Fluffy Peach Pie - Beverage

Fluffy Peach Pie
Ingredients: 1½ cups canned cling peach slices, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, ½ cup syrup from peaches, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs (separated), ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 baked nine-inch pie shell.

Method: Drain peaches. Soften gelatin by sprinkling over peach syrup and allowing to stand. Scald milk; pour over egg yolks beaten with ¼ cup of the sugar and salt. Cook over hot water stirring constantly, until custard coats spoon; add gelatin and stir until it is dissolved. Whip egg whites until almost stiff; gradually add remaining sugar, whipping after each addition. Fold in custard, vanilla, and 1 cup of the peach slices. Turn into baked pie shell. Decorate top of pie with remaining peaches. Chill. Makes 8 to 8 servings.

VISITORS in Salem, Wednesday, for a time were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James Stinebaugh, Jr. and little daughter, Sara, of Grants Pass. They were en route to Portland to visit relatives. Mrs. Stinebaugh is remembered as the former Jean Taylor who for three years was society editor at the Capital Journal.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Krohn, Jr. (Eileen Prinslow) were married August 6 at St. Luke's Catholic church in Woodburn.

Mrs. Frank Takes Over As Silverton Club Head

Silverton—Mrs. Edward Handy was hostess, assisted during the social hour by Mrs. James Nelson, at the week's meeting of the Junior Woman's club. Program plans were worked on for the annual style show to be given in conjunction with the regular Fall Festival opening of the various business places of Silverton, September 15.

Mrs. Wilson Johnson, general chairman of arrangements, announced the theme for the fashion show, "School Days," many ideas to be carried out suggesting of this theme with modeling to be done by children, members of the club, and adult guests.

The members scheduled a special meeting at the West Main street home of Mrs. Ted Galbreath when the first session for model instruction and training will be given.

Mrs. Allan Foster is to be in charge of the club project, a story telling hour for children during the coming school year, at the school library. The members are making floor cushions for the small listeners considering this will be conducive to a more quiet plan than to have the children sitting in chairs.

Plans are made for the club members to assist with the "girls' night" at the municipal recreational rooms during the school year. Mrs. Edward Nahdy is to serve as recreational chairman, Mrs. Paul Innis as representative to the recreational council, Mrs. Perl Bye to be standing program chairman, Mrs. Justin L. Dyrud to be in charge of music plans. Sunshine chairman is to be Mrs. Gerald Smedsted, and Mrs. James Nelson is to serve as membership chairman. In charge of the TB seal sale will be Mrs. John W. Myers.

On the resignation of Mrs. Jerry Gastineau as club president, the family moving to Newport where Mr. Gastineau is to serve as superintendent of schools for the year, Mrs. Orville Frank was advanced from vice president to the office of president, and Mrs. James Nelson as secretary.
