It's the Crazy Summer Time — and so the Salem Women's Golf-Association Members Staged Annual Colorful Costume Day Event A week ago the Salem Women's Golf Association put on its annual summertime "Dress Up" day. And

Jesten-Miller studio picture

the flower girl will be Vicki Church.

Ferrel Covalt, Jr., is to be best man for his brother. The ushers will be Jerry McReal, Jim Williams, Richard Eckley, Bruce Boatman, Daye Cham-berlain and Bill Johnston.

A reception will follow the service.

Major and Mrs. Henry H. Marsden.

Jr. and their daughter and son, Elizabeth leave from Germany next Tuesday to fly back to the States, it is learned by Mrs Leon Perry, daughter of Mrs. H. H. Marsden, Sr. Major Marsden has been in Germany all the time since the American forces first went into that country except for two months' leave, and his family has been there the past three years. They are expected to ar-

A four-ball foursome event will feature the weekly day for Salem Women's Honoring Miss Phyllis Schnell, who is to be married September 2 to Robert hostesses Thursday evening at the group of 20 being invited.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. A. A. couple to be special guests at the hosts' elub group.

Strebig, Mrs. John S. Beakey and her

THERE WERE "Lady Satan," an Indian maid and a Hula Hula girl, too, among the "get-ups." This trio nonchalantly putting included, left to right, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Elmore Hill and Mrs. James L. Sears.

son, who is to be married August 27 to Kenneth A. Holmes of Albany, Miss Patricia Zosel is to entertain next Thursday evening, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Walter Zosel, the party to be at their Superior street home, Guests are bidden for dessert at 8 o'clock, an informal evening and linen In the group will be Miss Hutchison shower for the bride-to-be to follow. and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Hutchison, her sister, Miss Marcelline Hutchison and her aunt, Mrs. H. J. Plumer; Miss Sally Smith, Miss Diane Proctor, Miss Lola May Windecker, Miss Jean Doo-little, Miss Marion Sparks, Miss Hazel Munson, Miss Barbara Smith, Miss Patricia Powell, Miss Patricia Zahare, Miss Beverly Gustafson, Miss Martha Du-Rette, Miss Donna Whitely; Mrs. Dorothy Jones and daughter, Miss Beverly Jones, both of Seattle, who are house guests at the Zosel home, and Mrs. Zosel and Miss

Mrs. William Walsh was hostess to-day at Coos Bay at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's Coos Bay yesterday and today to take in the Pirates club festival there.

Next week they plan to be at the Tillamook county fair and on Saturday next will attend the festivities in conjunction with the opening of the new Columbia river highway route.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Majek and daughter, Miss JoAnne Majek, leave Sunday on an interesting motor trip to park, Chicago, Niagara, Ontario, Que bec, Portland, Maine and New York City Majek will attend the 90th annual conthe company and qualified for the meeting on production the past year. After leaving Atlantic City, the Majeks will stop in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Va., and come west by way of Salt Lake City planning to be home about Octo

Late August Weddings Planned

Miss Barbara Schultz of Forest Grove has been asked to be maid of honor for the wedding and the bridesmaids will be Miss Janice Middleton and Miss Alice Girod, the latter a sister of Mr. Girod.

his brother. Asked to serve as ushers are Earl Cooley, Robert Singleton, Gene Fowler and LaVern Hiebert.

The reception following the service the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Girod.

day, August 28 will be that of Miss Joan the First Congregational church, the Rev. Charles Williams of the West Seattle Congregational church, and an uncle

William Bush is to be soloist for the

Miss Frances Baum and Miss Gayle

Mrs. John A. Long is to be matron of maids are Miss Marian Carson, Miss Vir-ginia Lewis and Miss Beula Arnold, Johnny Long, nephew of Miss Hoereth, is to be the ring bearer and serving as Juve are to be the taper lighters.

of Mr. Covalt, to officiate.

Covalt-Hoereth

Miss Halvarson is the daughter of Mr.

