Spinsters Set Place For Picnic

The picnic planned for Spinsters club members and their husbands and friends, next Friday evening, will be at Paradise island, it was decided at the meeting of the group last evening.

The supper is to be a no-host event at 6:30 o'clock.

The meeting last evening was at the home of Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod with Mrs. Frank Turner and Mrs. Gale Besse as co-hostesses.

Because of Labor day coming on the regular meeting date the club decided to hold its next session August 29, Mrs. Roger Schnell and Mrs. Robert Elgin to be hostesses.

Auxiliary Meets

The Keizer fire department auxiliary met Friday evening at the fire department hall. The women cleaned the hall, after which there was a social with games and refreshments.

Those present were: Mrs. C. C. Burnette, Mrs. E. A. Lawrence, Mrs. H. B. Teets, Mrs. John Oudeans, Mrs. Paul Yung, Mrs. Olin Brown, Mrs. James McCormack, Mrs. Walter Ketcher, Mrs. Dene Hocking, Mrs. John Meker, Mrs. Bernard Gnooks, Mrs. Norman Brusuen, Mrs. L. A. Wood.

WOODBURN—The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday, August 17, at 2:30 p.m. in the church. Mrs. Flora Hashberger will be the devotional leader and each member is asked to bring an item on missions for a round table discussion. All women of the church and friends are invited.

RETURNING at the week-end from a two weeks trip were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman. They drove to Salt Lake City, then through Bryce canyon, Zion park and the north rim of the Grand Canyon.

Herb Tea

An event of interest throughout the valley will be the 12th annual herb tea to be given Thursday of this week, August 18, by the Lebanon Garden club at the Thomas Dillard home, route 2, Lebanon.

Herbs, vinegars, sachets, lavender sticks and dried and fresh herbs will be featured in displays.

Selections of tea blends may be chosen by each guest and herb cookies will be featured in the refreshments.

Invitation has gone out to all Garden clubs in the state for their members to attend. The general public is invited.

Mrs. Smith To Entertain

Among hostesses of the mid-week will be Mrs. H. G. Smith, who has invited guests for luncheon and bridge.

The luncheon will be at 1 o'clock at Miss Emma Godfrey's place, the bridge games to follow at the Smith home on Center street.

Guests for four tables have been bidden. Arrangements of summer flowers will be used for decorating.

Wedding Sunday

Mrs. Grace V. Stuller of Oakland, Calif., and Cecil W. Stuller of Salem, were married in the church parlors of the First Christian church on Sunday, August 14, at 2 p.m.

The Rev. Walter R. Naff, Jr., officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Crosby of Beaverton were the only attendants.

VISITING at the Ross W. Clarke home are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Millhollen from Fresno, Calif., and Miss Nancy Jo Millhollen of Los Angeles. Recent visitors at the Clarke home were Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Fisher and Bobby of Shreveport, La., and Mrs. Helen Hall of Beaumont, Texas.

Luncheon For Director

Honoring Miss Gertrude Acheson, new executive director for the Salem YWCA, who is to be here for the day, Thursday, members of the YW executive and personnel committees will meet at luncheon Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Marion hotel.

Miss Acheson recently came west from Rochester, N.Y., where she was YW director, and is visiting in Portland for a time before coming to Salem to assume her duties as executive director on September 1.

Invitations For Wedding

Invitations were mailed this past week-end for the wedding of Miss Phyllis Elizabeth Schnell and Robert Walter Streb, the ceremony to be solemnized the evening of Friday, September 2, at 8 o'clock in the First Congregational church.

The reception following is to be at the East Hoyt street residence of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Henry Schnell. Mr. Streb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Streb of Salem.

For Newcomers

Mrs. Stephen Tabacchi and Mrs. James Lugenbeel, recently moved to Salem from Seattle, were honored Friday afternoon at an informal tea for which Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard and Mrs. John H. Carson were hostesses at the Shepard residence.

Assisting at the affair were Mrs. James Linn and Mrs. Gregg Lancaster, who poured; Mrs. Paul R. Hendricks, Mrs. Thomas Holman, Mrs. James Young, Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington and Mrs. Jerald Backstrand.

VISITING in Salem are Miss Margaret Griffiths of San Bernardino, Calif., and Miss Eleanor Griffiths of Sioux Falls, S.D. They are guests at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Griffiths.

MRS. L. C. McLEOD returned Tuesday from a week in California. She returned south with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George M. McLeod, who were here for a week from Berkeley.

