Recent Herb Tea Successful Event

Lebanon—Most important event of the summer social season here was the 12th herb tea of the Lebanon Garden club at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dillard. The guest book revealed the names of 300 guests, many of whom came from out-of-town points.

A collection of herb books, with lists of books on herbs and gardening, was exhibited by Mrs. Adelaide Barker, of the state library, who was guest speaker of the afternoon. She invited correspondence with the library for needed garden books.

Mrs. E. Rasmussen's large collection of herb products gave a variety of suggestions for the use of herbs. Two tables also were full of herbs grown by other gardeners of Lebanon.

Other displays included the fuchsia exhibit of Mrs. Bruce Enslay; prize dahlias from the garden of the Misses Helen and Dorothy Clem and Mrs. F. H. Haskell's gourd display, the latter to be shown at the State Fair.

The tea table, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ivan Ayers, was busy all afternoon. It provided 18 different herbs for tea brewing, herb sandwiches, cookies and candied flowers.

Garden club presidents present at the tea included Mrs. Alice Sprague of Riverview; Mrs. L. R. Breithaupt of Corvallis; Mrs. Wayne Hulbert of Junction City; Mrs. F. H. Sexton, Molalla; Mrs. Isa Silver, West Linn; Mrs. Ben Maxwell, Salem; Mrs. George Cross, Halsey and Mrs. Carrie Emery of Sweet Home.

Mrs. A. E. Haith of Corvallis, vice president of the State Federation, and Mrs. L. Ritter of Portland, chairman of the Columbia district, were guests. Members of the Oregon Herb society of Portland included Mr. W. E. Wilhelm, Miss Alena Jacobsen, Mrs. F. Pershing, all of whom have been speakers at former herb teas, and Mrs. Jean Hollowell.

Souvenirs of the tea included herb punch recipes, herb cuttings, small bags of tea blends and seasoning seeds.

Herb punch was served to the guests as they entered the garden by Mrs. Ken Kenyon who made the punch, and by Misses Rita Kenyon and Barbara Gambers.

Mrs. Herbert Faller, Lebanon Garden club president, gave the welcoming talk and introduced Mrs. Thomas Dillard, whose gardens provided the setting for the tea.
