Team Captains Will Just Watch Walker Playoffs

Mamaroneck, N.Y., Aug. 19 (AP)—There will be two non-playing captains as the British and American teams tee off today in the opening Scotch foursomes of the Walker cup competition over the winged foot course.

It was known that Francis Oulmet would not compete for the Americans, but the withdrawal of British Leader Percy (Laddie) Lucas in favor of 19-year-old Arthur Perowne came as a distinct surprise.

Lucas, a southpaw, in announcing his team's lineup said he was off his game.

The affable Lucas also came through with another surprise when he placed Max McCready and Jim Bruen, rated the Britons' strongest pair, in the No. 2 position, thus putting less-prominent Joe Carr and Ronald White against the Americans' top duo—Willie Turnesa and Ray Bilows.

That match will open the competition at 9 a.m. Fifteen minutes later McCready and Bruen will tee off against Frank Stranahan and Chuck Kocis, the No. 2 American combination.

The third match brings together Skeel Riegel and Ted Bishop for the Americans and Cecil Ewing and Gerald Micklethorn. The final foursome matches Johnny Dawson and Bruce McCormick against Perowne and another youthful Briton Ken Thom. Lucas usually pairs with Thom.

In the Scotch foursome competition the two players on each side take alternate shots at the same ball.

Singles matches will be played tomorrow.

Aussies Whip US Doubles Teams

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 19 (AP)—America's Davis cup hopes suffered a shocking letdown yesterday when a pick-up team of Australians whaled Gardner Mulloy and Bill Talbert in the quarter finals of the national doubles tennis championships.

The young Australians, Frank Sedgman and George Worthington, blasted the legs from under America's defending and four-times national champions, 6-4, 1-6, 7-5, 9-7.

The Australians' surprising victory left only two American teams in the field. They play each other today.

The second seeded American team of Frank Parker of Hollywood, Calif., and Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles, go against the sixth-seeded American combination of Jim Brink of Seattle, Wash., and Herb Behrens of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in one of today's quarter finals.

In the other, the Australian Davis cup pairing of Jack Bromwich and Bill Sidwell meet the fifth-seeded South Africans, Eric Fitts and Eustace Fannin.

Southpaw Golfer Wins Third Time

French Lick, Ind., Aug. 19 (AP)—Alvin Everett of Rome, Ga., shared with Alex Antonio today the distinction of being a three-time winner of the national left-hander golf championship.

Everett, winner in 1939 and 1940, took title number three yesterday with a 6 and 4 victory over Bob Malone of Fort Worth, Texas.

Antonio, now a pro at Linden, N. J., won the tournament three times in the early years of its history.

Dottie Steelhammer Aces

Dorothy Steelhammer, playing with Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wimberly of Roseburg and her husband, John, scored a hole in one while touring the Neskovin golf course Wednesday.

NOTICE To All Fishermen, Friends, Customers

I have located back in business at the Former "Wagon" or "ELLA'S CAFE" Taft, Oregon Elio

The Senators spotted lumbering John Marshall to a five run lead in the early innings Thursday night and then came back to deny the big fellow his 21st win of the season. Marshall, doubtless will claim that Manager Bill Beard's squad had a big assist from Empire Rocky Flammia but nevertheless, the score will stand 6-5 for the Solons.

The victory was the Senators' fifth in their last six starts and enabled them to take the series with the Bremerton Tars, two out of three. On top of that the Solons are just one game out of fifth place now held by the Victoria Athletics. The Tacoma Tigers move in Friday night at 8 o'clock for a four game standing, including the usual Sunday evening double header.

Although Marshall gave evidence of being off form as he walked eight batters, yet when he Tars came through with a run in the first and four more in the third, it did seem he would do it again. Thanks to the excellent work of Cal McIrvine whose pitching was unusually sharp, the Bluejackets were stalled after the third.

The Senators, unable to break through with a single tally during six frames, drove in two in the seventh, another in the eighth and then came through with three in the ninth to win when Orrin Snyder slid under Catcher Al Ronning as Shortstop Lou Briganti booted Claude Buckley's hard grounder. He came all of the way from second.

Umpire Flammia, right on top of the play at the plate, hesitated then called Snyder safe. The Tars swarmed over Flammia like a bunch of hornets and in all probability a number of fines will be recommended by the official.

