

It Was a Week-end of Bridal Processions

Williams-Arnold Ceremony Sunday Afternoon Event

Lavender and yellow made up a charmingly arranged wedding in the Knight Memorial Congregational church Sunday afternoon when Miss Beula Lee Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Arnold, was married to James Benjamin Williams, son of Mrs. Harold Dickey. The Rev. Louis White read the vows at 4 o'clock.

Baskets of lavender and yellow gladioluses, lavender asters and yellow snapdragons decorated the church, lighted tapers in candelabras gleaming over the flowers. Lavender and yellow gladioluses tied with white satin bows were arranged down the pews of the processional aisle.

Misses Janet Lindley and Marilyn Nichols, wearing pale green frocks fashioned identically in style to the gowns of the other bridal attendants, lighted the tapers.

Soloist for the wedding was Robert Gwinn, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Because" and "I Love Thee Only." Mrs. Lucille Mitchell playing the organ. The petite bride wore a white satin gown.

The bodice was fitted and Peter Pan collar were of French lace. The sleeves were long and fitted and the gown was designed with full court train. The double illusion veil was arranged from a Juliet cap of French lace. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of red rosebuds and bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her father.

Lavender, Yellow Gowns
Gowns of the bride's attendants in lavender and yellow were made alike with circular skirts, pin-tucked yokes and Peter Pan collars of white organdy, cap sleeves and wide white sashes of satin tied in bustle bows with floor-length streamers.

Mrs. Robert Wagers, sister of the bride, as honor attendant, was in lavender organdy, as was the junior bridesmaid, young Miss Mary Arnold, sister of the bride. Miss Joan Hoereth and Miss Crystal Huntington, the other two bridesmaids, were in yellow organdy. Mrs. Wagers and Miss Arnold each carried a fluted fan of material matching her dress with sprays of yellow asters, and each wore satin streamer bands of feathered asters in her hair. Miss Hoereth and Miss Huntington carried fluted fans matching their dresses in color with sprays of lavender orchids, and lavender flowers in their hair.

The little flower girl, Judith Hansen, wore a yellow organdy frock in pinaflore style.

Robert Seamster was best man. Ushering were Robert Wagers, Theodore Coval, Jerry Arnold, Lowell Weese, Bruce Boatman and Tom Bartlett.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Arnold wore a rose silk crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Dickey, mother of the bridegroom, wore a turquoise silk crepe dress with cinnamon brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias and Tallis-man rosebuds.

Assist at Reception
The church fireplace room, decorated in lavender asters and yellow snapdragons, was the scene for the reception. Mrs. Oscar Evans, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Kathleen Arnold and Mrs. William Brinkley, both aunts of the bridegroom, poured. Assisting were Miss Irene McLeod, Miss Nancy Snyder, Miss Ruth Holtzman, Miss Josephine Coughlin, Miss Janyce Baker and Miss Betty Brinkley. Miss Ruth McCall had charge of the guest book and Miss Jean Pickens was in charge of the gifts.

When ready to leave on their trip to the Oregon coast, the bride was wearing a powder blue and white tweed suit, white accessories and a corsage of baby orchids. After September 1, the couple will be at home in Santa Rosa, Calif.

THE WOMEN'S Catholic Order of Foresters will meet at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Zielski, route 7, for a no-host dinner Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Alberta Meusey, chairman; Mrs. P. J. Meistrick, Mrs. Mary Nelson and Mrs. Anna Okrasinski.

Plans will be completed for the cooked food and apron sale on August 27 in Elfstrom's store basement.

ARRIVING Monday for a visit in Salem and Portland was Mrs. W. B. Burt of Glendale, Calif., former Salem resident. While in Salem she is guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Logan. Mrs. Mae Parsons of Glendale accompanied Mrs. Burt north, going on to Seattle.

GERVAIS—Invitations have been received to the wedding of John L. St. John, son of Mr. and Mrs. David St. John, and Miss Lois Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cooper of Portland, at the First Christian church, Portland, Friday, August 26, at an 8:30 p. m. ceremony.

ON FRIDAY, Mrs. George W. Ailing, president of the Salem Woman's club, invited a group of the Woman's club members to her home for a get-acquainted afternoon.

Wedding Invitations

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Marjorie May Tate of Sublimity and Lawrence E. Christian of Lebanon. The ceremony will be solemnized the evening of Saturday, September 10, in the First Congregational church in Salem. The reception following is to be in the church fireplace room.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulwin M. Tate of Sublimity. Mr. Christian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Christian of Lebanon.

Miss Kerber Wed Sunday

The marriage of Miss Patsy Marie Kerber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Kerber, to Jackson C. Grenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grenz of Albany, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at a 2 o'clock service in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. T. J. Bernards officiating.

Baskets of white gladioluses decorated the church for the wedding. For the music Wayne Meusey sang "The Lord's Prayer" and he also played the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin. The dress had long pointed sleeves, seed pearl trim around the sweetheart neckline which was filled in with nylon net, and a long train. The full length veil was arranged from a sweetheart crown. The veil was the one worn by Mrs. Willard Hubert of Albany at her wedding. For her flowers the bride carried a fan shaped arrangement of red roses centered with a white orchid and tied with satin streamers.

