Tuna Fish Salad
Ingredients: 1 seven-ounce can tuna fish, 1/2 cup finely diced celery, 1/2 cup finely diced cucumber, 1 cup well-drained cooked peas, 2 hard-cooked eggs (sliced), 3 tablespoons (about) mayonnaise or creamy-type salad dressing, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1/2 teaspoon cider vinegar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon sugar, salad greens.

Method: Flake tuna fish unless it is already flaked. Add to it the celery, cucumber, peas and eggs. In a small bowl mix the mayonnaise or creamy-type salad dressing with the mustard, vinegar, salt, and sugar until they are well combined; add to the tuna mixture, mixing lightly. Serve on salad greens. 4 servings.

Berg-Ferguson Service Friday First Wedding in New Evangelistic Temple

The new Evangelistic Temple was the scene of its first wedding last Friday evening when Miss Beryl Eileen Ferguson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Roy C. Ferguson, was married to the Rev. Allen L. Berg of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Berg of Vernon, B.C. The double ring rites were read at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Mr. Ferguson officiating, assisted by the Rev. W. S. Fredericks, pastor of the church.

The church was decorated profusely with many gladioluses, the pastel colored ones being at the altar. For the music, Miss Mary Katherine Bullock and Howard Olsen sang and at the organ was Miss Joan Bair.

The bride was escorted to the altar by an uncle, F. L. Stephens, and she was given in marriage by her mother. The wedding dress was of white satin designed with sweetheart neckline and short train. The veil was fingertip length. The bride carried a white Bible with white gladioluses and stephanotis. With her dress the bride wore a necklace that belonged to her maternal grandmother and she carried a handkerchief which her mother and sister had carried at their weddings.

Two sisters of the bride were honor attendants, Miss Marilyn Ruth Ferguson and Mrs. Lloyd E. Hoeye (Carol Denise Ferguson), Miss Ferguson wearing a blue gown of taffeta with net skirt, Mrs. Hoeye, a yellow taffeta gown. Miss Doris Jean Schmidt as bridesmaid wore a pink dress. All three carried bouquets of pastel colored gladioluses.

The candle lighters were Miss Dorothy Carlson and Miss Luella Olsen. Darleen Warner was flower girl, wearing a floor-length pink organdy frock, and Steven Meredith Hoeye the ring bearer.

The Rev. Robert Kimball was best man. Groomsman were Rev. Noble Ballew and the Rev. Irwin Gilbrath, both of Portland. Ushers were Roy Hageman, Walter Friesen, Dick Loutham, Melvin Bales and John Walter.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ferguson wore a powder blue dress and the bridegroom's mother was in a gray suit. Both mothers wore corsages of pink gladioluses and white carnations.

The reception was at the church and many gladioluses in various colors were used in decorating. The bride's table was set with a linen cloth that had belonged to the bride's great grandmother and is one that has been used in all weddings of the family for three generations. Mrs. Winnie Hamman, an aunt, served the cake. Miss Joan Schwabauer and Miss Betty Sorensen poured. Serving were Miss Lora Friesen, Miss Alice Carlson, Miss Annamie Einfeldt, Miss Ruth Petty of Baridon was in charge of the gift book and in charge of the gifts were Miss Billie Oliver and Miss Aileen Hanner. Mrs. Howard Olsen assisted in arranging the wedding and reception.

For traveling the bride wore a maroon gabardine suit with black hat, trimmed with white and gray feathers, black accessories and corsage of white flowers.

The couple will reside at Lents, Ore. The bride, who attended Southern California Bible college at Pasadena and the Oregon College of Education,

Miss Vickroy Is Wed at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—In a setting of white gladioluses and greenery, lighted by candelabras at St. Mary's Catholic church, Miss Dolores Vickroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Vickroy of Mt. Angel, and Howard Naegeli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Naegeli of Silverton, exchanged vows at a double ring ceremony. Rev. Vincent Koppert, OSB, read the services at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, August 20. Miss Helen Keber presided at the pipe organ for the processional and recessional marches, and accompanied Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Lucy Van Cleef, who sang preceding and after the service.

Mr. Vickroy gave his daughter in marriage. She was dressed in a white frock made of eyelet embroidery fashioned with fitted bodice, short sleeves, and picture frame collar. Her hat and accessories were of white, and she carried a white pearl prayer book topped with a spray of American Beauty rosebuds.

ton stood as matron of honor for her sister. She was dressed in a frock of chartreuse, with which she wore a white hat and white accessories. Miss Charlene Vickroy, another sister, was the bridesmaid, wearing a pink frock with white accessories. Each carried a spray of gladioluses.

Lloyd Naegeli served as best man for his brother and Lloyd Stoltenberg of Portland was groomsmen. Ushers were another brother, Norman Naegeli of Silverton, Vaile Dickerson of Silverton and Alan Jungwirth of St. Paul, uncle of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vickroy was dressed in yellow linen with roses and applique trim. Her accessories were in gray and she wore a corsage of gardenias and Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Naegeli was dressed in a royal blue afternoon dress for her son's wedding. Her accessories were in gray and white and she also wore a gardenia and Cecil Brunner rose corsage.

A reception followed at the St. Mary's dining hall. Mrs. A. J. Jungwirth, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Roy Timmerman has charge of the guest table. Mrs. Pete Uselman passed the guest book and Mrs. A. Jungwirth cut the cake. Serving were the Misses Loretta Huber, Mary Huber and Rosemarie Huber, Pat Lesmeister and Wilma Lesmeister.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will reside in Spokane, Wash.