The ninth opened with Bill Burgher being tossed out by Marshall after rolling a bunt down the first base path. Bob Cherry doubled over the third base sack and Mel Wasley drew a walk. Marshall uncorked a wild pitch to advance both runners and a moment later Snyder hit the left field boards for a double. Cherry and Wasley scored easily to tie the count at 5-5. With but one out Buckley grounded off Briganti and Snyder on the run at the time didn't hesitate at third but kept on driving. The Tar shortstop retrieved the ball to make a quick throw for a fraction of a second and throw to the plate but Snyder slid between Ronning's legs as the ball came in.

McIrvine got out of a tight spot in the first when he allowed but one run to score after the bases had been loaded with nobody out. Two bunts that went for hits and an error loaded the sacks. But Bill Taylor was fanned and Ronning lofted a fly to Cherry to score Charley Bushong. Jay Ragni then rolled out, Wasley to Krug.

Two errors played an important part in the Tars' four run surge in the fourth which was opened by Taylor's three base blast to right center. Wayne Peterson dropped Al Ronning's pop fly to score Taylor and Ragni walked. Briganti bunted an infield single and Ronning scored as McIrvine made a bad throw to first. A moment later, Marshall, a notoriously poor hitter, scored Ragni and Briganti with his single to center field.

The Yakima Bears added a half game to their first place lead as they downed Tacoma, 11-9 while Vancouver was punishing Wenatchee, 12-9. Victoria edged Spokane 7-5.

Fishin' Outlook For Weekend Poor, Says Commission

Portland, Ore., Aug. 19 (AP)—Week-end angling prospects in Oregon were discouraging, according to the weekly fishing bulletin of the Oregon state game commission.

Reports from most areas said very few trout were being taken, but that bass and catfish were being caught in many central-coastal lakes.

Salmon fishing in tidewater areas was expected to improve.

Summary of week-end prospects:
 Columbia river—Salmon fishing fallen off with few steelhead catches reported at Sundaal beach.
 Lane county—Eugene—Fishing generally fair on McKenzie river and tributaries with a few good catches being made. Water conditions excellent throughout. Steelhead prospects for week-end fair.
 Bend area—All lakes reported fair to good with best success at East lake. Low-river Deschutes river good catches being made on bait. Fly fishing improving. A few steelhead being taken at mouth of Deschutes.
 Clatsop county—Water very low in all streams. Reports show few sea-run trout in tide-water of Necanicum and Lewis and Clark rivers.
 Tillamook county—Angling conditions very slow at this time. Prospects for the coming week-end poor to fair, with best prospects in tide-water.
 Lane and Lincoln counties—Summer south-of-rainline in tide-water of the Siskiyou, Alsea, and Silette rivers is rather slow. Some nice fish are being taken, but few limit catches have been reported during the past week. Chinook jacks are also running in these streams, and a few adult salmon have been seen. Bass and catfish are still producing good returns in the central coastal lakes.

Sauvain Mulls Baseball Offers

Chuck Sauvain, product of Woodburn high school and an outstanding moundsman for Oregon State college during the past three years is considering a number of offers from professional clubs. He was in conversation with Tom Downey, Pittsburgh Pirate scout Thursday night at Waters park but later said he had made no commitments. Sauvain reports he has been approached by representatives from the St. Louis Cardinals, the Boston Red Sox, the Boston Braves and the Cleveland Indians as well as the Pirates. He expects to make a decision within a few days.

Kennedy, Wolfe Signed to Clash Here Wednesday

Paul Kennedy, Longview, Wash., sharpshooter, and Davey Ball, Chippasha middleweights have been matched for the 10-round top event for next Wednesday night's Veterans of Foreign Wars fight card at the armory. Kennedy beat Dick Wolf in a slashing fight at the local arena a few weeks ago and is considered one of the outstanding men in his class in the northwest.

The six round semi-final will bring together Lew Nunes, a recent arrival from Los Angeles and Cliff Parker, 155 pound Seattle scrapper.

Matchmaker Tex Salkeld is arranging a series of four round preliminaries to complete the card.

United States Prestige Hinges on Wally Ris

Los Angeles, Aug. 19 (AP)—Only U. S. Olympic Champion Wally Ris stands between the astounding Japanese swim team and a complete sweep of the national AAU men's free style titles today.

Ris, who holds the American record of 57.6, will swim in the 100 meter event against Tokyo Swim club's Yoshihiro Hamaguchi and Shigeyuki Maruyama.

The Iowa flash may have to do better than that to best the Nips. For it seems that nothing less than the phenomenal will do against the invaders who seem bent on taking home all the world's records, as well as the American championships.

