Salemites Plan Trip To Coast

A large group of Salemites will be at the beach this weekend to take in the Devil's Lake Yacht club's regatta, members of the Salem Cherrians participating in some of the program events.

The coronation of the queen comes Friday evening at the Coaster, the boat parade is early Saturday afternoon, and Saturday evening brings the street parade.

On Sunday afternoon, Cherrians will gather with their families for their annual picnic at the Paul Stege home at Road's End.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric T. Reaney, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schlesinger and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Claggett make up one of the groups and they will be at the Reaney beach home at Wecoma for the week-end.

Deryl Myers, King Bing of the Cherrians, and Mrs. Myers will be week-end guests at the Paul Stege home at Road's End.

Other groups are to be at the Taft Heights hotel and other places, and among other Cherrians and their families to attend the week-end festivities, will be Walter Bondell, Vince Rodakowski, Douglas Yeater, Dr. E. E. Boring, Wayne Rose, Marvin Van Cleave, Douglas Hobson, Paul Hale, Don Armstrong, Charles Hedges, B. M. Donaldson, Arthur Lewis, Frank A. Doerfler, Hal Randall, Don Doerfler, Hunt Clark, Greg Lancaster, Joe Randall, Elmer Mathieson, Claude Bird, Ed Jones, Jerry Anderson, William E. Healy, Ed Randle.

Rhinehart-Clark
Independence — Miss June (Mickey) Clark, daughter of Mrs. Bud Stalnaker of Independence and D. E. Clark of Salem was married to Louis Rhinehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rhinehart of Buena Vista, August 13.

The wedding rites were held at 4:30 o'clock in Dallas, performed by Charles Gregory.

The bride wore a navy blue tailored suit with white carnations as her flowers. The maid of honor, Miss Marie Cain, sister of the bridegroom, wore a blue suit with a corsage of pink and white carnations. Serving as best man was Donald Jenkins of Monmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carpenter also attended the wedding.

The couple will be at home at 143 2nd street, Independence, until they leave for Portland, where Mr. Rhinehart will finish school.

For Bride-Elect
Twenty-eight attended the miscellaneous shower and party for which Mrs. Axel Jacobsen was hostess last evening to honor Miss Joan Hoereth, who is to be married to Theodore Covalt on August 28.

At the party were Mrs. Hoereth and her mother, Mrs. F. X. Hoereth, Mrs. Ferrel Covalt, Mrs. Carl Wellman, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. E. W. Emmett, Mrs. A. ## Goes to Camp

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, president of the Santiam area council of Girl Scouts, left Friday to make her official visit to the scout camp at Smith Creek in the Silver Falls recreational area.

As a special treat for the girls in camp, Mrs. Spaulding took a supply of ice cream for all the girls there.

Miss Roth Wed Aug. 14

Albany—One of the attractive mid-summer weddings in Albany was that on Sunday, August 14, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Methodist church when Miss Helen Christine Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Roth, was wed to Bernard Lynn Tiland, son of Mrs. Peter Keppro, Albany. The Rev. George Huber read the service.

The wedding vows were repeated as the bridal party stood before the chancel with a background formed by white gladioluses, gardenias and woodwardia fern in tall white baskets. Seven candelabums with white tapers were placed among the flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of blush satin and lace, with underskirt of lace. Her veil was of blue net and was fingertip length. It fastened on a Juliet cap made to match the yoke of the dress and embellished with seed pearls. The bride carried a white Bible and on top of it was a large white orchid to which were attached streamers of satin tied with small white orchids.

Miss Dorothy Roth was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of teal green satin with low neckline, the collar resting on the edge of the shoulders. Her small hat was made of the same material as her dress. The skirt was draped to the waistline on one side of the front and was fastened with gardenias. She carried a nosegay of white gardenias.

Acting as bridesmaids were Miss Glenna Hurst and Miss Betty Jo Byerley, Albany and Miss Beverly Plummer, Coos Bay. They wore gowns of rose satin with matching hats. Their dresses were made similar to that of the maid of honor. Each carried a nosegay.

Little Miss Gayle Hunter of Eureka, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her costume matched that of the maid of honor. Eddie Hunter, Portland, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Larry Roth, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Royal Collins, Albany; Hal Okholm, Eugene, and Dick Smart, Albany.

Candlelighters were Miss Nancy Phillips, Albany; Richard Gilbert, Menlo Park, Calif., and Gene Gilbert, Sonoma, Calif.

Providing the wedding music were Mrs. Hazel Ewing, organist; Miss Carol Ann Cleaver, violinist and Sidney Burt, vocalist. Music at the reception held immediately following the ceremony, was given by Lural Burggraf, pianist.

The reception was held at Leech hall, adjacent to the church. Receiving the guests were the bridal party and the parents of the bride and bridegroom.

The bridal couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, and Yosemite. They will make their home in Eugene, where Mr. Tiland is a student at the University of Oregon. The bride received her junior certificate at Oregon State college last spring. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

ARRIVING Friday in the capital were Dr. and Mrs. Ronald S. Haines and their three sons, Richard Scott, David Stewart and John William, of Phoenix, Arizona, to visit at the home of Mrs. Haines' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, and also on the coast. They plan to return to Phoenix the first of the month. Mrs. Haines will be remembered as the former Lillian V. Scott.

