Asparagus with Cheese Sauce and Deviled Eggs

Ingredients: 2 hard-cooked eggs, 2 teaspoons salad dressing-type meat sauce, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk (use ¾ cup asparagus liquid and ¼ cup milk if desired), 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, 12 stalks (1 pound) medium-size hot cooked asparagus, paprika.

Method: Cut eggs in half lengthwise; take out yolks and mash with salad dressing-type meat sauce; refill whites with yolk mixture and set aside. Melt butter or margarine in a small saucepan, remove from heat and add flour and salt, blending well. Add milk slowly, stirring until smooth after each addition. Return to moderate heat and cook stirring constantly, until thickened and bubbly; cook and stir for another minute or two to cook flour thoroughly. Remove from heat, add cheese and stir vigorously. Pour sauce over lower part of asparagus stalks, sprinkle sauce with paprika, garnish with deviled egg halves and serve immediately. 2 servings.

Shower Given for The Man This Time

Reversing the usual procedure, P. W. Hale was host Monday evening at a surprise party and "pink and blue" shower for E. W. Morgan.

Guests for the informal evening of cards included E. W. Morgan, Neal Nisbet, Thaine Olson, Robert Tindall, Jess Sohn of Independence, Dean and Floyd Allen of Rickreall, Wayne Allen of West Salem and the host.

Mt. Angel Man Wed in Portland

Mt. Angel — Of interest to their many friends in the valley was the wedding of Miss Anne Helene Peterson of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson of Hermiston, and Jacob W. Penner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Penner of Mt. Angel, who were married Saturday morning at St. Mary's cathedral, Portland, by the Rev. Father Curtin.

The church was decorated with standards of gladioluses and asters against a background of woodwardia. The organist, Father Johnson, played the wedding music and for the cathedral men's choir who sang during the nuptial mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional white satin made with fitted bodice, lace yoke above the shoulder collar, long sleeves and full skirt with court train. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a basket of Rubrum lilies centered with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Harold Bunch was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Cvetich of St. Helens, Mrs. Kenneth Robertson of Pendleton and Miss Monica Foy. All were dressed identically in bouffant satin frocks in an ashes-of-roses shade and matching hats. They carried flower baskets with satin handles holding anemone-type asters with chartreuse centers. The junior bridesmaid, Jeanna May Bunch, was dressed like the other attendants and carried a miniature basket.

Douglas Fenner of Mt. Angel was best man. Ushers were Harold Fenner, Ralph Wolf and Herold Bunch.

The reception was held at the bride's home in Portland. Mrs. L. W. Tammie and Miss Frances Yeager poured and Mrs. A. S. Sprauer of Mt. Angel and the Misses Marie Sulheim and Alma Thom assisted.

After a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., the couple will live in Medford.

MT. ANGEL—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boylan of Stockton, Calif., are spending two weeks vacation in the north, and while here are house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wachtel. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilde on Monday, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Boline of Salem on Tuesday.

MT. ANGEL—The Misses Margaret Traeger, Irene Susa, and Pat Connell have returned from a week's vacation spent in the south with San Francisco as their headquarters. They made the trip on the Shasta Daylight.
