August 20 to Theodore R. Flook of Portland, is entertaining at a dinner this evening for all the feminine members of her wedding party.

The dinner will be at the home of Miss Joanne Fitzmaurice, who is one of the bridesmaids for the wedding.

Mr. Flook is entertaining in Portland this evening at a dinner for the men of the wedding party.

WOODBURN—Miss Marjorie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Green of Woodburn, and Douglas D. Priest, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Priest of Hubbard, were married July 11 at Everett, Wash. They returned to Hubbard August 1 where they will make their home.

Miss Peterson To Wed Soon

Albany — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Yvonne Elaine Peterson, to Verl Cox of Albany. The wedding will take place in the early part of September at Reno, Nev. After a two-weeks tour of southern California, the bride and bridegroom will be at home in Albany.

The prospective bride was graduated from high school in St. Paul, Minn., and is presently employed by the Credit Bureau, Inc., in Salem.

Mr. Cox attended Albany's public schools and is now salesman for the Pacific Fruit and Produce company in Albany.

Miss Lukins To Be Bride

Of interest to the college group is announcement of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Shirley Lukins, daughter of W. S. Lukins of Salem to Robert Steeves, son of Mrs. A. G. Rodgers of Shady Cove, Ore., and of the late Dr. Laban Steeves.

The wedding is planned for August 20 in St. Paul's Episcopal church. The news was revealed last evening to a group of school friends in Portland.

Both young people attended Salem schools and the University of Oregon. Miss Lukins is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at the university, serving the chapter as president. She is also an active member of the Salem Spinners club. Mr Steeves is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at the university and during the war served two years in the navy.

Miss Turner Is Bride Aug. 7

Lebanon — On Sunday afternoon, Aug. 7, Miss Claribel Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Turner of Lebanon, and Calvin Douglas Yoeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Yoeman of Waldport, were married at St. Edward's Catholic church with Rev. Carl Wachter officiating. White gladioluses were used as decorations throughout the church.

Mrs. Ralph Herron, at the organ, provided the wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Miss Nancy Trigg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace and carried a bouquet of white gladioluses and gardenias.

Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Mary Ann Turner. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Haynes and Miss Eileen Yoeman.

With the bridegroom as best man and ushers were his brother, Rodney G. Yoeman, Paul Alley, and George Ely, the latter of Salem.

The reception at the home of the bride's parents on River street, was attended by more than 80 guests.

After a southern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Yoeman will make their home in Independence.

The bride, a graduate of Lebanon high school, also attended Mt. Angel academy and Oregon State college. Her husband attended Salem high school and Willamette university and served in the navy during the war.

Many out-of-town guests from coastal points, Salem, Stayton, Scio and Eugene attended the nuptials.

Golden Wedding Event Next Sunday

Stayton — In celebration of their golden wedding, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allis will hold open house at their home here Sunday, August 14, from 2 to 5 p. m. Friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Ohio was the birthplace of both of the celebrants, Mr. Allis having been born there November 13, 1875 and his wife, April 24, 1877. W. B. Allis and Miss Elizabeth Willing were married at Cleveland, O., August 10, 1899. They came to Stayton in 1910, where Mr. Allis was a clerk in the old Thomas and Mayo grocery. He was later engaged in farming.

The couple had four children, two of whom have passed away. Miss Rose Allis lives at home with her parents and her brother, Henry Allis lives in

Their Weddings Prominent Events Saturday

Wedding Set For Aug. 21

Announced for Sunday, August 21, is the date for the wedding of Miss Mary Morgan of Salem and Donald G. DeLisle of Ashland.

The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon that date at the First Christian church, Dr. Dudley Strain officiating.

The reception following also will be at the church.

Marysville, Calif. There are also three grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Planning to be present for the golden wedding is the couple's grandson, Richard Spaniol of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Brides of August 6—Mrs. Norman E. Mann, at left, the former Mary Carolyn Davis, was married last Saturday evening at a service in the First Baptist church, a reception following. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey F. Davis of Salem and Mr. Mann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mann of Walla Walla, Wash. (McEwan studio picture.)

Mrs. John Phillip Maulding, at right, the former Margaret Jane Cooley, is pictured here in a formal pose in her wedding gown. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley. The impressive service in St. Paul's Episcopal church was followed by a large reception in the gardens of the Cooley residence. Mr. Maulding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maulding of Tillamook. Candid pictures of the wedding were published earlier in the week. (Jesten-Miller studio picture.)