Dresses Lavender, Green
Mrs. Bernard Grindle (Gwen Boyer) was the honor attendant, wearing a gown of light lavender marquisette. The dress had a berth collar, a tight fitting bodice that came to a point at the waist. For her flowers Mrs. Grindle carried a crescent bouquet of green carnations.

Miss Marge Grenz, sister of the bridegroom was bridesmaid. Her dress was fashioned identically to that of the honor attendant but was in light green marquisette. Her flowers were light lavender carnations in a crescent bouquet.

William C. Grenz was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Darwin Kerber, brother of the bride and James Ammon, a cousin of the bridegroom.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a lavender crepe gown and the bridegroom's mother a gown of deep plum crepe. Both wore corsages of Rubrum lilies.

At Reception
The reception was given in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Paul Shaffer, aunt of the bride, and pouring was Mrs. James Ammon. Assisting were Miss Beverly McMillan, Miss Beverly Marr, Mrs. Charles Whittemore, Mrs. Newell Williams. In charge of the gifts were cousins of the bride, Miss Lorraine Falconer, Miss Sharon Shafer and Miss Carolyn Alsmen. White and lavender sweet peas decorated the bride's table and the reception room.

When leaving on her wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue silk dress with navy accessories and white hat and gloves and the corsage of orchids from the bridal bouquet.

Following a trip to East lake the couple will be at home in Albany, after August 28.

AMONG passengers sailing from Vancouver, B. C., on the Canadian National's steamship, SS Prince George, Friday, for a 10-day cruise to Skagway, Alaska, were Mr. and Mrs. Harland Brock, Harland Dale Brock and Miss Shirley Brock. A large group of Oregonians from other cities were on the boat.

WOODBURN—The wedding of Miss Phyllis Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Alexander, and Lewis Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Walker, all of Woodburn, will be an event of August 26 at 8 p. m. at the First Christian church at Woodburn.

Whitney, brother of the bridegroom.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a rose taffeta dress and Mrs. Whitney was in gray.

The reception following was at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Ralph Edmonds served the bride's cake. Mrs. Glen Hampton, Mrs. Dorothy Foster and Mrs. Peggy Coleman poured. Mrs. Fred Stolk and Mrs. Ruth Anna Hampton served the ices. Assisting were Mrs. George Edmonds, Mrs. McKenney, Mrs. Betty Reed and Mrs. Edna Foster. Pink and white gladioluses and ocean spray were used in decorating for the reception.

For going away the bride wore a yellow challis dress with white accessories and a corsage of white sweet peas.

Following a trip to the Oregon coast the couple will be at home at Gates, after September 1.

Salemite Wed In Pendleton

In Pendleton's First Christian church, Sunday afternoon, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Beth June Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Smith, Sr., of Pendleton, to John Coleman Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Lee, Fruitland Road, Salem.

The double ring rites were read at 3 o'clock in an all-white setting. Baskets of white gladioluses and tall white tapers decorated the church and the pews were marked with the white flowers and satin ribbon bows.

Lighting the tapers were Jack P. Smith, Jr., and Bonner Smith, brothers of the bride. Earl L. King of Pendleton sang, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hill of John Day on the organ. Placing the altar pillows were young Miss Darla Ruck of Pendleton and Bobby Lee of Klamath Falls, cousins of the bridegroom, Darla wearing a pastel blue floor-length taffeta frock with blue net overskirt and wristlets of flowers.

The bridal gown was of white slipper satin, made entrain. The dress had a rippling berth collar, the semi-long neckline; long, pointed sleeves, and a single satin ruffle beginning at either side of the center at the waistline and extending down the back to the train to create a bustle effect. Tiny satin-covered buttons extended from the neckline to below the waist in back. The fingertip net veil, fourfold, cascaded from a crown of white satin bordered by a double row of tiny lace. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, gift of Mr. Lee, and she carried a lace handkerchief which had been carried by the bridegroom's mother and grandmother at their weddings. For her flowers the bride carried an arm bouquet of pink roses with satin ribbon and streamers.

In Pastel Colors
The dresses of the bride's attendants were identical in style—off-the-shoulder necklines bordered with wide berthaes, and full, bouffant skirts. Mrs. Robert Rood of Corvallis, sorority sister of the bride, was in pastel blue taffeta, wearing elbow length mits and a large, heart-shaped picture hat of matching material. Her arm bouquet was of pink gladioluses. Miss Colleen Hise, Corvallis, was in pastel pink; Miss Claralyn Lee, Salem, sister of the bridegroom, in pastel green; Miss Marilyn Russell, Longview, in pastel lavender; Miss Jan Rutledge, Pendleton, in pastel yellow. Each bridesmaid wore a hat in the same style as that of the honor attendant, but matching her dress in color, and wrist-length mits ruffled in taffeta to match her dress; and each carried an arm bouquet of white gladioluses with white satin bows and streamers.