Howard Girod will be best man for Late August but continues the inter- Lighting the candles will be Mrs. Meresting parade of weddings, and enter- ritt Wood of Mayfield, Wash., and Miss

Holmes, is announcing members of the 8 o'clock the evening of that date in the Goodenberger officiating. Soloist for the wedding will be Robert Gwinn and Miss Ellen Reynolds and Miss Kath-

Miss Marcelline Hutchison is to be and Mrs. Fred Halvarson and Mr. Girod

Hardin Holmes will be best man for his brother and ushering will be Keith groom-elect. Thomas Edwards and Rus. The reception following is arranged at the church also.

Miss Hutchison is the daughter of Miss Hoereth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Hoereth and Mr. Covalt the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrel Covalt Holmes is the son of Mr. and Mrs G. Glenn Holmes of Albany. service and at the organ will be Jean nounced by Miss Barbara Halvarson. She is to be wed Sunday, August 28, to Stanley Girod, the ceremony to be at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the First hodist church with the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

costumed players. And what a wonderful and awesome sight it was when the group came in off the course for luncheon and the costume judgina! Costumes were varied and certainly veered to the "original" and "unus what an occasion! But a "good time was had by all."

There may not have been too much golf—that is, among the elaborately

Some of the startling numbers are pictured on the society pages today.
You may have to study some of the "characters" closely to make sure the name matches the picture-anyway each told us who she was—we hope!

By Marian Lowry Fischer

TTRACTING much interest is the fashion show event for which the Salem Delta Gamma alumnae are to be sponsors on Thursday, August 25, at the American Legion club, Modeling the new fall fashions from Esther Foster's will be Miss Inie Lou Wilhelm of Portland, president of the Willamette chapter of Delta Gamma; Mrs. S. D. Wiles, Mrs. Leon Perry, Miss Joan Voigt and Miss Faye McPhee.

Mrs. James T. Brand is to be guest commentator for the group. For the program, Eldon Caley is to sing with Miss Marian Carson as accompanist The luncheon will be at 1 p.m. Reservations for the party may be called to Mrs. James Schuler, general chairman. The alumnae are sponsoring the affair for the benefit of the Willamette chapter of the sorority.

Misses Sara Louise and Margaret Smith, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. G. Her-bert Smith, will be leaving September 8 for an interesting year away, both to Miss Sally will go to Randolph-Macon Women's college in Lynchburg, Va., as a junior, having completed two years at Willamette university here. Miss Margie is to enter DePauw university at Greencastle, Ind., as a freshman, having graduated this past spring from Salem high school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Shubert were hosts last evening at a dinner at Silver Creek Falls lodge, inviting the guests later to their home for cards.

Being welcomed to Salem is Mrs. Cecil Edwards who arrived recently from Po-mona, Calif., to join Mr. Edwards who at home at the former Jim Burrell home Mrs. Edwards is known professionally as Gladys Brown, and is widely recognized for her sculptoring. Her subjects are almost exclusively horses, dogs and oring Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Lee U. Eyerly is entertaining Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs. Oscar Liudahl will be hosts at their home next Saturday evening, August 20, at a dinner to honor their daughter, Miss Donna Liudahl, and her fiance, John W. Holmstedt, Jr., of Paxton, Neb. The dinner will follow rehearsal for the Holmstedt-Liudahl wedding, which is to take place the afternoon of August 21.

Some 20 will be in the group, including members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests, also Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmstedt, who will arrive Thursiay from Paxton, Neb., for their son's

Mrs. Don Stupka entertained at her West Wilson street home this week at a gust 20 to Clifford M. Campan.

Bidden to fete Miss Forman were Mrs. W. C. Inman, Mrs. Adam Hertz, Mrs. Velson, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. Winifred Heidler, Mrs. Grant Schaffner, Mrs. P. W. Geiser, Mrs. A. G. Forman, Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Miss Edith Reinwald, Miss Everlyn Forman,

the engagement of their daughter, Miss Darline Bull, to Robert C. Hjort, son of Mrs. H J. Hjort. No date is set for the wedding but it is planned as an October event. The bride-elect attended Ontario schools and is employed at the telephone company. Mr. Hjort attended Salem schools and is with the Standard Oil

Miss Norma Jane Cass, who is to be of Pasadena, Calif., will be honor guest for a miscellaneous shower for which Miss Mavis Eggens and Miss Ramona Evans will be hostesses next Friday evening at the Eggens home. The evening will be spent informally and late refreshments will be served.

