

Youth Steals Flower Show Of Silverton Jaycettes

Silverton—Competitive and non-competitive horticultural displays and arrangements in artistry of form and color combination, characterized the second annual Jaycette Summer Flower Show Saturday late afternoon and evening at the First Christian church basement social rooms. Mrs. W. E. Grodrian, general chairman of plans assisted by Mrs. Bob Edgerton and other members of the club. The attendance was unusually large.

Winning sweepstakes in the junior division was a seven-year-old girl, and for the adults a 16-year-old senior student in Mt. Angel Academy.

Marcella Wavra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Wavra of 112 North James avenue, though only seven years of age, was awarded first, second and third on one entry, a 15-inch tall arrangement of Cecil Bruner rosebuds in a copper bird stand. She also took second place on a red dahlia display, totaling her winning junior sweepstakes points.

Miss Delores Gosso, making the adult class-age group by a mere year, the 15-year-olds in the junior division, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gosso of the Silverton suburbs. She was awarded 20 points in the artistry of arrangement division, and 21 points in horticulture.

Ernest R. Ekman showed colored movies of "Wings Over the Orient" as an evening entertainment feature.

Judge were from Salem, Mrs. Joe VanCleave and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole.

The sweepstakes adult winner, Miss Gosso, made three beautiful entries in special division table arrangement with one, a swan of white flowers, and another, three ducklings with flower heads, each on a mirror simulating a pond. The latter drew a first. Mrs. Henry Pritzlaff scored second award in the specials for tables in two gorgeously arranged table bouquets of all white blossoms.

Garden clubs represented in the show were Mt. Angel, Labish of Brooks, and Audubon, winning awards, of the five clubs having entries.

Washburn Purchases Garage and Station

Stayton—The Loris Trask garage at the eastern city limits on Highway 222 has been purchased by Henry Washburn, who has been service manager for the Herrold-Philippi Motor company for the past five months. Washburn purchased the building from John Christensen and started operation of the business last week. Mr. and Mrs. Washburn and their small son live about three miles out of Stayton on the Aumsville route and came here originally from Albany.

six little maids from school are we members of johnson's junior fashion board

Hi! I'm MARY SUNDET and I attend Salem High. I'm 15 years old, 5'3" tall and weigh 115 pounds. My hair is brown and so are my eyes and I like to collect popular records. The week of August 22 to August 27 I'll be in JOHNSON'S and expect to show you lots of back-to-school clothes JOHNSON'S have assembled for us. Look me up!

Mary Sundet

This past summer I had the thrill of flying to the Hawaiian Islands... and loved it. As a matter of fact, when people ask me what my hobby is I tell them swimming... and hula dancing! Perhaps we've met... my name is MARIANNE BONESTEEL. I'm 19, 5'6" tall and have brown eyes, brown hair. I'll be at Oregon State college soon, but I'll be at JOHNSON'S the week of September 12 to 17 and there are many new back-to-school fashions I'd like you to see.

Marianne Bonesteel

I'm CAROLE BARR. I go to Sacred Heart Academy and I'll be at JOHNSON'S from August 15 to August 20. So you'll know me... I'm 16, about 5'6" tall, have brown hair and hazel eyes. I love cheer-leading, dancing, Mel Torme records! And, of course, the new Fall back-to-school fashions. I'll be delighted to show them to you, too.

Carol Barr

JEAN GILMER is my name. I think I'm the only blonde on the Fashion Board but you can also tell me when you see me 'cause I'm 5'3" tall, weigh 115 pounds and have brown eyes. I'll be a Junior at Willamette this year and I'm fond of painting, tinting photographs, sewing and dancing. During the week of September 5 to September 10 I'll be at JOHNSON'S to show you the back-to-school styles. I think you'll love them.

Jean Gilmer

I'm JOAN MARIE MILLER. Starting August 29, I'll be at JOHNSON'S too! And I've picked out some really smart back-to-school combinations I'd like to show you. (They won't be bathing suits, either, although my hobby is swimming.) If you don't know me, here are the statistics: I'm 17, 5'1 1/2" tall and weigh about 98 pounds. I'm a brunette with hazel eyes. I'll start back in Salem High this Fall but I intend to start my school wardrobe now. Be glad to help you do the same!

Joan Marie Miller

Hello... my name's JOANNE FITZMAURICE. I like those wonderfully funny Robert Benchley books and I like to ski... also think a lot of the Fall back-to-school fashions this year and I'll be in JOHNSON'S from August 29 to September 3 to show them to you. My school is the University of Oregon. For identification... you can look for a girl who's 5'8" with brown hair and grey-green eyes (my hair is shorter than the picture). I'll be right in JOHNSON'S when you stop to choose your school wardrobe. See you there!

Violence in Munich—A police car burns after being set on fire by Jewish displaced persons who marched on the office of a German newspaper in Munich which had printed an anti-Semitic letter. The swastika, symbol of the new defunct Nazi party, was painted on the hood of the police car by the rioters. Some 1100 Jews and German police took part in the riot, with five of the former and 20 of the latter receiving injuries. (Acme Telephoto.)

ADVICE FROM EXPERTS

Office Girls to Learn Fashion and Beauty

Washington, Aug. 15 (AP)—You figure your FBI as standing for "Federal Bureau of Investigation."

It does, but, as of now, it has a cousin. This one also has government backing. It stands for "Fashion, Beauty and Improvement." And that adds up to FBI, too, whether the tough guys of J. Edgar Hoover's department like it or not.

The idea behind FBI, Jr., is to teach government gals, like the clerks and the stenographers, office manners. Some of them have know-how already. Others don't.

The whole thing is backed by the federal recreation association. Classes start tonight in a wonderful setting—the agriculture department cafeteria, which is a pretty big hall when you move out the salt cellars and sugar bowls.

Experts from the Virginia Farrell organization in Detroit will dictate the do's and don't's. If it works out with the first class which comes from the defense department, it most likely will be extended to other agencies of the government.

Edith Mann, fashion coordinator for the Detroit outfit, will do a lot of the teaching.

She gave, in advance, a few rules which could be applied to gals anywhere who work in offices.

Some of them are:

1. No loafers, meaning no low-heeled shoes.
 2. No lip-hanging cigarette smoking. That is, sitting at the typewriter writing a letter with a cheroot dangling from the mouth.
 3. No wrapping the legs around the chair while typing.
 4. No barelegs or sun-back dresses.
- Miss Mann is particularly irritated with women who are sloppy in answering the phone. Not only the phone-side manner, but the posture, like leaning over the desk, with the head down almost to the desk, etc. She calls this the "inviting the slip position" and advises against it.

Power Wire Sends Family to Hotel

Plymouth, Eng., Aug. 15 (AP)—E. R. Hyatt stuck the key in the door of his new metal house and wham—he was jolted off the stoop. He picked himself up and tried a window. He went down again in a shower of sparks.

He peered into the kitchen window and steam was pouring from a cold water faucet.

"Stand back!" he warned his wife and children. "This calls for an expert."

The local housing authority repair man disconnected the power line. He found a bare wire rubbing against the frame of the metal house—which should have blown a fuse, he said, but didn't because a clip holding the ground wire had worked loose.

The Hyatts decided to go to a hotel for a few days.
