

Silver Tea In Gardens

A silver tea, to be given in the gardens at the Henry Hanzes home on Wednesday, August 31, is planned by the General Federation of Women's clubs convention fund committee of the Salem Woman's club.

The tea will be between 3 and 5:30 o'clock, and through the press invitation is being extended to all interested in the project.

The committee met the past week for dessert at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Grant C. Raders, to plan for the tea, also the contest project under the General Federation's "Build a Better Community."

In the committee are Mrs. Roers, Mrs. Hanzes, Mrs. Estill, Brunk, Mrs. E. A. Lindet, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Bet A. Walker, Mrs. Ralph H. Coley, Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Mrs. Daid H. Cameron and Mrs. Aling.

Miss Turner Feted At Recent Shower

Amity — One of the bridal showers of the summer season, was an event at the Bethel school gymnasium, when about 70 friends and neighbors gathered to honor Miss Anne Turner, bride-elect of Jim Mischel of Salem.

Guests were Mrs. Leslie Sterart, Mrs. Arthur Lippin, Bety Jean Darnewood and Marger; Hamstreet, Mrs. August Rhde sang tow numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Leslie Stewart. Assisting with serving were Misses Lorea Leppin, Louise Laness and Dorothy Lynch. Misses Susan and Carolyn Hamstreet passed the napkins, Mrs. J. S. Mischel, Miss Mary Gladys Turner and Louise Landess assisted with the gifts.

Attending from Amity were Mrs. James L. Payne, Mrs. Al Newby, Mrs. Maude Strout, Mrs. Edni Strout, and Louise. Special guests were three great aunts of the honored guest. The wedding will be an event of September 11 in Salem.

Paboll green peppers after cutting off the tops and removing the inner seeds and membrane; cut in half lengthwise, fill halves with a mixture of creamed ham and cooked macaroni. Top with buttered soft bread crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for about half an hour.

Miss Boedigheimer Bride at Stayton

Stayton—Miss Donna Boedigheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Boedigheimer of Stayton was married to Gilbert Herrmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Herrmann of Shaw, in a late summer wedding Saturday morning, August 13, at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Catholic church in Stayton. Rev. Math. Jonas officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Gladioluses in pastel and rose and blue hydrangeas were arranged with fern in vases on the altar. Miss Josephine Brand played wedding music and joined Mrs. Lawrence Smith in singing.

The bride wore a white satin wedding gown. It had a fitted bodice with lace trimmed square neckline which had orange blossoms caught at the corners. The full skirt had a slight train and a front panel which had rows of lace ruffles. A bandeau of seed pearls held the three-quarters length veil which was edged in French lace. Her flowers were pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Mr. Boedigheimer gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Bonnie Feilen was her cousin's maid of honor, wearing a gown of pink taffeta which had a sheer yoke with high neckline. A bias fold gave a bertha effect to the shoulder line. The full skirt had three tucks at the hips. The bride wore matching mitts and a bandeau headress of taffeta and a rosette of the material and net. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of fluted yellow gladioluses with a lace frill and tied with matching ribbons.

Misses Marilyn and Marlene Frichtl, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Gowns of pale green taffeta, fashioned with bertha effect shoulders and full matching skirts were worn by the twin bridesmaids. They had matching mitts and head-dresses like that of the honor maid and their flowers were of peach colored gladioluses.

Another cousin of the bride, Sherry Ann Masser, was the little flower girl. She wore a long gown of yellow taffeta with trim of net ruffles, and a matching head-dress. Her flowers were of orchid gladioluses and made up like those of the other attendants.

Frank Bourchers of Shaw, was best man, and Kenneth Boedigheimer and Leroy Fery, cousins of the bride, were groomsmen. Nick Feilen and Tony Masser, uncles of the bride, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding.

Wed at Port Orford—The wedding of Mrs. John Macy, the former Joan Thomas, was an event of August 8 at Port Orford. The couple will live at Dallas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas of Port Orford, Mr. Macy the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Macy of Monmouth. (Sands studio, Gold Beach)

Mrs. Boedigheimer wore a dress of navy blue with a large blue hat which had pink dotted veiling trim, and she wore pink gloves. Gladioluses in pink were used for her corsage.