The guest list includes: Miss Cass, and from Portland: Miss Betty Canter,

Mrs. Jack Over, Miss Lois Johnson, Miss Betty McCurdy, Miss Jane Laselle, Miss Isabelle Jones, Miss Dorothy Meade, Miss Gayle Monnett, Miss Barbara Aler of the bride-elect, Mrs. Clifton Cass, Miss Catherine Williams, Miss Peggy Burroughs, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. E. H. Eggens, Miss Velma Davis, Mrs. Don Dill; from Forest Grove, Mrs. Richard Givens, Miss Jini Shelton, Misses Hazel and Evelyn Davidge: from Albany, Miss Janice Fisher and Mrs. Lewis Sturges; from Beaverton, Miss Elaine Bowman; from Tillamook, Miss Shirley Long; from Woodburn, Miss Beverly Hughes; from Aumsville, Miss Bonnie Klein; from Corvallis, Mrs. Donald Smith: from

Jesten-Miller studio picture

HERE YOU DO some good guessing on who is who. According to the record given Mrs. W. T. Waterman, Mrs. Richard Chastallo is gladiator, 'twas really a sight.

MONG hosts next week will be Lt. Col. and Mrs. Mark Hillary who are entertaining at dinner Thursday evening at the American Honor guests are Col. and Mrs. Charles B. Eggens of Vancouver Barracks and Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Goldsberry, who recently came to Salem from Medford. Covers will be marked for 22 at the Invitations were received the latter part of the week for the wedding of Miss Margaret-Jane Emmons and John Syme of Parma, Idaho.

The ceremony will be solemnized the evening of Thursday, September 1, in the First Preabyterian church at 8:30 o'clock, the reception following also to be at the church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl W. Emmons of Salem, Mr. Syme the son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Syme of Parma, Idaho. Miss Emmons returned this week-end after several weeks directing Camp Kilowan for Camp Fire Girls. Tomorrow Miss Emmons and her mother will go to Portland for two days. mons, grandmother of the bride-elect, who, with her dan hier, Miss Lunie Emmons, came west from Lockport, Ill. for the wedding, the two at pre ent be-Emmons, Miss Lulu Heist. Miss Emmons will be honored at a party for which Mrs. Earl Cooley will ntertain next Friday.

ing in Portland visi ing a sister of Mrs.

A daughter, who has been named Mary Kathryn, was born Monday Au-gust 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott Halstead in Portland. Grandparents are Mrs. Haltead being the former Betty-Gene Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Halstead of Portland are the paternal grand

Hunter-Jones Rites Today

Bride at a garden ceremony solemnzed this afternoon was Miss Betty Lou

The bride's mother wore a navy sheet Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. gown with navy accessories and corsage Golden of Hillsboro, will be solemnized ized this afternoon was Miss Betty Lou gown with navy accessories and corsage. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne R. Jones, who was married to Charles aunt of the bridegroom, was attired in a o'clock in the Seventh Day Adventist Hunter of Sonoma, Calif., the service brown suit with brown accessories and taking place at 2 o'clock at the Jones residence with Rev. Samuel H. Jones Reception Follows officiating. White satin ribbons in long loops, Pink and white gladioluses formed caught with tiny nosegays of lilies of the the aisles to the garden setting, the ceremony taking place before trellises tairway down which the bride came to for the background with baskets of the enter the garden, and pink begonias in Bernard Phillips played the organ home. music and Bertram Sturm was the so-

In White Marquisette The wedding gown was of white marquisette, designed with round neckline, cape sleeves with bands of organdy emsame organdy flowers in the full floor length skirt. The fingertip veil of nylength skirt. The fingertip veil of nylength skirt. The fingertip veil of nylength skirt. For her going away costume the same organic flowers and black and took charge of the same organic flowers. broidered flowers and bands of the lon net was arranged from a headdress of pearls. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of pink roses, white designed with a bertha, puffed sleeves and a peplum. She wore flowers in her hair and carried a nosegay of pink roses ley E. Hodgen of Santa Barbara, Calif. and lilies of the valley.

