Miss Morgan Bride Sunday

In an all white setting on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church Miss Mary Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Morgan, was married at a double ring ceremony to Donald G. De Lisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. De Lisle of Ashland. The Rev. Dudley Strain read the vows at 4 o'clock.

Miss Gwen Chase of Springfield and Miss Orla Deedon of Amity, wearing pink and blue taffeta frocks, similarly fashioned in style to those of the other bridesmaids, lighted the tapers.

Soloist was Miss Alene Amacher of Hillsboro. Mrs. John Schmidt played the organ.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown of long sleeves and fitted bodice trimmed with crystal beads and orange blossoms. The double full-length veil of embroidered illusion cascaded from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a large lavender throated white orchid on a white Bible with white stain streamers and stephanotis.

Frocks of the bridesmaids were fashioned alike in taffeta with fitted bodices, sweetheart necklines and Martha Washington sleeves. Mrs. William Morgan, sister-in-law of the bride, as honor attendant was in pink. Bridesmaids, were Miss Ruth Willoughby of Springfield, in blue, and Miss Elva Rankin of Astoria in yellow. Each carried white crocheted baskets of baby breath, pastel sweet peas and roses tied with huge bows and streamers. Little Miss Diane Lee, flower girl, wore a floor length blue dotted Swiss dress, identical in style to the other attendants. She also carried a smaller white crocheted basket of flowers. Master Phillip Perlman, small son of the Harry Perlman, carried the rings on a satin lace pillow.

Earl De Lisle, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushering were William Morgan of Corvallis, brother of the bride and Jack Merriott of Eugene. Ralph Morgan Jr. and Verono Waite closed the aisles.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Morgan wore a brown taffeta dress with brown and green accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. De Lisle wore a gown of aqua crepe with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and pink rosebuds.

The reception was in the church parlor. The serving table was decorated with a lace cloth and white tapers. The large cake was surrounded with sweet peas and tiny rose buds. Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson cut the cake. Mrs. Rex Putnam presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. M. C. Buchanan served the punch. Serving were Mrs. Gordon Wood and Mrs. Calvin Stewart of Stayton, cousin of the bride. Assisting were Miss Jeanne DuBuy, Miss Patricia Zahare, Miss Patricia Zosel, Miss Donna Johnson and Miss Lucile Proctor.

Mrs. Grant Fallin introduced to the line. Mrs. Conrad Lee had charge of the gift table and the

A Pretty Room—Any little girl would be happy with this pretty room which is planned to include everything she needs for fun and comfort. Sectional book shelves, table and chairs, and a juvenile desk form a complete play area, and still allow plenty of space for the bed and chest.

Misses Barbara Daleiden and Joan Lockhard of Eugene had charge of the guest book.

When ready to leave on their honeymoon to San Francisco the bride was wearing a Glen plaid suit with black accessories. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will attend the University of Oregon at Eugene this winter.

Reservations Due

Reservations for the informal supper and dance planned by the Reserve Officers Association and the Salem Women's Army and Navy League should be in by Thursday evening.

Those taking reservations are Mrs. Harlan A. Judd, Mrs. George G. Lyon, Jr., Mrs. George Spaur, Mrs. Richard Reynolds. The party is to be Friday evening at the American Legion club.

You can peel two bunches of small-sized beets, cut them in long strips, and cook them in a half cup of salted water for 10 to 15 minutes or until tender. Dress them with a little sugar and lemon juice before serving. Or if you want to cook the beets whole, leave on an inch or two of their stems and the long taproot; peel them after they are cooked and the skins will slip off easily. Then they may be sliced or diced and used as desired.
