Portland Splits with Coast League Leaders

San Francisco, Aug. 15 (0.8)—The Hollywood Stars could thank their lucky Angels today for some timely hitting and pitching in yesterday's Pacific Coast league games. The league leaders themselves could do no better than a split, but the bottomcrawling Los Angeles Angels pulled down the Sacramento Solons twice. All the other clubs split Sunday bargain bills.

Hollywood dropped the open-er to Portland 8-3, but salvaged the second one 7-1. Oakland beat Seattle 7-0, and then fell 3-2. San Francisco got by San Diego 9-3 and then got bopped 3-2. The Angels dropped Sacra to five and one half games behind the Stars by win ning 7-3 and 3-1. The second game was a 12-inning thriller that saw Sac hurler Ken Holcombe's win streak snapped at

In the first one Los Angeles jumped on Frank Dasso for four first inning runs and then held to that lead. Lee Anthony went the route for the angels and gave up only seven hits. Cliff Aberson marked the first inning the seven hits. sparked the first inning rally with a three-run home run.

Holcombe pitched good society Note: enough ball to win his 11th daho Grid Star straight and 18th of the year, but instead got his sixth loss. The Sacs led 1-0 in the ninth, but Los Angeles tied it and then got two more runs in the 12th. Cal McLish and Ken Gables held the Solon batters to seven

Portland bombed three Star pitchers for 15 hits in winning the first one, but could only solve Gordon Maltzberger for three in the second. One of those was a home run by Leo Thomas. Dr. Frank Dierickx was the

Frank Nelson baffled Seattle with seven hits to win his 11th game in the first contest in the north, but the Rainiers beat Milo Candini in the second one. Herb Karpel was the winner, giving up seven hits. The San Francisco Seals looked like cinchs to win two games, but faltered in the last inning of the second one. The seals blasted Lyman Linde for seven hits and five runs in the fourth inning of the first one to cincl it and led 2-1 in the top of the seventh of the second. With two down Harvey Storey lofted to Walt Judnich, but the veteran outfielder made the Seals fourth error of the game and Storey wound up on second. A following single and a triple gave the