Young Miss Janice Jones was junior bridesmaid for her sister. She wore a hooped skirt. She wore a wreath of Russell E. Martin of Sonoma, Calif., was best man for his nephew and usher-ing were Robert Jones, brother of the bride wore a navy blue suit and top coat, white accessories and orchid corsage. The couple will live in San Jose, Calif. Jones gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Neil Hamilton as matron of honor wore a blue slipper satin gown, honor wore a blue slipper satin gown, of Portland, grandparents of the bride; of Portland, grandpa

A reception followed the service.

Smilax and white freesias encircled the wedding cake, the bride's table being the cake and Mrs. Glen Langren presided at the punch bowl. Miss Bar-bara Jones, a cousin of the bride, passed organza, and Miss Beverly Costello in yellow pastel organza, are to be the bridesmaids, each to carry a nosegay of flowers contrasting with her dress.

Norman McDonald will stand with

Mr. Golden as best man and serving as and Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Martin bf Sonoma, Calif., uncle and aunt of Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Scott and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Scott of Davis, Calif, return this week-end from a few days motor-trip in the Hood Canal country. The younger Scotts will be in Salem during younger Scotts will be in Salem during carnations, and the bridegroom's mother the coming week for a visit here.

The reception following is to be at Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

J. Harold Davis, to Charles F.

The Orpha Thomas is to serve the cake. Mrs. E. L. Kuebler is to pour. Assisting will be Miss Doris Golden, sister of the bride-groom, Miss Stella Radke, Mrs. Fred Mathis, cousin of the bride, Miss Janette o'clock in the Seventh Day Adventist church with Elder A. J. Gordon officiat-Wheeler, Miss Doris Kuebler, Miss White and yellow gladioluses are to Vivian Campbell, Miss Margaret Gray. White and yellow gladioluses also will decorate the church. Leslie Hull is to sing and Miss LeBreta Logan will be be used in decorating the home for the Lighting the tapers will be Miss Mar-jorie Brath, wearing a taffy colored gown, and Miss Janice Horner in blue. The bride will wear a wedding gown of cream colored satin fashioned with a yoke of Chantilly lace, a low waisted bodice that comes to a V in front, long sleeves coming over the hands and a flared skirt. The veil is fingertip length and for her flowers the bride will carry a bouquet of white carnations and step-hanotis with orchids in the center. Mr.

a green pastel organza gown and her

Miss Mary Davis, sister of the bride, is

Davis is to give his daughter in marriage

For traveling the bride has chosen and green accessories and will wear an

The couple plan a trip to Victoria, B. Wash., after September 20, Mr. Golden, to continue his work at Walla Walla college. The bride also is a former student of Walla Walla college.

Gaiety Hill Garden club members have group to tour Chase Gardens there. The members will leave in the morning and will take their picnic lunch and will spend the day there.

The United Commercial Travelers auxiliary is to meet Wednesday for a salad luncheon and informal afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. F. Bagan, 490 Wing street, at 1 o'clock.

Etotka club has planned its annual summer picnic for next Tuesday, August 16, at 1 pm. in Champoeg park, the dinner to be a no-host one. Members wishing to arrange about transpor-will be made for the picnic to be given the club next Friday evening, August Miss Jane Carson is chairman for the pienic committee Mrs. Gavle Besse Mrs. Frank Turner are co-hostesses for Monday night's meeting.

Down a carpet of white to an altar decorated with gladioluses in pastel col-ors and palms, Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Kingwood Bible church in West Salem, Miss Iris Proudfit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Proudfit of Hollywood drive, and Wilbur Levi Friesen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Friesen of Salem, walked to exchange their mared at the double ring ceremony. The church was lighted only with candles, Singing before the ceremony were Win-ton Zimmerman and Miss June White. Mrs. Ruth Ratleff was the organist.

