

Born of the Storm

By SIDNEY B. CARTER

(Chapter 26) Priscilla was startled. "Tell me that happened." "I don't know," she said lethargically. "What happened? They started yelling at him and I got scared and hid under the staircase." "Oh!" Priscilla was so annoyed at the child's dullness she wanted to slap her, but there would have been no justice in that. You could not slap a child for having been born stupid. She walked down the hall to Kenneth's room and crept into it.

He was not quite asleep. "Kenneth," she said gently. "Tell me that happened." "I don't know," she said lethargically. "What happened? They started yelling at him and I got scared and hid under the staircase." "Oh!" Priscilla was so annoyed at the child's dullness she wanted to slap her, but there would have been no justice in that. You could not slap a child for having been born stupid. She walked down the hall to Kenneth's room and crept into it.