A reception was held in the parish hall in the afternoon. Bouquets of gladioluses and fern were used to decorate the hall and the bride's table was arranged in white and orchid. Mrs. Mary Kerber and Mrs. Clarice Lindemann prepared the refreshments and Mrs. Ed Benedict was in charge of the dining room.

For the present, they will make their home with the bride's parents.

Rita Eder Wed In Gervais Church

Gervais — The marriage of Miss Rita Eder, daughter of Mr. Frank Eder, to Richard Riebschlager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Riebschlager of Salem, was solemnized at a 7:30 a. m. nuptial mass before an altar decorated with white, pink and yellow gladioluses, in the Gervais Sacred Heart church, Tuesday, August 16. Rev. Edwards of Mt. Angel performed the double ring ceremony.

Preceding the service, Misses Irene Eder and Vivian Eder of Gervais; Mrs. Benjamin Baker of Salem and Mrs. Lawrence Hendricks of Sublimity sang. Mrs. Marie Donnelly of Woodburn played their accompaniment and the marches. They also sang at the close of mass.

The bride wore a white satin floor-length gown, fashioned in princess style with lace trim, long sleeves and closed in the back with self covered buttons. The fingertip veil was lace trimmed and held in place with an orange blossom headpiece. The bride carried a nosegay of white carnation, pink rosebuds from which hung streamers of white satin knotted ribbon. The bride wore a gold cross necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Lawrence Eder gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Lawrence Riebschlager was matron of honor and wore a floor-length gown of pale yellow crepe, and a white net and flower headpiece in her hair.

She carried a nosegay of cream gladioluses and white carnations. Lawrence Riebschlager, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Eder wore a blue and white crepe dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Riebschlager, mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown suit with brown accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Riebschlager home in Salem and a reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride, Mrs. Wenzel Eder, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and two other aunts of the bride, Mrs. Fred Eder and Mrs. George Eder, assisted. Mrs. Norbert Eder and Miss Irene Eder served.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a black crepe dress, beige coat with white accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

The couple will reside in Salem upon their return from a trip to the Oregon beaches.

Miss Randall is Bride at Aurora

Aurora—Zion Lutheran church, Oregon City, was the scene of the wedding August 14 of Miss Georgia Ann Randall and Glen E. Burgin of Portland. Rev. Orval Whitman, pastor of the First Methodist church of Oregon City read the service. Miss Jane Rapp, the bride's cousin, was organist. Keith Allen of Portland was soloist.

The bride wore an attractive white brocaded satin gown of her own creation fashioned with nylon net yoke, full train and matching satin mitts. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped by baby orchids, with showers of stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father, George C. Randall of Central Point.

Miss Betty Adams of Heppner, the maid of honor, wore white organdy over yellow taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds, baby bouvardia and asters. The bridesmaids Mrs. Thomas B. Houser (Hildegarde Pardey) of Portland, Miss Lucille Pardey of Aurora and Miss Marian Miller of Forest Grove also wore white organdy over pale green taffeta and carried nosegays similar to that of the honor attendant.

Little Rebecca Alborn, four-year-old cousin of the bridegroom from Pendleton, was flower girl. She wore a frock of cream organdy with lace and carried a tiny basket of pink rose petals.

James Hillyard of Portland served as best man for Mr. Burgin. Gerri Robbins of Molalla, Don Korn of Eugene and John Dinkel of Portland ushered, and also lighted the altar candles.

Pink and white flowers decorated the church social rooms for the reception, at which Mrs. Edgar E. Miller of Portland, the bride's sister-in-law, cut the cake. Mrs. Edward Kletzok (Arlene Staehley) of Gladstone poured. Mrs. Lottie Randall Crawford, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Arch Phillips assisted in serving. The guest book was passed by Miss Elizabeth McDermott of Portland. Miss Geraldine Miller of Portland, the bride's niece, and Mrs. Maynard Sandberg of Council Bluffs, assisted. The guest book was passed by Miss Elizabeth McDermott of Portland. Miss Geraldine Miller of Portland, the bride's niece, and Mrs. Maynard Sandberg of Council Bluffs,

FAVORITE OF MILLIONS
St. Joseph Aspirin is aspirin at its best. So fast, pure. World's largest seller at 10c. Get it today.
St. Joseph ASPIRIN
NEW! ST. JOSEPH'S ASPIRIN FOR CHILDREN Made for correct child dosage needs. So easy to give, easy to take. 50 tablets, 35c.

