Couple Feted on Golden Wedding

Stayton—In celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allis, open house was held at their home here Aug. 14, between 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. More than 100 friends and relatives signed the guest book. The couple received many gifts and cards, and Mrs. Allis wore an orchid which had been sent her by her son's mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Childs of Yuba City, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Allis came to Stayton in 1910 where he worked as clerk in the old Thomas and Mayo grocery, later engaging in farming. Ohio was the birthplace of both of them where he was born November 13, 1875 and she, April 24, 1877. They were married in Cleveland, O., August 10, 1899.

A large cake, decorated in white and gold, was cut by Mr. Allis, assisted by his niece, Mrs. Alfred Berger of Perry, O., who has been visiting in Washington and Oregon for the last six weeks. Remove the skins first by immersing them in hot water, then quarter them and simmer in a deep skillet (without water) until they are quite soft. Season them with butter or margarine, salt, freshly-ground pepper. If desired celery salt and a dash of all-spice also may be added as well as a little sugar.

Orange Bread Pudding

Ingredients: 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk, 2 egg yolks (beaten), 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/4 cup seedless raisins, 2 egg whites (stiffly beaten).

Method: Soak the bread crumbs in the milk; rub through a coarse sieve into a medium-sized mixing bowl. Add the egg yolks and sugar and mix well. Add the orange juice and raisins and mix again. Fold the stiffly beaten egg whites into the pudding. Turn into 4 custard cups. Sets cups in pan of hot water and bake in a moderate (350F.) oven for about an hour or until set. Chill before serving.

If you want corn to taste its freshest don't husk it until you are ready to cook it, and store it in the refrigerator after buying or picking it until the moment it is to be prepared. If any corn is left over, cut the kernels from the cobs and use in corn fritters. Serve them with maple syrup as an accompaniment to fried chicken or baked ham. Or use the leftover corn (again cut from the cobs) in a vegetable soup.