Frank McMullin of Twin Falls, Idaho, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushering were Don Armstrong, Russell Hicks and Dean Bartholomew, all of Salem, Jack P. Smith, Jr., and Bonner Smith, brothers of the bride, and Wayne Gentry, all of Pendleton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith wore a silver-gray crepe gown, sequin-trimmed and in jacket effect, pink elbow-length gloves and corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua crepe gown with pink gloves and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Reception Given
Following the church service a reception was given in the Vert club. Mrs. Paul A. Lee of Klamath Falls, aunt of the bridegroom; Miss Rosemary Raeburn of Portland, Mrs. Henry Baker and Mrs. Pat Mayberry, both of Pendleton, served the bride's cake. Pouring were Mrs. Sam Jordan of Tyler, Texas, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Walter Hendricks, Mrs. O. D. Harris, Mrs. Kathryn Sorensen, all of Pendleton. Mrs. George Woodward, assisted by Mrs. Harold Gentry and Mrs. Vernon Hodges, all of Pendleton, were in general charge of the reception. Assisting were Miss Lura Smith of John Day, who was in charge of the guest book; Miss Lois Sturdivant, Pendleton, who had charge of the gifts; Miss Margaret Benton of Portland, Miss Mae Jeannett Keerins of John Day; Mrs. Harold Werth of Hermiston.

For traveling the bride wore a cerise pink wool gabardine suit, chocolate brown accessories, an aqua topcoat and corsage of pink rosebuds. The couple left by plane for Victoria. They will be at home at 144 North 10th, Corvallis, while Mr. Lee finishes his work at Oregon State college, planning then to make their home in Salem.

KERRY MCKINNEY entertained twelve friends with a circus party on her fifth birthday, Saturday, August 20, at her home at 4220 Rowan avenue, in Manbrin Gardens. A merry-go-round topped the birthday cake, which was served to Diane Ewing, DeeDee Lewis, Elaine Bows, Sharon Henry, Barbara Hoxey, Terry Johnson, Bucky Breedlove, Kenny Hobbs, Bill Johnson, Pete and Jimmie O'Neal and Robert Upton.

Stayton Couple Wed in Salem

Stayton—Scene of a wedding Saturday morning, August 13, at 10 o'clock, was the Sunset avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geil in Salem, when Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams, exchanged vows with Charles R. Geil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Geil, all of Stayton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph Geil, grandfather of the bridegroom.

Attending the couple were the hosts. Mr. Geil is a great uncle of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a light brown suit with matching accessories for her wedding, with which she wore a corsage of Tallis-man roses. Her attendant wore a silk print dress and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Russell Geil attended her son's wedding in an aqua suit and rose corsage. Other attending from Stayton were Mrs. Charles Walker, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mack Williams, brother of the bride.

The bride has been attending Stayton high school and has been active in school activities. A member of the Aecia assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, she has served as grand honorary drill leader and held offices in the assembly. The bridegroom was graduated from Stayton high school in 1945 and is employed by the Geil and Van Handel Lumber company.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple are now at home in Stayton.

Betrothal Told In Honolulu

From Honolulu comes word of the engagement of Miss Norma Lu (Nonnie) Faaborg of that city to Paul B. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beauford S. Cole of Eugene.

Miss Faaborg will be a senior at Willamette university this fall and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and the cappella choir. Mr. Cole also will be a senior at Willamette and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The betrothal was told recently at a tea given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Antoinette Faaborg. The bride-elect made up little four-page newspapers and friends perusing the news of Honolulu eventually found the society page news and the story of the engagement.

The wedding is to be an event of the Christmas holidays in Honolulu.

WOODBURN—A picnic meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club was held last week at Settlemier park. A no-host dinner was served at 7 o'clock and entertainment was a full length silent movie shown by Eugene Stoller. Mrs. Ada Belknap of Rickreall, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Adkinson, was a special guest.

It's such good salt!

Meet Me At Johnson's

I'll be here all this week to help you choose just the back-to-school fashions for you. It's not easy to decide . . .

THE CLOTHES this year are cuter than ever and I really had a time choosing skirts and sweaters. There's an all-wool Plaid Skirt with the new kick-pleat in front. Plaid is very practical because it can be worn with almost any color sweater. I think it looks best, however, with the Red Bermuda Knit Sweater with the new elastic rolled neck.

THEN, the Corduroy Skirt and Jacket will be very good for school because they can be worn separately. The skirt is very new looking . . . pockets on both sides and can be worn with nearly any color sweater. It's washable, too, and good for dates as well as school.

PETER PAN BLOUSE is a necessity in any girl's wardrobe. It's in new diagonal sharkskin and very easy to "do up." It will look darling with skirts and your cardigan, too.

My choice in suits is a new Fall color . . . Burnt Red. It has a cardigan front and buttons way up to the collar so it will look cute with scarfs as well as plain. Good for dress-up and easy to match with accessories. DROP BY . . . and let me show all these to you.