Hironoshin Furuhashi, Mr. Perpetual Motion, rewrote the record book again last night with 4:33.3 in winning the 400 meters, and anchoring the Tokyo club to victory in the 800-meter relay in 8:45.4.

These figures eclipsed Alex Jany's 4:35.2 in the 400, and the American Olympic team's 8:46 in the 800 relay at London last year.

Furuhashi, in the final 200 meters of the relay, was timed unofficially in 2:07.4. This certainly would have won the individual 200 meters had he chosen to enter that event.

But he settled for the 1500 Wednesday, the 400 yesterday and the 800 free-style today. His goal, of course, will be Bill Smith's 9:50.9.

He was thwarted in his bid for a 4:30 standard in the 400 by what he termed "my slow start."

On the American side of the ledger, Joe Verdeur and Allan Stack, not faced with Japanese competition, retained their respective breast stroke and backstroke crowns.

Verdeur equaled Keith Carter's American mark of 2:36.6 for the 200 meter breast stroke and backstroke crowns.

Verdeur equaled Keith Carter's American mark of 2:36.6 for the 200 meter breast stroke. This bettered Verdeur's own AAU figure of 2:38.4, but was far behind his world mark of 2:30.

Stack took the 100 meter backstroke in 1:07.1, which compared with his own world standard of 1:04.

Bevos Tip Seattle, 7-3; Oaks, Sacs Tie for 2nd

San Francisco, Aug. 18 (AP)—Anyone who thought the Oakland Oaks were kidding in their bid for the top of the Pacific Coast league can immediately change their opinion. The Acorns, defending champions of the loop, proved last night that their bid for top spot was a serious one by trampling the Hollywood Stars 12-2 with their whole lineup cooperating.

Every starter for the Oaks got at least one hit, all but Pitcher Earl Jones scored a run, and all but Mel Duezabou drove one in.

The Oaks failed to move up in the standings because the Sacramento Solons rallied to defeat San Diego 8-7 and stayed in a tie with the 1948 champions for the second spot.

Fourth place also stayed in a tie as Seattle dropped a 7-3 decision to the Portland Beavers. In the league's other game, San Francisco eked out a win over last place Los Angeles by a 3-4 score.

Earl Jones gave up a Hollywood home run to Irv Noren in the first inning and let the league leaders score once more in the second, but his team made it strictly no contest by getting 10 runs in the first four frames.

Earl Rapp and Don Padgett homered for the Oaks as the old champs moved to within five games of Hollywood.

Sacramento had to go to the final out to hold their second place tie, scoring three runs in the top of the eighth to break and then giving San Diego two score in the bottom of the frame. Ralph Hodgins homered for Sacramento and Buster Adams for the Padres.

Roy Helser pitched his 16th win of the campaign by holding Seattle to eight hits, but the Rainiers booted four balls to make the pitching job all the tougher for John Hoffmann and Relieff Rucker Ardzioia. Portland got only nine hits but put together a four-run fourth inning to sew up the game behind Helser's well-pitched contest.

Frank Shofner not only led the Seals to victory, he practically carried them. The Seal third baseman cracked a two-run home run in the fourth inning and a one runner in the seventh while accumulating four for four as the Seals rallied for two tallies.

82 Tee Off in Esmeralda Meet

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Aug. 19 (AP)—An 82-man field teed off today for the first round of the eighth annual Esmeralda golf tournament. Play is over the Hayden Lake course, north of Coeur d'Alene.

One of the first scheduled off the tee was crooner Bing Crosby. He was grouped with Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle and Buck Bailey, Washington State college as the Seals rallied for two tallies.

Are Yankees Good or Just Lucky?

(By the Associated Press)

Are the New York Yankees a greater club than most realize, or are they just plain lucky?

The Yankees have been winning despite 53 injuries, several to key men. They've been winning the close ones, too. In one recent week, they won four 3-2 games. They've engaged in 38 one-run decisions, and won 23 of them. No other club can boast such a mark.

Look what happened yesterday. They spotted the Washington Senators a 4-0 lead in the fourth inning, but came on to win 5-4. As in a majority of their one-run victories, an error by the opposition led to the Yankees' winning margin.

The Yankees already had tallied twice in the last half of the fourth on Tommy Henrich's home run, a fluke double by Johnny Lindell on a pop that fell in back of first and Gerry Coleman's single. They had two men on base and two out. Cliff Mape hit an easy roller to second, but Al Kozar bobbled it. Two Yankees crossed the plate to deadlock the score at 4-4.