Lighting the candles were the brother and sister of the bridegroom, Clifford and Leona Friesen. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her wedding gown was of all white marquisette in lily and orchid pattern. It was made with a high net yoke edged in lace, fingertip eleeves and train. The veil was of net and fell from a haloband. The bride wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of stephanotis surrounding a white orchid. The maid of honor, Miss Beth Hamilton, wore a white marquisette gown like that of the bride, only the orchids were in colors. The bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Keppinger and Miss Shirley Bosell, wore gowns of pale yellow and green marquisette, made like that of the bride's. All wore hats and mitts of the same material. They carried nosegays of small flowers. The little flower girl, Cail Sharkey, also wore a gown like that of the bride. The ringbearer was Michael Barham, three-year-old nephew of the bride. The dress of the candlemade in the same style as those of the attendants and she wore a headband and groomsmen were Emil Veer and Robert Kliever. Ushers were Marvin Lowen and Clifford Schmidts.

Mrs. Proudfit wore an afternoon dress of lavender with navy accessories and accessories. Their corsages were of tephanotis and carnations.

The couple greeted the guests at a reception in the church parlors with Mrs. Clifford Schmidts introducing to the receiving line. Playing for the hour was Miss Leona Van Tasse At the bride's table Mrs. Paul Bar-ham, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake and serving were Miss Patricia Skaggs and Mrs. Arlo Fast, an aunt of bride's cousin. Mrs. Arlo Young, and the Mrs. George Friesen. Assisting about the rooms were the bride's cousins, Misses Donna Proudfit, Thelma Proudfit, Geraldine Proudfit and Mrs. Norma Rae Spencer. Passing the guest book was Miss Mary Lou Houser and at the Delores Friesen and Betty Friesen. When the newlyweds left for a trip slipper satin dress with navy accessor-The bride is a graduate of Salem high school and both are graduates of Salem Bible college. They will live in Salem.

Salem Central WCTU has planned its annual trip to the Children's Farm home chartered a bus to leave Salem at 10 a. m. Those interested are asked to call Mrs. H. R. Mitchell, 25250 for reservations. Each member is to take her picnic lunch and table service. Coffee will be

Richard Elder, Joseph and Felix Fan-

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs.

Tanner is to wear a rose colored dress denias. The bridegroom's mother will

The reception following also is to be with light gray hat and corsage of gar be attired in aqua with gray accestello, all of Enumelaw, Wash.

At Reception

IT'S PROBABLY TOPSY at the left, but she said she is Mrs. Charles Musser, while

Miss Lanner to Be Bride

the scene for a wedding Sunday after- be lavender fans with lavender asters. ter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tan- is to be best man. The ushers will be of Eureka, Calif., the ceremony to be solemnized at 4 o'clock with Dr. Dudley Strain and Rev. Walter Naff officiating. and lavender gladioluses.

to be soloist and Mrs. Walter Naff will be at the organ.

Lighting the candles will be Misses Doris and Patricia Hale, both wearing in the church. Pouring will be Mrs. Walter Naff and Mrs. Dudley Strain. frocks of white marquisette over lavender and green.

To be given in marriage by her fath-Mrs. Floyd McFarlane of Dayton is to serve the cake. Miss Darlene McFar-lane of Dayton is to have charge of the satin. It is fashioned with nylon yoke guest book and Misses Lucille Proctor long pointed sleeves with buttons on the and Jeanne du Buy will have charge cuffs; fitted bodice, and full skirt with of the gifts. Assisting in serving will bustles at the sides, and extending into a long train. The fingertip veil of net be Miss Berna McDonald, Miss Betty Richey, sister of the bridegroom, Miss is arranged from a seed pearl crown and orange blossoms at either side. For June Haugen, Mrs. Marjorie Syracuse her flowers the bride is to carry a bou- and Miss Lois Laudahl. During the rean orchid in the center. Three Attendants violin numbers, accompanied by Fredrick Wilson. Miss Mary Scott as maid of honor For going away the bride is to don will be gowned in a lavender mara two-tone brown suit with beige hat, quisette dress with matching picture hat and mitts. Her flowers will be white asters and bouvardia arranged on a fan brown gloves, other accessories being in avacado green, and her orchid from the bridal bouquet. Miss Norene Flagg of Vancouver and The couple will be at home in Moscow, Idaho, this year, Mr. Richey to maids, their gowns to be of green mar-

by many Salem friends last evening was that of Miss Barbara Ann King and Donald E. Crouch, the ceremony being solemnized at 8 o'clock in St. Michael's and All Angels Epis-copal church with the Rev. George Turney officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. King who resided in Salem for many years, leaving for Portland two years ago. The bride was graduated from local schools and has been attending University of Oregon. Mr. Crouch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Crouch of Portland and also has been attending University of Oregon ollowing service in the air force during

