

Bevos Skid to Seventh; Oaks Gain on Hollywood

(By the Associated Press)
Oakland may be puffing toward another Pacific Coast league pennant unless the Hollywood Stars get up a new head of steam. The league leaders suffered further humiliation at the hands of the Acorns Sunday, losing both ends of a double-header, 7 to 0 and 7 to 6.

When Earl Rapp homered to break a 6 to 6 deadlock in that second game, a great shout went up from the overflow multitude of 14,500 Oakland citizens. It was Rapp's 11th round tripper of the season, and left the Oaks just three games out of first place.

Sacramento, which had been tied for second, dropped back to third by splitting with San Diego. The Solons took the opener, 5 to 2, but the Padres came back for a 9 to 2 triumph in the afterpiece. The teams also split the eight game series.

Portland replaced San Francisco in seventh place by dropping two to the invading Seattle Rainiers, while the Seals annexed a pair from last place Los Angeles.

The Rainiers pounced on Portland starting Pitcher Hal Saltzman and Reliever Bill Fleming for seven hits and six runs in the seventh inning of the first game. The outburst broke a 1 to 1 deadlock and launched Seattle to a 10 to 1 triumph. The Rainiers tucked away the nightcap, 2 to 1, on two unearned runs, taking the series, 5 to 2.

Lefty O'Doul's boys, meanwhile, won 8 to 3 and 6 to 2 at Los Angeles. The outcome ran the Seals' winning streak to five

Five Newcomers To Appear in Armory Ring Show

Five scrappers, new to the armory arena, will have a hand, or more properly speaking, a fist, in Wednesday night's Veterans of Foreign Wars knuckle tossing exhibition. The main event will feature Paul Kennedy of Longview, Wash., and Davy Ball of Bakersfield, Calif.

The newcomers include Lou "Firpo" Nunes, a 155 pounder from Los Angeles, and Cliff Parker of Seattle, who will tangle in the six-round special event; Al Anthony of Seattle and Glen Varnado of Portland, welterweights, matched in one of the four round prelims, and Al Bobo, Los Angeles featherweight, slated to tangle with Joe Pete of Salem.

Varnado made his first professional appearance recently in Eugene, taking a knock out over Rafael Loera.

Nunes, something of a showman, who pops off like Dizzy Dean, has won all of his north-west engagements. He is guaranteed to be a crowd pleaser.

Kennedy in his last Salem appearance decided Dick Wolfe while Ball knocked out Dean Abney in the seventh. Ball must make 155 pounds at 2 o'clock the day of the fight.

Charlie Keller of the Yankees has a .306 batting average for 19 world series games. Among his 22 hits were five home runs.

Fights Here

Mel Eagleman, Indian scrapper, winner of the Portland A A U 118 pound class championship last year and quarter finalist in the national A A U championships, will meet Jerry Renaud of Portland in one of the preliminaries on Wednesday night's VFW card at the armory. Eagleman is under the management of Matty Morrell and Phil Bays.

Putters Turn on Steam Valve

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Chicago, Aug. 22 (AP)—A hundred or so golfers, including Sam Snead, are using a "steam valve handle" to putt with.

Snead's revived putting is being attributed, in part, to a putter given him by Ben Hogan. That greens weapon was a Jerry Glynn model. Jerry is a veteran pro in the Chicago district, now stationed at the fashionable Sky-rocket club. He was one of Babe Zaharias' instructors when she first took up the game and has helped many other fine players with his astute savvy.

During the war, Jerry dreamed up an extra heavy putter blade that would be weighed and shaped in such a way as to give an excellent "feel" or "touch" when used. He wanted to get a brass cast made of his idea but his efforts were blocked by priorities. Finally, he sent a blueprint of his super blade to a friend who was connected with a Chicago foundry. A cast was made under the heading "steam valve handle."

Since Snead's rousing success this season, Jerry has had about 100 orders for his putter, 90 of them from out of the Chicago area.

When naming an all-star golf team, it's hard to leave off such fellows as Byron Nelson, master of the driver and long iron; Walter Hagen, the peer of all shots; Bobby Jones, Hogan and others. When it comes to putting, who is the best? Many will tell you Horton Smith, Bobby Locke and Hagen. But Jerry, who has seen all of them, and admires them, says "I'll take Jim Fogarty."

Jerry is probably the only guy who knows Fogarty, outside of Craig Wood. Fogarty was once Jerry's assistant down in Florida. One day Wood, fresh from winning the national open, wandered into Jerry's pro shop. Fogarty edged up and asked if he wanted to putt on the practice green. Wood said sure, Fogarty won about $100 from him, beating him from anything to three to five up on 18 holes on the practice putting green.

Wood finally proposed a regulation match on the course to try to recoup. "I never played a round of golf in my life," answered Fogarty, "all I know is putting." "That Fogarty was the greatest putter who ever lived," recalled Jerry. "But he couldn't play a lick of golf."

Phil Rizzuto of the Yankees enjoyed his best season as a shortstop last season. He made only 17 errors in 128 games for an average of .973.
