Mulligan Stands Pat; Eugene NOT Interested in WIL

Portland, Ore., Aug. 13 (U.P.) -General Manager Bill Mulligan of the Portland Beavers today was standing pat on his offer to sell the Salem Sena-tors of the Western International league for a reputed

$100,000. Mulligan did not state a specific asking price for the Salem farm club, but reports here indicated he would sell for "about $100,000." Mulligan said the Senators had been costing the Portland team about $80.000 annualler, and earlier in the week announced he would either seil the club, or move the franchise to some other town and chise to some other town and selt the ball park at Salem.

Mulligan so far has not received an offer which comes close to matching his asking price for the Salem team.
Reportedly the highest bid received so far from Salem has been in the vicinity of $60,000, far less than Mulligan wants for the club.
There has been much talk

There has been much talk of moving the club of Eugene, however, it was also reported that Eugene residents weren't much interested in a Western International league fran chise unless Salem stayed in the league. There has also the league. been talk of moving the franchise to Wenatchee, Wash., but Wenatchee still has a WIL franchise and has failed to pay
