Apricot Cooler
Ingredients: 3 cups chilled apricot whole fruit nectar, 1 cup iced strong tea, dash of salt, 4 teaspoons honey, cherries.
Method: Mix apricot nectar, tea, salt and honey, making sure mixture is thoroughly chilled. Garnish with cherries. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Watercress Cottage Cheese Sandwiches
Ingredients: 1 cup finely chopped watercress (about 1 bunch), 1 cup creamed cottage cheese, 1 teaspoon finely ground onion, salt and freshly ground pepper, thinly sliced whole wheat bread.
Method: Put the watercress, cottage cheese, and grated onion in a mixing bowl and mix thoroughly; add salt and pepper to taste. Use as sandwich filling on bread. Makes 1½ cups spread.

If you want to separate the leaves of a head of lettuce, remove the core, then hold the head (core side up) under cold running water. The pressure of the water will usually force the leaves apart. The leaves should be dried on a tea towel before using.

Miss Teel To Wed on August 27

Announced for Saturday, August 27, is the date of the wedding for Miss Adah Mae Teel and Robert William Nelson, the ceremony to be an afternoon one at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist church with Dr. Lloyd T. Miss Whitecrow Bride at Ceremony in Woodburn

Woodburn—The Church of God at Woodburn was the setting for the marriage of Miss Colleen Joyce Whitecrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Whitecrow, to Duane Robert Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shaw of Sacramento Saturday, August 13 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. R. W. Hood officiated at the single ring ceremony in the presence of about 100 invited guests. Baskets of pink and white gladioluses and candelabrams were arranged about the altar.

Soloist was Miss Virginia Yoder who sang, accompanied by Miss Karene Kuns, who also played the processional and recessional marches.

Mr. Whitecrow escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with tight-fitting bodice, closed in the back with self covered buttons, a yoke of seed pearls and long sleeves. The full skirt extended into a full length train and the fingertip veil was of net edged with lace. The bride carried an arm arrangement of gardenias centered with a white orchid corsage.

Maid of honor was Miss Lois Thompson in a frock of powder blue taffeta. She carried an arm bouquet of Rubrum lilies, and wore a floral tiara in her hair. Bridesmaids were Miss Doris Waymire and Miss Jean Bothum, wearing identical frocks of pink marquisette. Their flowers were gardenias and pink carnations and they also wore a floral head-dress.

Marion Shaw stood as best man for his brother and the ushers were Delmer Kuns and Jerry Bonacker.

Mrs. Whitecrow wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias for her daughter's wedding and the bridegroom's mother wore an afternoon print with black accessories and a similar corsage.

A reception was held at the church. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake flanked on either side with white tapers and low bowls of pink and white sweet peas.

Mrs. Albert Albin of Donald, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Lester Marks, another aunt, presided at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Arthur Chapelle of Liver-