MRS. E. W. NORMAN and daughters, Mary and Judith, left today by plane for their home in Detroit, Mich., following two months visit here with Mrs. Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Lindgren, and with her two sisters, Mrs. LaVerne Young and Mrs. W. K. Griffiths.

Today's Menu

WEEK DAY DINNER
Beef Saute with Tomato Sauce
Masked Potatoes
Corn on the Cob - Carrot Molds
Bread and Butter
Fresh Fruit - Beverage
Carrot Molds

Ingredients: 1 package lemon-flavored gelatin, 2 cups hot water, 3/4 cup ripe olives, 1 cup finely grated carrots, 1 small finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1/2 cup finely cut parsley, salad greens, mayonnaise or creamy-type salad dressing.

Method: Put the gelatin in a medium-sized mixing bowl and add the hot water; stir until gelatin is entirely dissolved. Chill until about the consistency of egg white. In the meantime cut the olives from the pits in thin slivers into small mixing bowl; add the carrots, onion, and parsley and mix well. Add to thickened gelatin and mix to distribute. Turn into individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens and top with mayonnaise. Makes 6 servings.

In using canned baked beans for a hot-weather salad put the beans in a strainer and rinse under gently running cold water. Toss the beans in the sieve to drain them before using.

Wed at Woodburn—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Tremaine (Delores Hathaway) was solemnized July 30 in St. Luke's church, Woodburn. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hathaway of Champcoog and Mr. Tremaine is the son of Mrs. Estella Tremaine of Woodburn and the late V. W. Tremaine. (Bruno studio)

Miss Hibbs Bride Sunday At McMinnville Ceremony

Unionvale—Sunday afternoon, August 14, at 3 o'clock in a beautiful candlelight service in the First Methodist church, McMinnville, Miss Anna Lois Hibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wesley Hibbs of the Unionvale district, and John Orion Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker of McMinnville, exchanged their wedding vows.

The wedding date was the 23rd anniversary of the bride's parents.

Rev. John Schroeder officiated in the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and close friends.

All white flowers were used in decorating the altar and church, carnations and gladioli, with candelabras holding lighted tapers. Candles and flowers were in each window.

Preceding the service Miss Nellie Ferguson and Miss Mary Launer, cousins of the bride, lighted the altar and window candles. They wore pink floor length dresses and gardenias. Soloist was Rev. George Millen of Unionvale.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin floor length gown designed with close fitted bodice, short sleeves and round neckline. The skirt terminated in colonial effect, allowing lace ruffles of the dress to be seen. The tulle fingertip length veil was arranged from a halo of orange blossoms. For her flowers, the bride carried an orchid on a white Bible encircled with white satin ribbon streamers knotted with white stephanotis. Her double strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Raymond Barr, sister of the bridegroom, in a peach floor length dress and white picture hat with green trim. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Alfred Hartman, cousin of the bridegroom, in a yellow floor length dress with blue trim, and a white hat; and Miss Mildred Hackworth, in an ice blue floor length dress and yellow trim and a white hat. The three attendants carried white testaments with white carnations and white satin knotted streamers.

Little Janet Clow as flower girl wore an apple green floor length dress and carried a basket of flowers and scattered petals.

Little Charles Clow was ring bearer. Ray Hibbs, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Alfred Hartman and Raymond Barr. Miss Colleen Coburn and Miss Jeanne Westfall had charge of the gifts. Miss Lauramae Goodrich had charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hibbs wore a dress of green and darker accessories of the same color. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Fred Becker, mother of the bridegroom, wore an afternoon dress of green and matching hat, and her corsage was of gardenias Mrs. John Hibbs, 85, grandmother of the bride, wore a black dress with orange yoke. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with orange ribbon.

Immediately following the service the bridal couple greeted those attending the wedding.

The reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Charles Ferguson, aunt of the bride, served the cake after the bride cut the first piece for her husband. The cake centered a lace covered table where guests were served cafeteria style. Miss Roberta Hackworth was at the punchbowl. Cutting the ices were Mrs. Ed Clow, Mrs. Harry Fisher, Mrs. Carrie Kidd and Mrs. Paul Zouner.

When ready to leave for a wedding trip to Crater Lake, the bride wore a dusty rose suit, white hat with navy and white trim and an orchid corsage. Upon their return their home will be 436 Galloway, McMinnville.

The bride is a graduate of Dayton Union high school and has been employed at Oregon Mutual Insurance company at McMinnville. Mr. Becker received his schooling in Montana and is employed at McMinnville.