Capital Journal, Salem, Ore., Monday, August 22, 1949—7

Iowa, sister of the bride, who flew west for the wedding, were in charge of gifts.

A Canby union high graduate of 1945, Mrs. Burgin completed work for her home economics degree at OSC in June of this year. She is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She will teach in the Elmira high school west of Eugene this year. Mr. Burgin, a graduate of Portland's Franklin high school, son of C. A. Burgin of Pendleton and Mrs. Joseph Gehrig of Redmond, is a senior in pharmacy at Oregon State, where he is affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi. After honeymooning at Crater Lake, the Oregon Caves and Redwoods, they will return to reside in Corvallis.

Mothers Guests Of DAV Auxiliary

The War Mothers and Gold Star Mothers were entertained at a garden party sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Stuart Johns. The music theme was "Buttons and Bows," and the mothers were presented with corsages made of buttons and bows. On the program were Beverly Rinehart, Dolores Gottfried, Frank Leobold, Katie Uhring, Addie Curtis, Rose Hagardorn and Emma Ullery. Mrs. Josephine Ostrander was chairman of the program. Mrs. Roy Lively was chairman of transportation. Mary Bremmer passed the guest book.

Mrs. Pauline Richard, commander of DAV auxiliary, gave the welcoming speech. Assisting Mrs. Johns were Eva Bennett, Alma Hatfield, Ann Rickard, Verna Willer, Fanny Bard, Helen Martin, Evelyn Bremmer and Hulda Rinehart.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Letha Lillie, department commander, Medford; Mrs. Blanche Zellinski, district commander from Oregon City; Irene Tanner, commander, Oregon City; Mrs. Mary Welden, chaplain, from Oregon City; Mrs. Edith Stone, Mrs. Dolores Murdock and Mrs. Lillian S. Lugsdon from Albany.

To blanch almonds put them in boiling water until their skins loosen; slip off the skins with your fingers; dry the almonds, slice lengthwise into thin slices. Melt a few tablespoons of age butter or margarine in a skillet, add the almond strips, and brown them slowly, stirring frequently.

"PEACHY"

IS THE WORD. No other is quite adequate to describe our Peach Ice Cream. A flavor and richness peculiar to itself, different from anything you have ever tasted, which is as it should be. For we use only perfect fruit combined with the finest cream, milk and other ingredients in its making. You'll enjoy its fascinating utter smooth, deliciousness.

THE PIKE ICE CREAM NOW AVAILABLE AT OUR TWO STORES

138 SOUTH LIBERTY—Downtown
2234 FAIRGROUNDS ROAD—in the Hollywood District

The Hollywood Store is the finest Ice Cream Store in the Northwest. There is plenty of off-street free parking space. Have you seen the Neon Sign there—an ice cream cone nearly thirty feet high.

WE FREEZE OUR OWN ICE CREAM

Packers and dippers loaned for picnic orders. Phone in early—3-6828.

GROWERS Treat Your Harvest Crews with Pike Ice Cream.

college pointers by

Sacony.

it's as simple as a-b-c to build a color-planned wardrobe with Sacony Separates

This is the way to buy your clothes! On the Sacony A-B-C Plan—which means skirts and shirts cleverly planned for perfect blending, for care-free upkeep, and above all, for easy buying!

a is for the ALL WOOL shirts that are all wonderfully washable.

b is for the BLENDING—such happy color blending—in striped skirts that mate perfectly—each to its own shirt.

c is for the CASH—so little needed! Both are yours for a bit more than a twenty dollar bill. Any Sacony shirt illustrated is 8.95, any skirt 12.95

a b c Price's