> The church aisle and altar were decorated with summer blooms for the wedding, also lighted tapers. Henry Hewitt was soloist for the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the ride wore a white summer faille gown. The three-tiered collar had edging of old lace on each tier, and the gown was fashioned with a very full skirt and chapel length train. The illusion veil was arranged from a high seed pearl crown and was edged in French lace. For her flowers the bride carried a cascading bouquet of white begonias cen-tered with a white orchid.

Miss Suzanne Huegins of Salem was honor attendant. She wore a pastel yellow gown similar to the bride's in style. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Ray of Salem and Miss Patricia Cook of Portland, both in pastel green, Miss Marilyn Morse of Astoria and Miss Janet Paulsen of Seattle, in lavender The gowns of all four were identical in style to that of the maid of honor, All five attendants carried bouquets of be-gonias in copper, deep gold and deep Lorin Hewitt of Tacoma was best man for Mr. Crouch. The ushers were Donald H. Stanton, Blaine Vincent, Robert Ellis of Portland and Lee Wimberly of Roseburg.

Among those assisting at the recep-tion were Miss Charlotte Alexander, Miss Joanne Blaxall, Miss Roberta Tussing and Mrs. Harvey Loveall, all of Salem Miss Joanne Preble, Miss Jean Armstrong, Miss Betty Jo Hansen and Mrs. Donald H. Stanton, all of Portland, For traveling the bride wore a white silk print dress with white gabardine topper, wine and white accessories and the couple will be at home at 831 S.W. Vista, Portland, after August 22.

Miss Mary Morgan, bride-elect of Donald G. DeLisle of Ashland, is announcing members of her wedding day afternoon, August 21 at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Morgan of Salem, Miss Morgan will be given in marriage by her father.

She has asked her sister-in-law to be her matron of honor. The Misses Elvi of Eugene are to be bridesmaids. Little Miss Diane Lee will be flower girl and Phillip Perlman ring bearer. Misses Gwen Chase of Springfield and Oria Deedon of Amity will light the tapers. Miss Allene Amacher of Hillsboro will be the soloist. Mrs. John Schmidt, Jr., will be at the organ. Earl De Lisle of Klamath Falls will be his brother's best man. Ushers will be William Morgan of Corvallis, brother of the bride, and Jack Merriott of Eugene. To close the aisles will be Ralph

Morgan, Jr., brother of the bride, and The reception will be held at the church. Mrs. Grant Fallin will intro-duce to the line. Having charge of the guest book will be Misses Barbara Daleiden and Joan Lockhard of Eugene, Mrs. Conrad Lee, cousin of the bride, will be in charge of the gifts, Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson will cut the cake. Mesdames Rex Putnam and M. C. Buchanan will pour. Assisting in the serving will be Mesdames Calvin Stewart of Stayton and Eugene Lee of Aumsville cousing Patricia Zosel, Jean du Buy, Donna Johnson, Pat Zahare and Lucile Proctor.

The finance and auditing committee of the Salem Business and Professiona Women's club is meeting Monday, 7:36 Cyril Nachtsheim of Enumelaw, Wash., Sue Booch, 517 Knapp.

> A wedding for Sunday, August 21, will be that of Miss Eleanor Francisco and P. William Neufeldt, the cerer to be solemnized at 2 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. George H Swift officiating.

Miss Francisco is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Francisco and Mr. Neufeldt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.

K Neufeldt, all of Salem. Robert Neufeldt is to be best man for his brother. Ushers will be Roy and Ed Neufeldt, brothers of Mr. Neufeldt, be, and Miss Marie DeHarpport. Solothe organ will be Mrs. Grace DeHarpception, Philip Blakenship is to play the church parish house.

Among those to be in Hood River tomother, Mrs. Effie Mudd of Salem, his Bronson, Kan., and his uncle, Verne

The wedding is to be at 3 o'clock Suncomplete his work at the University day afternoon in the Baptist church at Hood River.