Miss Polster Is Betrothed

At a party given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Polster, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Polster, to Eugene Peter DiLoreto, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. DiLoreto of Portland.

No date has been set for the wedding. Both young people attended Willamette university last year.

The announcement party table was arranged in white and gold. In the center from the silver candelabums white ribbon streamers reached and held tiny figurines of boys and girls in white and gold yarn in a circle on the lace tablecloth.

Each guest received a napkin with the engaged duo's name printed in gold with a heart-shaped picture of the couple folded inside.

Mrs. Abner K. Kline was at the coffee urn, Miss Joann Polster, sister of the bride-elect, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. O. J. Polster assisted at the party.

Invited to the party were Misses Barbara Albrich, Patricia Dardis, Kathleen Emmons, Evelyn Forman, Carmen Given, Rose M. Gottfried, Ila-Vey Jungwirth, Alberta Kloos, Rita Lancaster, Theresa Meier, Mary McCormick, Miriam Rom, Rita Schwarz, Mary Toohy, Theresa Thomas, Jeannette Waser and Gladys Zielinski, Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Polster and Joann and Florence Polster.

Silverton Girl To Wed in Fall

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCullough are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Marianne McCullough of Santa Monica, Calif., to Siegfried Meck of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Meck of Flushing, Long Island, New York. The wedding is to be in October.

Miss McCullough is a graduate of Mt. Angel academy and of St. Joseph's school of nursing, Vancouver, Wash. She served three years in the army nurse corps in World War II, during which time she was with the 125th General hospital in England, and later was at Lawson General in Atlanta, Georgia. Since leaving the service she has been with the veterans' facility at Sawtelle, Calif. and is a member of the army reserves.

Mr. Meck is a veteran of the recent World War and will enter the University of California at Los Angeles this autumn.

Miss McCullough will be at the home of her parents for a brief visit during September.

MONMOUTH—A kitchen shower honoring Miss Marcella Richards, whose marriage to Alfred L. Pfeifer will be an event of September 3, was given at the Corvallis home of Mrs. Leslie L. Davis as co-hostess. Twenty-five friends were invited to honor the bride-elect. From out of town were Mrs. William Averill, Portland; Mrs. Gordon Graham, Dayton; Mrs. V. C. Jones, Eugene; and Mrs. Albert Saxton, Foster. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served refreshments.

GATES—The Gates Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Klutke. Following a no-host luncheon served at 1 o'clock the business meeting was called with Mrs. Elmer Stewart presiding. A report was made by Mrs. Klutke, chairman of the building committee, who stated that $30 had been collected by Mrs. Robert Lewis, by public donation to add to the building fund.

The next regular meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Wilson, Thursday afternoon, September 8. New members are being solicited and an invitation is extended by the members to the new ladies of the community who are interested to attend.

Bride in July—Mrs. Albert Roderick McMullen, the former Elizabeth Rose Guttridge, daughter of Mrs. Joseph L. Guttridge of Estacada, was married July 24 in Salem. Mr. McMullen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McMullen of Taft. (McEwan studio picture)

Visitors Here

Visitors in Salem are Mrs. Fletcher Johnson and little son, Fletcher Austin Johnson, who recently arrived from Keflavik, Iceland. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Johnson, parents of Mr. Johnson.

The Johnsons have been in Iceland the past several months, Mrs. Johnson having gone there in December. They flew to New York City and Mr. Johnson, who is with the International hotels, left there for Bolivia and Mrs. Johnson came west. She and the son will join Mr. Johnson in Bolivia later.

The visitors will leave here Sunday to spend a few months in Portland before going to South America.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bothman are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Anne Bothman, to Larry E. Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Saunders of Twin Falls, Idaho, formerly of Portland.

No date is announced for the wedding.

Miss Bothman is in training at the Emanuel Hospital school of nursing in Portland.

Party Fetes Miss Herbert

Miss Isabel Herbert, who is to be married August 27 to Harold E. Comstock, was honored at a miscellaneous shower for which Mrs. Leonard Odom and Mrs. Kenneth Green were hostesses last evening at the Odom residence. About 20 guests were bidden, and a late dessert followed an informal evening.

Mrs. Ira W. Herbert of Herlong, Calif., mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Curtis Bottomiller of Vancouver, Wash., a sister, were out-of-town guests at the party.

Salem Man Weds Tillamook Girl
Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cooper of Tillamook of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Arletta Cooper, to John Dalke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Menno Dalke of Salem.

The wedding vows were exchanged at a 4 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon, August 14, in the chapel of the First Methodist church at Tillamook, the minister of the church officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose a beige suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible.

L. Rissell of Salem was best man for the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about 30 relatives and close friends. Mrs. Lu Singer, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake and pouring coffee was Mrs. Frank Townsend of Portland. The bridegroom is a graduate of Salem High school and has been at the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth for two years and will continue his college work.

The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon on the coast.
