He Made It! 18 Year-Old

Dover, Eng., Aug. 24 (U.R)-British schoolboy swimmer Philip Mickman swam the English channel today in 23 hours and 48 minutes, fighting wind, rain and tides which forced him 19 miles out of his way in the normally 21-mile swim.

The 18-year-old Mickman became the youngest swim-mer ever to accomplish the feat. His record also was one of the slowest.

Mickman, who had tried twice before to conquer the channel and had failed, reached shore at Kingsdown, Eng., five miles north of Dover at 4:33 a.m

GMT (9:33 p.m. Tuesday PDT).
He started at Cap Griz Nez, France, at 4:45 a.m. GMT (9:45 p.m. Tuesday (PDT) yesterday.
Mickman rested a few minutes on the beach when he reached land. Then he boarded his pilot boat which brought him to Dover. He said he was going to sleep awhile and take another swim this