DINNER GUESTS of Mrs. Ruth Cooper earlier in the week were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Meyer and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball and Miss Ruth East, all of Portland.

Guests From West Africa

Interesting visitors arriving last evening by plane from New York City are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sandilands and their three children and Dr. Sandilands' mother, Mrs. T. C. Sandilands.

The visitors are home for a year's furlough, Dr. Sandilands being a medical missionary and head of the Presbyterian hospital at Ebalowa Cameroon, French West Africa. He and his family have been there the past three years, his mother being there the past year.

The visitors will spend their time in Salem, Dallas and Seattle. Mrs. Robert Sandilands' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neufeldt, reside at Dallas, and Mrs. Alfred Quiring of Salem is her sister. Mrs. T. C. Sandilands' home is in Seattle and her son and family will spend part of the time there.

Last evening an informal reception for relatives was given at the Quiring home in greeting to the Sandilands family.

Presbyterian Aid

Woodburn—The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon in the church social room with Miss Martha Black presiding.

The meeting opened with group singing followed by the devotional service led by Mrs. E. C. Peyton. Mrs. Olive Smith led in prayer. The response to roll call was on miracles of the Bible.

Mrs. E. J. Allen was in charge of the program and gave an interesting Bible quiz and also told of her airplane trip to Flint, Mich. Mrs. Nellie Phillips told of her airplane trip to Washington, D.C. and return.

Mrs. J. J. Hall and Mrs. Harrie Nelson were appointed to decorate the church for next month.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Layman, assisted by Mrs. Peyton. Fifteen members were present.

B; and Mrs. G. C. Foster in Class C.

Lunch was served at the club house. A special guest was Mrs. Stella Say of Hillsboro.

Golf Event

Woodburn—Eighteen women golfers from the local golf club motored to the Forest Hills country club near Hillsboro Tuesday for a day of play and luncheon.

Winners in the play for the fewest number of putts were Mrs. Marion Henning in Class A; Mrs. Ivan DeArmond in Class

Engagement Announced—Recently announced was the engagement of Miss Lavina Harder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Unrau of Dallas, to Edward Friesen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Friesen of Independence. No date is set for the wedding. (Jesten-Miller studio photo.)

Miller's

Before You Go Back To School
Improve Your Problem Skin

FIRST AID for a blemished skin. The Cream to help dry, soothe and medicate the blemished area. The Lotion to be worn as a powder base, as well. Charles of the Ritz puts them together in one set called Medicated Duo—perfect to take back to school with you... ideal to begin using even before you go back.

$2.75 (plus tax)
Set consists of Medicated Cream and Medicated Lotion.

MEDICATED DUO
by Charles of the Ritz

FINEST OF DIAMONDS!
FAIREST OF PRICES!

TRADITIONAL
DIAMONDS
for BETROTHAL

the ultimate in the language of love!

DIAMONDS SAY:
"I Love You"

Like true love, diamonds are enduring. In their clear, pure facets lives the sparkle and fire that makes them the perfect symbol of eternal affection.

WE WELCOME YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

WHEN YOU GIVE A DIAMOND, YOU WANT TO KNOW THAT ITS QUALITY MATCHES THE LOVE IT EXPRESSES.

Such Are Stevens & Son Diamonds

Stevens & Son

JEWELERS - SILVERSMITHS

390 State St. Dial 3-8118

Livesley Building

Twins Wins!

NEW Laundromat NEW Clothes Dryer

Yeaer's Appliance Store — popular guardian of the famous Westinghouse Twins — announces the opening of their new store at 375 Chemeketa in the near future. Yeaer's pride in being the guardian of these famous twins has prompted them to invite all twins in this area to join them in the coming gala opening. They will give a radio and valuable prizes to many twins.

HERE'S HOW TO WIN:

Twins and parents of twins— just go to Bishop-Moderne studios at 520 State St. (opposite the Couri House). Each twin will be photographed FREE and the portrait will be made for entry in the big drawing to be held the night of the opening. Not a beauty contest... Not a personality contest... Nothing to buy... Merely be photographed at Bishop-Moderne anytime within the next two weeks. Open to all twins in this area between the ages of 1 to 99 years.

Watch Your Newspaper for the Grand Opening Date!

SALEM'S OLDEST EXCLUSIVELY APPLIANCE STORE

Yeaer Appliance Co.

255 N. Liberty Ph. 3-4311