LADIES OF THE GAR are to gather for a no-host luncheon and social, Wednesday noon, in Willson park.

Wedding Set For Saturday

Planned for next Saturday afternoon, August 20, is the wedding of Miss Beryl Roberta Schantz and Dean Morrison Wilcox, the ceremony to be solemnized at 2 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church with the Rev. T. J. Bernards officiating.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Schantz, Mr. Wilcox, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox, all of Salem.

Miss Shirley Schantz is to attend her sister and Walter Turner of Forest Grove is to be best man.

The reception following will be at the Schantz residence.

Family Reunion

A family reunion was held Sunday at the Trade street home of Mrs. Mary E. Croshaw honoring relatives and friends from Boyd, Wis.

The honor guests were Mrs. Laura Nass, a niece and cousin of the Croshaw family, Lester Croshaw, a nephew and cousin of the Croshaw family, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Koepf, friends.

Thirty-four were present, including the honorees, also Mrs. Mary E. Croshaw, Mr. and Mrs. David Croshaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Bogosian and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Watson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Croshaw, Mrs. Jack Schaefer, Elmer R. Potter, Miss Daisy Parsegian, Walter and Richard Parsegian, Mr. and Mrs. Hurstle Totton and son, Mrs. Julia Totton and children, Mrs. Joe Wickie and son.

Portland Wedding

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Miss Beverly Rose Taylor and Frederick Brock, in Portland, Friday, September 2, at 8 p.m., in the First Methodist church there.

Miss Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor of Portland, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies of Salem. The reception following will be at the Taylor home.

Regional Meet To Be in Salem

Plans for the Columbia Basin Regional conference of credit groups to be held in Salem October 22 and 23 were outlined by Mrs. Lloyd Myers at the meeting of the Credit Women's Breakfast club, Tuesday morning. The Salem Retail Credit group and the local Credit Women's Breakfast club will be joint hosts for the conference.

Sixteen attended Tuesday's breakfast, held at Nohlgren's. Mrs. D. E. Walker presided and Mrs. Dorothy Hill led the invocation.

L. E. Hobbs, field manager of the department of financial responsibility, secretary of state's office, was the guest speaker on the topic, "Know Oregon's Financial Responsibility Laws."

Next meeting of the club is to be September 6.

IN LA CENTER, Wash. over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Healy. Ward Finley Anderson, a nephew, had been here the past week and they took him over the week-end. En route back the Healys stopped in Portland to attend the banquet given Sunday evening as part of the national Knights of Columbus convention in Portland.

ANNUAL business meeting for the North Salem WCTU is to be Friday at 2 p.m. in the fireplace room of the Jason Lee Methodist church. Mrs. Clara Cooley is to conduct devotions.

Mrs. Clarence Martin will discuss displaced persons and Mrs. W. W. Chadwick is to give a travelogue on her recent trip to Alaska.

FAST NOBLE Grands club announces a no-host picnic for Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nettie Larson, 1135 Cross street, all past noble grands of the Rebekahs and friends being invited. Each is to take her own table service. The regular meeting and social will follow the supper.

meet me at

Johnson's

I'll be there August 15th for a week. And let me tell you about some of the back-to-school fashions of the JOHNSON'S JUNIOR FASHION BOARD have chosen as really just the thing this Fall.

Back to school means back to semi-formal dances and JOHNSON'S has a luscious assortment of casual plaids, corduroys, rustling taffetas (or smooth) and sleek velveteens. One special feature of this group is a Garnet Red Jonathan Logan velvet jumper with a bolero jacket and a pert, stand-up collar. Perfect for all semi-formals. Sizes 9 to 15, they are 22.50.

This is the time to bring out the crisp, white blouses. One, made specially for school wear, is a perk Peter Pan, long-sleeved, trimmed with tiny gold buttons and cuff links. Every girl will love this and it's just 5.95.

You know, corduroy is both practical and flattering. Jo Collins puts out a new corduroy suit for Fall with a full-backed jacket, scalloped trims for the front closing and around the tiny pockets, set off by small gold buttons. The skirt is plain with large hip pockets. Sold together or apart. Sizes 9-15. Jacket 12.95, skirt 8.95.

Having trouble matching anklets with sweaters? No more! JOHNSON'S has a new shipment of spun rayon anklets with tops that roll perfectly in all colors to give you that match. Only 79 cents.

When you come into Johnson's, I'd love to show all of these to you.
