Entertaining Compliments Brides-Elect

This week is featured by much entertaining for brides-to-be. Among parties planned for brides-elect is the one for which Mrs. Axel Jacobsen will be hostess Thursday evening at her Valley View avenue home to compliment Miss Joan Hoereth, who is to be married August 28 to Theodore Corvill.

About 30 have been bidden and the group will honor Miss Hoereth with a miscellaneous shower of gifts. Late refreshments will be served following an informal evening.

Miss Hobson Feted

Honoring Miss Dorothy Ann Hobson, who is to be married next Saturday to Frederick H. Graham of Longview, Miss Marylou Herndon and Miss Nevada Smedley are to entertain Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Smedley.

About 30 friends in Chi Omega sorority have been bidden, the group to fete Miss Hobson with a linen shower. Late refreshments will be served following an informal evening.

The Graham-Hobson wedding is to be Saturday in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

For Miss Hutchison

Mrs. Ralph Wirth is to entertain Friday evening at her home at a party honoring Miss Beverly Hutchison, who is to be married August 27 to Kenneth A. Holmes of Albany.

Guests have been invited at 8 o'clock and will honor the bride-to-be with a crystal shower. In the group will be 18 former neighborhood friends of Miss Hutchison.

Couple Wed Saturday at St. Mary's in Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—In a setting of white and pink gladioluses and greenery lighted by cathedral tapers, Miss Rita Drescher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Drescher of Monitor, and Andrew Hein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hein, Sr., of Canby, spoke their marriage vows at a double ring ceremony, Saturday morning, at the St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, at 9:00 o'clock. Rev. Damian Jentes, O.S.B., officiated at the nuptial mass and read the wedding service.

Mrs. Vincent Smith presided at the pipe organ for the professional and recessional wedding marches, and accompanied Mrs. Marion Howe of Canby, who sang preceding and after the ceremony. Miss Pauline Saakfeld and Mrs. J. L. Wachter who sang at the offertory, and the St. Mary's choir who sang the high mass.

Mr. Drescher gave his daughter in marriage. She wore the traditional white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice, French lace at the low shoulder line topped by a marquise yoke with round neckline, long sleeves and full skirt ending in a long court train edged in French lace. A coronet of orange blossoms held the fingertip lace-veiled illusion, and the bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and white stephanotis with white satin streamers. She wore a double strand of pearls.

Mrs. Henry Roshak of Tigard, stood as matron of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of teal blue faille designed with a drape collar on the low shoulder line of the fitted bodice and full floor length skirt. Her halo headress was of matching tulle and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of variegated gladioluses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Twito of Woodburn, Mrs. William Gelburn Jr. of Canby and Miss Annette Willis of Canby. All were dressed in gowns of pink faille made identically to that of the honor attendant. They wore haloes of pink tulle and carried fan-shaped bouquets of gladioluses.

Edward Drescher, brother of the bride, served as best man for Mr. Hein, and ushers were Jim Christian, Bill Gilbert and Ronald Tatone, all of Canby.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Drescher wore a gray and pink crepe afternoon dress with rose-colored accessories. Mrs. Hein was dressed in navy blue with navy accessories for her son's wedding. Both mothers wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the services, a wedding breakfast was served at the Memorial hall with covers placed for fifty guests. The bridal table was centered with a hired wedding cake and an arrangement of gladioluses and lighted tapers. Serving were Mrs. Joseph Rosno, Mrs. Albert Uhing and Mrs. Henry Zollner, who also assisted at serving the buffet supper at the reception held that evening in the same hall. After the supper a wedding dance was held. Mrs. Phil Lutz of Salem, aunt of the bride, poured, Mrs. Edward Goebel of Canby, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake, and Miss Marjorie Drescher, sister of the bride,

Two Honor Bride-to-Be

Miss Janice Middleton, who is to be married Saturday, September 10, to LaVern Hiebert, was honored at a surprise party and shower for which Mrs. Steve Anderson and Mrs. Donald McPherson were hostesses Tuesday evening at the South 12th street home of Mrs. Anderson. The shower was a miscellaneous one, and refreshments were served following an informal evening.

In the group were Miss Middleton, Mrs. Lester DenBeste, retiring president. The review included activities of the group throughout its 35 years. The fall schedule for the club starts in September, an evening meeting being planned on the third Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clifton Ross.
